AMERICANISM
"Americanism is unflinching love of country; loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; undivided allegiance to the flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

AS DR. LUKE SAW IT.

"Too late, boys. Better go back."
"How come?"
"The place packed to the doors Take him back."
But let Dr. Luke tell it; he saw it all. Says he, Men brought in a bed one who had been taken with palsy and they sought means to bring him in and lay him before Jesus. And when they could not find by what means they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop and let him down through the tiling with his couch-mattress, we might say—let him down into the midst before Jesus.
And when Jesus saw THEIR FAITH he said unto him, Man, thy sins be forgiven thee. And the Scribes and Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that forgiveth blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?
But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, He answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? Whether it is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins (He saith unto the sick of the palsy) I SAY UN-TO THEE, ARISE, TAKE UP THY COUCH, AND GO INTO THY HOUSE. And immediately he arose up before them, and took up that wherein he lay, and departed to his own house glorifying God. And they were all amazed, and they glorified God.
First you settle it in your own mind that Christ is able. Then you put the job over into His hands. Right there He goes to work to make good. If ye will I will, he says. Surely. According to your faith be it unto you. Do you discount His power; willingness? Are you just limping along?
You are to leap and run. You are to fly. A vast unseen spiritual realm of infinite forces and power is ready. All to be thrown into gear and bring forth when you have Christ as Saviour and step out on the promises. "My faith looks up to Thee, Thus Lamb of Calvary, Saviour Divine.
Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt away; O let me from this day be wholly Thine." So you travel the upward trail with Him who SAVES—KEEPS—SATISFIES to the uttermost.

For several years we've been us that we've been spending it.

It Happened . . .

It happened as the editor and his wife were huddling up the Canyon road. Attracted by a cloud of dust ahead, the sudden stopping of traffic, and as the dust disappeared a car upside down was visible.
Thru the windows could be seen white forms resembling pillows, however, making unusual motions. Stopping the car they expected to see a horrible sight, and braced themselves for the worst, when to their surprise out came four white clad sailor lads and an elderly kabi-clad man, head and arms emerged first.
Looking about somewhat dazed and sheepish to be sure, and with the exclamation, "So this is Portland." Aside from a bad shaking up and a few scratches the occupants were not injured. The car was soon righted but badly smashed. It had struck one of the drain holes in the center of Canyon road causing the accident.

LIBRARY NOTES

Joseph C. Lincoln, who writes about sea folk, was born on Cape Cod in Brewster, Mass. His father was a seaman and all his ancestors had been seamen. His widowed mother wanted Joseph to become a business man but he preferred to draw. In order to make his pictures sell better, he wrote verses and jokes to go with them. The verses sold better than the pictures.
Later he wrote successful short stories for the Saturday Evening Post. His first novel, "Cap'n Eri" is about three old sea captains who despairing of their joint efforts at house keeping, advertise for a wife. This book, also the "Partners of the Tide," and "Extricating Obadiah," are available at the Community library.
Library hours: 2:30 to 5 p. m., Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. Saturday evening 6:30 to 8 p. m.

Trylon and Perisphere Dessert

By BETTY BARCLAY

As modern as "The World of Tomorrow" itself! And so up-to-the-minute that your guests shower you with exciting compliments on your cleverness!
Here is a novel cake-and-ice-cream miniature of the giant Try-lon and Perisphere which tower over the great New York World's Fair, and you can be first in your crowd to serve them. These amazing buildings leave an indelible impression on every visitor to this easy, colorful spectacle. And this easy, delicious, appealing treat is sure to make just such an impression on your party guests!
Here are the necessary directions:
Almond Ice Cream
2 packages vanilla powdered freezing mix 2 cups cold milk
1/2 teaspoon almond extract 2 cups whipping cream Whip cold whipping cream in a bowl until it holds its shape—no more. Add powdered freezing mix to cold milk, beat with egg beater until smooth. Mix thoroughly with whipped cream without beating.
Stir in almond extract. Pour into freezing tray. Place tray in freezing compartment and freeze until firm but mellow—about 3 hours.
To serve, dip out with scoop or shape into balls with tablespoon.
Serve with apricot sauce. Makes about 3 pints.
Apricot Sauce
1/2 lb. dried apricots (3/4 cup) 2 cups water 1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice 1/4 cup light corn syrup Pinch salt
Wash apricots thoroughly, removing any dark spots. Put in saucepan with the water, cover, and slowly bring to boil; simmer until very tender, about 1 hour.
Rub through sieve, with cooking water. There should be about 1 1/2 cups puree and juice; add enough water to make 2 cups. Add remaining ingredients, bring to boil, and boil 5 minutes, stirring constantly.
Makes about 2 cups.
To Make Trylon
Chop close-textured butter cake such as pound cake. Cut into three-sided pyramids about 5 inches tall, having as bases equilateral triangles with 1 1/2 to 2 inch sides.
Frost with 7-minute frosting to which a few drops of lemon juice have been added to make it spread easily. To frost easily, lay trylons on waxed paper and frost 2 sides in this position; when dry, turn and frost third side.

30 Girls...and a Man!

The Radio City Music Hall Corps de Ballet go into an intricate routine to entertain a group of visiting beauty editors. At right: Arthur S.
Allen, color expert, tests lip make-up and natural complexion coloring on a ballerina with color chart.

NEW YORK: Nine New York beauty editors "ohed" and "ahed" last week when Arthur S. Allen, color expert, showed them what one orange-colored lipstick could do to 30 girls. Sixteen brunettes and brownettes, thirteen blondes and a redhead contributed their services to the cause of science and beauty during the experiment.
The lips of the 30 girls, all members of the internationally famous Radio City Music Hall Corps de Ballet, directed by Florence Rogge, proved that a single Tangee Natural Lipstick could do the work of sixteen different shades.

After performing the intricate Blue Danube Ballet on the Music Hall stage, the dancers lined up before Mr. Allen who, using color cards as guides, determined that sixteen shades ranging from rose to red were produced by the matching color-change principle in the lipstick.

HOLD THAT TIGER!

NEW YORK (Special)—Here's one way to make a living in a profession that's never overcrowded. Captain Pradke is literally putting his head in the tiger's mouth at Frank Buck's Jungleland at the New York World's Fair. The beast with the meal on the tip of her tongue is Lily, aged seven.

The Cook's Nook

Do you say "tomato" or "To-mayto"? Don't argue, say either.
If you want to show off, it is really "Lycopersicon lycopersicum," a plant of the nightshade family and if you want to know what a good juicy one choose a ripe and fat and juicy on eand eat it right down.
Tomatoes come in yellow and green and red; they come in varieties aplenty and shaves several. They come best right now.
Love the "love apple" unless your allergies pain you) and know its affinities, of which some are given here.
You'll be pleased to find that tidbits like sardines and nuts and chicken and fruit are happy with tomatoes.
Tomato French Dressing 1 tiny clove garlic, 1/2 teasp. dry mustard, 1 thsp. confectioners' sugar, 1/2 teasp. salt, dash of Tabasco sauce, 1-3 cup vinegar, 13 cup mazola, 1-3 cup tomato juice.
Rub together first five ingredients in a small bowl until the oil of the garlic has been very thoroughly mixed. Add vinegar and combine well; remove the garlic. Add remaining ingredients and shake well.
Norwegian Surprise
1 can smoked Norwegian sardines, 1/4 lb. cheese, 2 small small tomatoes, 1/4 teasp. salt, 1/4 teasp. pepper, 6 slices bread.
Cut cheese in thin slices and put them on slices of bread. Put a layer of sardines on the cheese and on top a slices of tomato.
Sprinkle with salt and pepper.
Brown on a broiler in a hot oven.
