AMERICANISM
"Americanism is unfailing love of country; loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; undivided allegiance to the flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

The Price of Liberty

A short time ago Joseph Stalin, dictator of Communist Russia, was reelected to his seat on the Moscow municipal soviet. His majority was exactly 100 per cent—every vote was cast for him. According to the press dispatch telling of this, it was obvious that the most strenuous methods were used by officials to get out the largest possible vote.

Those who have watched the technique of dictatorship can judge what those methods were—you support the man in the saddle "or else." And this little event, while it didn't make the headlines, is a biting commentary on what happens when the people surrender their rights and liberties to iron-clad political rule. No one attempts to win over the opposition by argument, as in a democratic nation—after all, machine guns, exile and brutal persecution are temporarily more effective instruments for keeping in power. The man who raises his voice in dissent gets short shrift indeed.

Here in America we pride ourselves on the fact that we may still speak our minds—that no man is master of our destinies—that the forces of dictatorship have been kept firmly in leash. But pride in this is not enough. It cannot too often be repeated that the price of liberty is eternal vigilance at home. We can unconsciously surrender rights until one day we awake to realize, too late, that liberty is gone.

America watches events abroad with wonder and horror. Let America also learn from them.

Okeh For Lindbergh

Colonel Lindbergh is not "in bad" with the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. That official group has approved the recommendation of a special survey, headed by Colonel Lindbergh, urging the "establishment of an engine research laboratory and additional stimulation of aeronautical research in educational and scientific institutions."

Evidently a few men who are more militant than they are intellectual have not succeeded in "killing off" the Colonel.

Balked At Oregon Tales

"What that man said about Oregon was all interesting, but I don't believe it could be true." So the very gracious librarian in the New England hamlet reacted to the story of the Northwest. The visitor had mentioned the Logans and the Youngberries making two and three tons to the acre. He told of the warm ocean current from the tropics and the winters so mild that the section becomes like a great open-air greenhouse; while the country at large shivers under snow and ice. This and more he told them but the Connecticut woman could not quite believe it.

What, we ask, would such a one say of the Newberg, Oregon, man who was seen behind his mower, trimming the lawn on a day this present January? Or what of the grapevine of Mrs. John Gaarde of Tigard. A vine that runs out from the corner of the house close to fifty feet and that bears fruit all the way to end of the branches? It is quite a span from the corner where the stocky stem rises out of the soil, to the tip branches out there. But the same life is in the branches as in the vine and by that is the fruit. Out of this fact of the branch and the vine having the same life, Christ gave His teaching on The Vine and The Branch. He said, "I am the Vine; ye are the branches." The same life in both. HIS LIFE. And He adds, "He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; FOR WITHOUT ME YE CAN DO NOTHING."

The friend over in Beaver on the coast, prayed for his brother for years, before the man was brought through to God. THAT WAS FRUIT. The Bible is now printed in 1008 different languages. THAT IS FRUIT. Yes, to go among the tribes of earth and learn their language; to invent alphabets; reduce their speech to writing; translate the Scriptures; print them; then to teach the natives to read this Book now theirs, and next pray them into the Christian faith—THAT IS TO BE FRUITFUL.

When "Praise God from whom all blessing flow" wells from hearts that had been filled with murder, lust, fear, THAT IS TO INTO THE CHRISTIAN FAITH—THAT

SEE FRUIT you have settled your heart on Christ as your Saviour, but are you the fruitful branch? "HE THAT ABIDETH IN ME, AND I IN HIM, THE SAME BRINGETH FORTH MUCH FRUIT; FOR WITHOUT ME YE CAN DO NOTHING."

Gene Taylor.
