The new Masonic temple, pride of local masons and one of Beaverton's most imposing structures will be the center of a beautiful dedication service Saturday.
The corner stone, with impressive ceremonies, will be laid at 4:00 p. m. Masons from Tualatin valley, Portland and all parts of the state will gather in here for the ceremonies.
At 6:30 will be the big banquet at which Governor Charles A. Sprague will be the guest of honor. Many other state and county officials will be present.
The banquet is for all and tickets can be secured from the members of the lodge.

The dedicatory ceremonies will take place at 8:30. The Hon. R.
Frank Peters, Circuit Judge of Tillamook and Washington counties, and Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon will have charge of the dedication ceremonies. The principal speaker will be Governor Charles A.
Sprague. Other features of the program will be several accompaniment numbers by Earl Drorbough; musical character numbers by Lester J. Little; and slight of hand performance and magician act by Billy Bishop.
The temple will be open all day Saturday and the people of Beaverton are invited to visit the building which is considered to be one of the most beautiful fraternal structures in the state.
Committee heads in charge of the arrangements for the dedication are: Dr. J. R. Talbert, program; Guy Carr, tickets and banquet; Mrs. J. R. Talbert, decorations; Mrs. Goyt and Mr.
Clement, banquet preparations.
