

SCHOLLS

SCHOLLS—The Journal Juniors talented organization of young singers, yodlers, whistlers, and dancers are coming to the Grange hall at Scholls January 19, starting at 8 o'clock in the evening. This show is being sponsored by the Scholls Woman's club and there will be a small admission charge at the door.

The Formers Union Juniors will give a party dance at the community hall at Laurel on January 26. Clarence Wiabel is chairman of the dance committee.

Mrs. H. A. Frengle of San Francisco, is the proud mother of a baby son born January 10, and has been named Edwin Francis. She was formerly Wilma Herd daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Herd of Scholls. Mrs. Jim Herd left last week to see new grandson.

The Scholls Woman's club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. E. Rowell and there were 35 ladies present. The Golden Jubilee of Federated clubs was celebrated. All the ladies wore colonial costumes. Mrs. Len Guild baked a mammoth cake decorated with glistening icing with the words "50th anniversary" on it and topped with 50 candles. Mrs. S. S. Stearns gave a vaper on the "Origin of Federation." Mrs. J. M. Stretcher gave a paper on the "History of the Washington County Federation." Mrs. F. E. Rowell, the first president of the Scholls Woman's club gave the history of the local club. Mrs. Cliff Larkia gave gleanings from the club scrap book. The club members contributed toward the Infantile Institution. Visitors were Mrs. George Allison and Mrs. Earl Stretcher, both former club members.

Mrs. Clifford Trask, Mrs. Lawrence Crowder and Mrs. F. Sibley were hostesses to 28 guests last Friday at the Scholls Methodist parsonage to a Chinese dinner. The parsonage was decorated with Chinese lanterns and Chinese scrolls, giving it a real Oriental touch. Meat balls, fruit, Lobo and Sesame candy and green tea for beverage. The food was eaten in true Chinese fashion.

There will be a father and son banquet at the Scholls Methodist church February 16. The ladies aid of the Scholls Methodist church will give a potluck dinner on January 26 at the church. This is to be a get together for members of the church and friends of the church starting at 6:30.

There were 21 present at prayer meeting last Thursday night at the church.

The cabinet of the Epworth League met at the home of Viva McCann last Tuesday night. Other cabinet members besides the mostess was James Moore, Pansy Weaver, Stanford Gotter and Phillip Stretcher. Rev. and Mrs. P. R. Sibley were also present. Viva served a very appetizing luncheon. Paul Jaquith was appointed fourth vice president. The young folks decided to beautify the auditorium of the church.

The Frank Fisher's lost a valuable cow last week. The animal got mixed and was unable to be freed.

Betty Sue Fristoe spent the weekend in Hillsboro at the home of Ruth Bear.

Sheep In Hog Wallow

"Have those goods ever been sold before in this city?" The Yakima, Wash., hardware man waited pen in hand, ready to sign on the dotted line. But he wanted to know.

The travelling salesman showing his samples, was a Sunday school teacher as well as out and out witness for his Lord. At the question, he looked Mr. Hardware man straight in the eye with "No, never sold here before," which he knew was a lie.

First get the background. The salesman was on a straight commission and out of it paid his own expenses. The week before over in Montana the orders had been minus and the railroad and hotel bills high. Then the long jump into Spokane and down to Yakima. Here he had a dealer who liked the goods. The order lined out there on the sheet would give above fifty dollars commission and the man needed the money. But the deal might fall thru if he told how the merchant across the way had found the goods slow sellers. So the Christian worker turned coward and told the untruth.

Then it all came over him. Just a sneak liar, he was and out of step with his Master. There was only one thing to do—fess up and see the order go into the waste basket. "Excuse me, Mr. Merchant, but I lied so and so had them." And that was that. No, he who has had breathed into him the life of God is not the same old sinner as before. NO ONE WHO IS A CHILD OF GOD CAN GO ON IN THE SAME OLD SINS AND BE EASY. BECAUSE HE HAS BEEN BORN AGAIN. GOD'S SEED—THE GOD NATURE—REMAINS IN HIM AND HE CANNOT GO ON. When he falls it is with his face toward the top of the mountain; not downward toward a Christless grave and lusting for more sin.

As far as the travelling man had to do the order was lost. But in spite of it all, the merchant, with a queer look signed on the dotted line and later on sent in a good mail order. The salesman had the earnings on two shipments. But the treasured thing was the restored fellowship with his Lord.

P. S.—That was years ago and and yours truly was that salesman.

Stan Taylor.
