AMERICANISM
"Americanism is an unflinching love of country; loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; undivided allegiance to the flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

"We Build"

It was in January 1915, twenty-five years ago, a small group of business men met together in the city of Detroit. Their idea of association was for their own mutual benefit. Little did they realize how far reaching was the influence of Kiwanis to become in building individuals, communities and nations.

In the beginning the club operated as a local organization only, with no idea of service to others. But when Kiwanis spread to other communities it grew rapidly until today there are over 2000 clubs with a membership numbering in the thousands, scattered throughout the United States and Canada.

This magnificent growth is due to the unselfish purpose, "We Build." Kiwanis builds in the underprivileged-child work; boys and girls work; citizenship; rural relations; vocational guidance; public affairs.

So it is proper that the week of January 21 has been designated as anniversary week to celebrate a quarter century of community service.

Kiwanis, we salute you.

Neighbors

Last Monday night Beaverton Kiwanis club was the guest of the Tigard Lions club at a dinner and program at Roamers Rest. A fine, friendly spirit was manifest by those present. This is as it should be. Tigard and Beaverton are two of the finest and fastest growing communities adjacent to Portland, and have much in common. Let's have more of these friendly get-together affairs. Kiwanis, you are next.

Did you know that a statute in Virginia says, that anyone who deliberately misses church three times in succession is a public enemy and may be put to death.

Every human being is a natural born gambler, so there is no danger that the institution of matrimony will ever collapse.

Catholic, Protestant Jew, Say Yes!

PITTSBURG, PA.—Thirty outstanding Catholic, Jewish and Protestant church leaders, called together by Ben Graham, superintendent of Pittsburgh public schools have accepted his offer to grant two credits toward graduation or college entrance, to each high school student who will give three hours weekly to Bible instruction.

Two of these three hours are to be by attendance at Sunday school and church service. Dr. Graham is a churchman and high grade Christian gentleman and he places proper emphasis on church attendance. To receive credit, the student must attend at least 75 percent of the time. This means two hours on Sunday and a third hour on Wednesday morning. At that time the scholar will be given leave for Bible work under priest, rabbi or pastor. First, the Pittsburgh Board of Education accepted the offer. Next two college presidents agreed to honor the credits. Then high Catholic and Jewish leaders present at that first meeting, heartily endorsed the plan. The Protestant group voted for it 100 percent.

This Pittsburgh plan is aimed to give character building and moral training. Young folks always ready for the worthwhile thing, if only given an opening.

It is the parents who are to blame for the present breakdown of American home life. As so the grown-ups, so goes the home. As goes the home so goes the nation. By common consent, America faces chaos unless her young people get their heart centered on the Bible and its teachings. Let us be more specific. Unless they settle their hearts on Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and so become partakers of that inner strength by which alone man can please God his maker. Says the Book, "Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord." And again, "Them that honor me I will honor; and them that despise me shall be lightly esteemed." Also, "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole world, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him." Now this is the Lord's commandment, "THAT WE SHOULD BELIEVE IN THE NAME OF HIS SON, JESUS CHRIST, AND LOVE ONE ANOTHER, AS HE GAVE COMMANDMENT."
