

THE BEAVERTON REVIEW

The Only Newspaper Devoted Exclusively to the Interests of Eastern Washington County.

Volume XVII, No. 46

Beaverton, Washington County, Oregon, Friday, October 13, 1939

Subscription, $1.00 per yr. In Advance

Beaverton Defeats Hillsboro

LEAGUE STANDINGS

	W	L	F	A	Pct
Beaverton	1	0	7	0	1000
Newberg	1	0	20	0	1000
Sherwood	1	0	7	6	1000
Hillsboro	1	0	21	7	500
Tigard	0	0	0	0	500
Forest Grove	0	1	6	7	000
St. Mary's	0	2	0	41	000

GAMES FRIDAY NIGHT
 Sherwood at Beaverton, 8 p. m.
 Tigard at Newberg, 8 p. m.
 Forest Grove at St. Helens.
 McMinnville at Hillsboro, 8 p. m.
 Hubbard at St. Marys, 2:30 p. m.

The Beavers of Beaverton high school opened the defense of their T.V.V. league crown last Friday night by defeating the Hillsboro Spartans in a hard fought game at Hillsboro 7 to 0. It was a football game all the way.

After forcing Hillsboro to kick the Beavers opened up with a drive in the first quarter only to lose the ball on an intercepted pass in midfield. The Spartans drove to the Beaver six yard line and were held for downs, and after kicking out the Beavers drove to the Hillsboro two yard line. A score was averted when the Beavers were penalized 15 yards for holding. After intercepting a Hillsboro pass in mid-field Dick Randall ran 60 yards to score but this was also called back on Beaverton again penalized 15 yards.

During the second half the Beavers held complete sway, breaking up Hillsboro's passing attack and pushing over a touchdown, after Jones' interception good for 23 yards an Emmons 9 yard thrust to score. Jones threw Emmons a pass to score the extra point.

Hillsboro threw 14 passes to complete 3; had 3 intercepted and 8 knocked down. Beaverton threw 5 passes completing 3 and having one intercepted.

Poultry Meetings To Start October 17

Washington county po trymen will start their annual series of meetings Tuesday, October 17, at 8:00 o'clock, in the Beaverton high school auditorium. Dr. E. M. Dickson, associate veterinarian of the state college, will discuss on that evening "Coccidiosis in Laying Hens" and "Pullorum Disease Control," according to W. F. Cyrus, county agent.

High School Girls Visit Art Museum

The Beaverton high school camp fire girls under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Morse boarded a bus Tuesday afternoon and motored to Portland where they visited the Portland Art museum.

Upon their arrival a guide greeted an escorted them through many beautiful specimens of art. Among them were Greek statues, old works and modern paintings. Mr. Morse brought the girls home in his car. Everyone had a splendid time. Those in the party were Margarette Seldon, Helen Randall, Patty Robinette, Maxine Cady, Jean Lewis, Barbara and Marilyn Walker, PPy Stewart, Oleta Wright and Lois Brande.

"That's Where The Tall Corn Grows"

Piel, corn that measures 15 feet of 2 inches high is on display out in front of the LaPortone. The corn was grown on the St. Mary's boys school farm west of Beaverton.

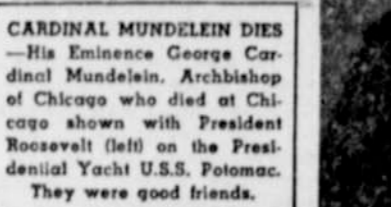

Proposals Requested For Postoffice Quarters

Proposals to furnish suitable quarters for the Beaverton post-office have been asked for by the postoffice inspector J. E. Fitzgerald of Seattle, Washington. The term of the lease will be for five years, dating from May 1, 1940. The lease calls for 1400 square feet of floor space, heat, light, power, water and all fixtures to be included. All proposals must be in the office at Seattle by November 11, 1939.

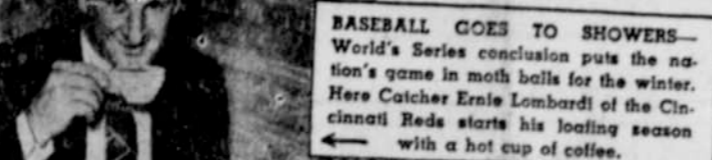

In The WEEK'S NEWS

FOR AND AGAINST
 —Senator Key Pittman, right, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and advocate of repeal of the arms embargo who made the first speech in the Senate debate on neutrality shown with Senator William E. Borah, leading advocate of the arms embargo.

CARDINAL MUNDELEIN DIES
 —His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago who died at Chicago shown with President Roosevelt field on the Presidential Yacht U.S.S. Potomac. They were good friends.

BASEBALL GOES TO SHOWERS
 —World's Series conclusion puts the nation's game in moth balls for the winter. Here Catcher Ernie Lombardi of the Cincinnati Reds starts his loafing season with a hot cup of coffee.

COMPLETES FIRST AIRPLANE FLIGHT
 —On a recent visit to the New York World's Fair, Mrs. George E. O. Tuerk is shown arriving at Newark Airport accompanied by her son, Fred R. Tuerk, well known investment banker. It was Mrs. Tuerk's first flight.

JAPAN'S GREATEST WOMAN
 doctor, Mrs. Yayoi Yoshioka and her son Hiroo as they arrived in New York recently from Europe. Mrs. Yoshioka, an ardent admirer of American scientific methods, heads the Woman's Medical College of Tokyo.

SHE'S AN UDDER CHAMP
 —Geraldine Beavers, 19-year-old farmerette from Bellflower, Calif., won the American Farm Girl championship at Pomona, Calif., by scoring highest points in milking, churning, hay pitching and corn husking.

WITH THE HOME FOLKS

Gene Brown spent the weekend at home from the University of Oregon and attended the football game in Portland Saturday.

Beaverton Auto service has installed new display tables for auto parts.

Archie Olsen, Ray Rossi, Milt Ghell and Huston Johnson returned Friday from a weeks hunting on Canyon creek in Eastern Oregon. Each bagged a deer. Rossi's proved to be the largest of them all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris returned home Saturday from a two months visit in the east with relatives at Westfield, Maine, in Pennsylvania, New York, Canada and Michigan. They visited the World's Fair and Niagara Falls, went through the Ford factory, and a delightful time and some home feeling fine.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Steenrod entertained with a venison dinner Saturday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones and daughter Norma.

Hollis Cleator who is employed at the Findley Milling Co. is on a hunting trip near Corvallis this week.

The Christian Endeavor of the Congregational Church gave a potluck dinner Tuesday evening honoring Miss Thelma and Rhiloma Burns who left Thursday to make their home in Seattle.

Mrs. Roseline Davies, old-time resident of Beaverton and proprietor of a Netarts cottage camp for many years, died suddenly at her home Monday from a heart attack. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge.

A potluck dinner and business meeting was held Tuesday evening at the Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Essex Marsh have leased their garage to F. H. Terstedt, who was formerly operator of the Aloha service station.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kirby accompanied by Mrs. Kirby's mother and sister of Sheridan visited with Rev. L. J. De-routine, chaplain of St. Mary's hospital at Astoria, Sunday.

Marian Metzler spent the week end at home from the university.

The Rebekah PNG met at the IOOF hall Wednesday noon for a potluck luncheon. Twelve members were present. The tables were decorated with Halloween favors. Mrs. Anna Mae Rogers and Rebecca May Hart received birthday gifts. Sarah Walker had charge of tea questions on "Officers and Duties." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Rose Stevens with Mildred Asfield assistant hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnes and son Robert visited Mrs. Barnes' sister Mrs. J. E. Fleetwood at Cathlamet, Washington Sunday. Mrs. Fleetwood is moving to her former home in Beaverton this week.

Among those fishing on the Nehalem over the weekend were W. C. McVell, Dewey Drobough, Charles Dawes, and on Sunday R. R. Sommers, Dr. Welsh and Dr. Talbert. Sommers caught the limit.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hanson October 6, a boy.

A surprise potluck luncheon and handkerchief shower was given at the home of Mrs. J. H. Dobbins, Monday. Present were Mesdames Frieda Austin, Nelson Walker, Walter VanKleeck, M. C. McKereber and E. A. Wood.

Mrs. Myrtle Livermore of Portland called on a number of old friends in Beaverton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Metcalf were joint hosts at a farewell dinner honoring Rev. and Mrs. Harper Burns and family Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf. Rev. and Mrs. Burns left Thursday for their new home in Seattle.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Steele of Metzler last Thursday, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason J. Jones of West Slope left Monday morning for a visit with relatives and friends at their former home town, Missoula, Montana.

Robert Engleke spent the week end at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Engleke from the University of Oregon. A hard time party was held at the grange hall Saturday evening. The hall was beautifully

Bible School Nears New Attendance Record

The Bible school at the Church of Christ had cause of rejoicing last Sunday when they enjoyed an attendance of 206. A goal for rally day was set at 222. Next Sunday a moving picture will be taken of the entire school, giving the individual classes as well as the entire group. Dr. Talbert will take the picture. The school is well organized with experienced teachers, tables, blackboards and maps are being supplied for all classes. The church will be one of the best Bible school workshops in this part of the country.

Camp Fire Girls Hike; Sleep On Ground

Eight Campfire Girls accompanied by Mrs. J. Satchell went on an overnight hike to the Scout cabin Friday and returned Saturday afternoon. We made our beds on the dirt floor, and the fireplace smoked so much we had to leave the door open, which made it plenty cold, but we had a grand time anyway.—Dolores Berg, scribe.

Church Will Present Bible Drama

The Church of Christ will feature a Bible drama each Sunday evening according to Rev. E. E. Coulter minister of the church. The drama is entitled, "Cornelius," and will cover the life and crucifixion of Jesus. Mr. Coulter said, "Cornelius the convert to Christianity was the Centurion who crucified the Lord." The drama will begin Sunday evening, October 29.

decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Chinese checkers, "500" and Cootie were played. A. M. Kennedy and Mrs. J. H. Dobbins won prizes for the most appropriate costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hitt of La Grande and Mrs. Anna Cornwell of Prairie City are guests at the Jay Gibson home this week.

Christian Endeavor Meets Forest Grove October 21

Nut Picking Will Start

SCHOLLS—It is reported that walnut picking will start next week at most of the large orchards in this district.

C. W. Hergert of the Redwood farm near Hillsboro is moving to the Hattfield farm at Midway November 1. He is remodeling the barn on his new farm so as to have a B grade dairy.

Rev. M. A. Grooves of the Beach Street M. E. church of Portland preached a fine sermon Sunday at the Scholls M. E. church.

Ernest Hanson left Saturday morning on a hunting trip above Newport.

Cal Ray returned to his parental home in Ohio where he will assist his Dad with the farm work. He had been staying at the Sam Gotter home.

W. W. Jaquith injured his leg last week when some machinery fell on it but he is able to be up and around.

Mrs. A. E. Westrom of Midway received word that her granddaughter Miss Jean Moore of Ashland was badly injured in an automobile accident, her recovery being doubtful for a number of days but she is taking a turn for the better.

Chad Haynes the local garage man, cut his hand to the bone last week with a sharp knife. It took 27 stitches to close the wound.

Saturday, Mrs. Ina Sutherland, J. A. Rowell and Geo. Jack went to Newberg to see the Newberg fair. They reported seeing a wonderful parade.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rowell and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hesse returned Sunday night from a motor trip through Washington and Idaho. They went through Ellensburg, Spokane, and inspected the Grand Coulee dam, traveled thru Nampa, Boise, and Grangeville, Idaho, visiting with relatives of the Hesses. They saw a lot of wonderful scenery and some fine farms in both Idaho and Washington and found the Coulee dam startling by its huge size, about 100 feet will be added to the present height of the dam.

Chad Haynes left Monday on a hunting trip.

Dr. E. B. Hart of the First Baptist church of Corvallis will start his revival meetings at the Schos M. E. church Sunday evening November 5th. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Saturday Dr. Hart will speak over KOAC at 5:45 p. m., followed by "Heralds of Destiny," at 6:00 o'clock. It is a play about heroic men.

Those on the perfect attendance list at the Groner school as reported by their teacher Miss Thelma Hesse are Orval Roach, Eddie Reazch, Jack Stolnesch, Wallace Flint, Dorothy Orr, Jean Trask, Louis Hesse, Leland Twig, Ethel Newberry, Myron Bish, Kenneth Twig, Louis Tula, Alfred Lovgren, Jack Tulse, Melvin Forsyth, and Donald Ruck.

There are 48 pupils enrolled at the Midway school and the teachers, Mrs. Emma Ross of Portland and Mrs. Anderson of Sherwood. This school has been modernized with a new furnace and a sanitary drinking fountain and it had been divided into two rooms and a new brick foundation was put under the entire building.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Boleen and family spent the week end at Depee Bay fishing and catching 30 salmon.

Washington County Pomona Grange will be held at Scholls Wednesday, October 25th. All grangers are urged to attend.

The grangers will have an all day meeting at the Scholls grange hall October 21. W. L. Jaquith is the master of the Scholls grange.

Thursday, October 19, at the Community hall at Laurel the Scholls-Laurel Farmers Union Juniors are giving a dancing and card party. Cards will be played in the basement.

Twenty-eight ladies attended the meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Scholls Methodist church last Friday. The subject was "Fervent Prayer."

Sodality Holds First Fall Meeting

Miss Bertelle McBain of Portland organized a weekly lancing class at St. Mary's October 2. Great enthusiasm and interest are shown by those taking the course.

Members of the freshman class appeared in amusing and unique costumes as a part of their initiation October 3. Having proved their talents and patient endurance in the after-school games and contests the young initiates were permitted to pledge their allegiance to the student body constitution. Distinctive honors were won for their class by Betty Bauerly, Alice Kaufman, Margaret McMahn, and Ella Mary Murphy. Initiation ended with the serving of cider and loughnuts.

The sodality held its first meeting October 4. Frances Carlson, prefect, encouraged the fervent recital of the Rosary during the month of October. For the benefit of the prospective members, Juanita Elsensohn reviewed the rules and obligations of a sodality. A subscription campaign for the Queen's Work was begun after which the meeting closed with the hymn "For Christ, the King."

The Miriam was awarded the rating of All Catholic honors by the Catholic School Press association in their recent survey of school publications.

Bethany-Cedar Mill

McKinley school defeated the Union school in a softball game Friday afternoon on the home grounds.

Mrs. C. Pihl and Mr. and Mrs. A. Sandstrom and daughter, Esther, attended a party in Portland Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Larson from California are visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. A. Sandstrom and Mrs. K. Nyström attended a card party last Thursday in Portland.

Mr. Fred Kirch of Gracerville, Washington and Mr. and Mrs. Yd Hickey were weekend visitors at the M. C. Larsen home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sandstrom and daughter, Esther, visited Gus Johnson at Redsport Saturday.

HUBER NEWS

Biddy Bishop is staying this week in Salem supervising construction of the new ball park.

The Thursday bridge club met last week with Mrs. W. E. Hoberg, Mrs. James Searle won high honors.

Mrs. John W. Livermore and Miss Jerry and Don of Seattle left Sunday after a weeks visit with Mrs. F. W. Livermore.

Mrs. Mary A. Taylor of Ruleton, Kansas, arrived last week for long visit with her daughter Mrs. Emel Balla.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wawson and children visited Mr. Dawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dawson at Duter over the weekend.

Rev. Drill Convention Speaker

Rev. Guy L. Drill, pastor of the First Christian church of Salem will be the guest speaker at the 28th annual convention of the Washington County Christian Endeavor union which is to be held at the Forest Grove Christian church, October 21 and 22. Rev. Drill will speak Sunday afternoon and evening. Phill Barrett, state Christian Endeavor union vice president will speak Saturday afternoon.

The convention will open Saturday morning at 9:30 with a prayer service followed by conferences on leadership in charge of Phill Barrett; Lookout by Dorothy Howes, state C. E. Lookout superintendent; and Better Meetings by Floyd Shaw, county C. E. president.

During the afternoon reports of the Amsterdam Youth meet will be given, recreation period will be held, conducted by Marlon Wiedman, state C. E. social superintendent; and a talk by Phill Barrett.

The highlight of Saturday evening will be the annual banquet after which a victory circle will be led by Joe Bates.

The Sunday afternoon session will start at 2:00 o'clock. An address by Rev. Drill; presentation of officers is scheduled for this session.

An executive dinner will be held after the afternoon session for the new and retiring officers and a short business meeting will be held.

Four C. E. meetings are planned for Sunday evening at 8:30. Young people will be led by Joe Bates; high school by Martha James of Hillsboro, intermediates by Mrs. Bruce Caldwell of Forest Grove; and Juniors by Barbara Cady of Beaverton.

The final session of the convention starts at 7:30 in which the officers will be installed and an address by Rev. Guy Drill.

The worship service during the convention will be conducted by Joe Bates of Gaston. The convention song leader will be Paul Collins of Eugene and the pianist will be Irene Hansen of Bethany.

Two New Books On Library Shelves

Two interesting books just received at the Community library are "Reaching for the Stars," a record of four years in Germany 1934-1938, by Nora Whin, the same woman who lived in and wrote about "The House of Exile," also "My Story," by Mary Roberts Rinehart, an autobiography in which the author paints a glowing picture of changing times from the days of bicycles and flannel petticoats to the days of the airplane and a far different type of feminine appeal.

The Beaverton Squad

Year	Name	Wgt.	Home
1	Glen Jones	160	Beaverton, Oregon
2	Bill Pulver	173	Beaverton, Oregon
3	Dick Randall	155	Portland, Oregon
4	Earl Balliger	178	Portland, Oregon
5	George Vassal	203	Beaverton, Oregon
6	Herb Harrison	180	Beaverton, Oregon
7	Jack Petrovich	170	Beaverton, Oregon
8	Fay Saxton	130	Beaverton, Oregon
9	Bill Robinson	150	Tigard, Oregon
10	Henry Martin	170	Portland, Oregon
11	Gordon Hecker	165	Portland, Oregon
12	Rudy Huserich	180	Portland, Oregon
13	Bob Coleman	210	Beaverton, Oregon
14	Gale Emmons	190	Beaverton, Oregon
15	Louis Emmons	155	Beaverton, Oregon
16	Jack Bernard	155	Beaverton, Oregon
17	Eugene Sogn	175	Portland, Oregon
18	Ed Van Horn	158	Sherwood, Oregon
19	Jack Lee	158	Beaverton, Oregon
20	Richard Carey	175	Beaverton, Oregon
21	Bill Foster	155	Sherwood, Oregon
22	Ray Chase	173	Beaverton, Oregon
23	Ken Coon	168	Reedville, Oregon