ately $40 monthly. Important part of the proposed social security amendment is to start making payments under this act next January instead of in 1942. In this fund, June 1, there was $1,098,814,347, of which 17 million dollars came from 3 percent interest on treasury securities. Looks like a happy new year for several million elderly people.

More mountain lions were killed in Oregon last year than in any other state or Alaska. In total take of fur-bearing animals, Oregon ranks 19th; Washington 23d. Oregon take was 66,800 animals of 13 species; muskrats numbered 49,100; mink 6600; common skunks 3600. Washington take was 50,300 animals of 16 species, muskrats 35,159; mink 5200; coyotes.

New policy of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation will aid truck garden farmers. The plan is to buy in farmers' markets fresh vegetables during certain periods of surplus production, as a means of assisting vegetable growers engaged in efforts to improve marketing conditions. All vegetables bought by FSCC will be given to state welfare agencies for distribution to needy families.

This week the government will launch an experiment to seek farm source motor fuels. The experiments will be undertaken with a view to making liquid, gaseous and solid motor fuels from potatoes, corn, wheat, beans and other crops. Object: to find cheaper motor fuel and develop new uses for crops which are frequently surplus.

LIBRARY NOTES

Through the cooperation of Miss Harriet C. Long, State Librarian, it has been possible to borrow approximately 200 volumes of fiction and non-fiction, suitable for grade and high school students. In order that these books may be available to a greater number of young people of this community, Miss Long is sponsoring a reading project, which is being carried out under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth K. Stratton of the Salem Public Library. Temporary white library cards, good until September 1 are being issued to those not having regular blue cards.

The poster contest in connection with reading project is for first to eighth grades inclusive, which are divided into three age groups. Contestants may still enter the contest up to July 29. Anyone with five or more books entered on card, may make a poster of the book he chooses; poster to depict title of book or some incident which appeals to contestant. Books must be entered on contest cards on Thursdays from 2 to 4 p. m. Suitable prizes will be awarded best posters in each group. A special prize is being offered for the greatest number of books entered on any one card, either an oral or very short written report being acceptable.

A number of requests for contest cards have been received from older students and while it has not been possible to include this age group at this time, it is to be hoped that in future contests of this kind, facilities will permit this group being included.

HAZELDALE

Floyd Dodson of Salm is staying with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dodds. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pierson entertained with a party Saturday evening honoring their son, Ted, on his sixth birthday anniversary. Guests were Mrs. John Imbelle, Bernice, Barbara and Billy Imbale, Bud Hanson, and Dizz Gassner.

Mrs. Mae Poirtes of Seattle, and her daughter, Mrs. J. Jones of Portland were guests Thursday of Mrs. Rebecca Ellerson. Mrs. Poirtes and Mrs. Ellerson's are sisters.

Attendance was 38 at Sunday school. Mrs. R. C. Doty was acting superintendent in the absence of Ray McMahn. Teddy Pierson celebrated a birthday.

A group of friends surprised the newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Weaver, Thursday evening, after they moved into Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Livermore's home to stay while they are away on a trip to Minnesota.

Dizz Gossner of Portland spent the week end with his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Pierson.

Southside Merchants Win Softball Pennant

Latest triumph for Beaverton came with the winning of the softball pennant of the Beaverton-Bonny Slope league, captured by the Southside Merchants last week. Defeating the Bonny Slope store team by a score of 10 to 7 in a hotly contested game, gave the local lads the honor. The decisive victory came as the final touch of a series of fine performances by the personnel of the home team. Although equalling the winners in batting power, the storemen committed four errors which allowed the winning Beaverton runs.

The Southside Merchants team is composed of the following players: Hagoes, E. Leach, B. Leach, Block, Steinmetz, G. Traskel, T. Traschel, Helsler, Davidson, and Todemeyer. The last named player was with the team until the last game. He is at present working at the coast. A spirit of team co-operation has been responsible for the fine showing which has made possible the taking of the pennant.

Last week's performance makes the Beaverton team eligible for the Washington County tournament to be played at Hillsboro in the near future. Exact date of the contest has not yet been announced to the players, however they are expecting it soon.

The tournament will include the winners of the four softball leagues covering the activities of the sport in the Tualatin valley and is expected to be held the last of this month. Having won nine games in their own league, the Southside Merchants are hopeful of their ultimate standing in the valley finals.

Competition in the near future between the Southside Merchants and the Beaverton Auto team is eagerly awaited by both groups. The Beaverton Auto players have in their own circle of activity, been recording some very interesting victories. The two teams have been evenly matched during the season and should provide a very entertaining game with favorites hard to choose.

Completion of Beaverton's athletic field with its recently installed forty-two fifteen-hundred watt lights, and its new grandstand should open to the average townsman a heretofore unavailable opportunity to view such contests. The dedication of the field in the near future will open a new era in the town's enjoyment of athletics.

Congregational Ladies Meet At Church

Last Thursday Congregational Ladies Aid held their meeting in the church parlors instead of having a picnic at Mrs. McKell's as planned. The road had been freshly oiled necessitating the change in the plans.

Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Boswell sang a duet, and Mrs. Tucker led the devotions. About 35 ladies were present.

Southside Merchants Defeat All-Stars

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	W	L
Beaverton Merchants	7	3
Bonnyslope Store	6	3
Cedar Mill	3	6
Bonnyslope Bees	2	7

Beaverton's powerful Southside Merchants, recent winners of the Beaverton-Bonnyslope softball league defeated an all-star team at Beaverton Sunday by an 8 to 5 score. The Bonnyslope Bees dominated the all-stars runs as Jack Hale, Bee outfielder, accounted for three runs and Bee team mates, Ernie Jones and Art Bartelsky accounted for one run each.

During the week the Bonnyslope Store team defeated a Portland colored team, the Harrier Aces by the narrow margin of 10 to 9.

Only 4 teams played this year in the Beaverton Bonnyslope softball league but indications are that next year the league may be enlarged to accommodate teams that have been refused entrance in the already crowded Hillsboro softball leagues.

Softball teams that might enter the league next year are the strong Beaverton Auto team, St. Mary's, Tigard, Cooper Mt., Sylvan and Aloha. All team managers that are interested in entering the league are urged to communicate with league president Matthew Snyder, Route 5, Box 612-s, Portland.

State Fair Will Spend $100,000 This Year

Approximately $100,000 will be spent this season in the most extensive repairs and improvement program undertaken by the Oregon State Fair in many years. Funds available from the Works Progress administration and the state fair reserve will be expended to put the Salem fair grounds in top notch condition for the seven-day fair season which opens this year on September 4.

Word received by Manager Leo G. Spitzbart from Washington, D. C., indicated recently that a $74,534 WPA grant had been allowed. Previous grants and state fair funds bring the total to approximately $100,000.

The completion of the huge livestock barn will be one of the major undertakings. This will measure 715 by 240 feet over all when it is finished. Remodeling of the horse show stadium to provide additional stalls 50 by 120 feet and to furnish 600 more seats for spectators is another major work.

The new plans announced by Manager Spitzbart indicate that a 6-lane drive into the fairgrounds will be established, the administration building will be remodeled, the old fire barn will be razed and a new one erected in its place, and the agricultural building will be remodeled.

Work is now well under way on a new combination banquet hall and small auditorium which is being located near the administration building.

"These funds give the Department of Agriculture, under which the state fair is operated, the greatest opportunity in history to remodel and beautify the grounds and provide facilities which have been sadly lacking in the past," Manager Spitzbart says.

Educational Program Open To All

Directed by the state department of education and sponsored in Washington county by the county school superintendent's office under the direction of O. B. Kraus with Gordon Grimm of Aloha as field supervisor the federal emergency education program is reaching into various communities in this county. Six teachers are working under the adult program and also seven under recreation work. The courses offered by these thirteen teachers are free to any person who wishes to enroll. Following is a list of the teachers, the type of work carried on and the location of the classes.

One of the most interesting classes is that in Americanization for eight adult Austrian-Jewish immigrants at Six Corners near Sherwood.

Further information on any of the above activities may be obtained from O. B. Kraus, county school superintendent, Hillsboro.

Methodist Ladies Aid Chooses New Officers

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met at the church last Wednesday to hold the annual election of officers. Rev. Earl Horsell presided and the following ladies were elected.

Mrs. Harriet Francis, president; Mrs. Edna Sheets, vice president; Mrs. Zula Wildman, secretary; Mrs. Caroline Clement, treasurer.

Plans for the bazaar were considered and a round table discussion of the coming year's work brought forth several favorable ideas.

The ladies wish to call attention that a special vote placed the time of future meetings as Thursday, instead of Wednesday as in the past.

Latest Facts On Feeding Laying Hens Issued

Feed represents the largest item of cost in the business of producing eggs, and, as a relatively small profit per dozen is made even by efficient operators, the proper selection of feed for laying hens is of utmost importance if egg production is to be kept a paying business.

These facts are pointed out by H. E. Cosby, head of the poultry husbandry department at Oregon State college in the introduction to a new extension bulletin just issued, entitled "Feeding Laying Hens."

The importance of feed in relation to egg quality is also pointed out in the bulletin, which shows that careless uses of certain feeds and other faulty management practices have objectionable effects on interior egg quality.

"Oregon for more than two decades has been producing a surplus of eggs that must compete on a specified quality basis at distant terminal markets with eggs from all sections of the country," Cosby points out. "The price per dozen is determined by the quality of eggs at the eastern markets to which Oregon eggs are shipped."

This bulletin, No. 526, discusses feed nutrients, feed formulas for different purposes, analysis and vitamin content of various feeds, and different feeding methods for differing circumstances. There are also sections on housing range pullets, feeding breeding hens for reproduction, and handling hens in individual cages.
