Community Garden Club Gives Dinner

The Leap year dinner given Thursday, February 29, by the Beaverton Community Garden club was a gala affair. More than 60 members, husbands and friends were present at the Kiwanis hall to enjoy the good dinner, warm hospitality and especially the very entertaining talk and beautiful pictures shown by J. W. Bacher of the Swiss Florists of Portland.

The tables were beautifully decorated with moss and small spring flowers and were a decided credit to the committee in charge.

Mrs. R. B. Denny, president, gave a resume of the club's first year and outlined some of its future plans. Robert Stewart, temporary chairman of the proposed metropolitan area project explained its organization. A vote of thanks was extended to Columbia Market for its generous contribution of the delicious coffee served at the dinner.

The next meeting of the Beaverton club will be held Friday, March 15, at 1:30 p.m.

PTA Play and Program Friday, March 15

The PTA sponsored a poster contest in connection with their play and variety program which will be given at the grade school auditorium on March 15, at eight o'clock.

Only five posters were entered. The PTA wishes to extend their appreciation to all who made posters. The posters will be displayed in windows of business houses.

First prize went to Elizabeth Jones; second place, Edna Gindhart; honorable mention, Rosemary Shaw. The judges were a teacher, who lives in Portland and has taught art and dramatics for eight years, Mary Nash Graffam and her husband Curtis Graffam, who decorated the ballroom at the Multnomah hotel for the Associated Hunt clubs of Oregon recently, when they held their annual dance.

J. L. Harris

J. L. Harris of Beaverton suffered a heart attack at his home on route 1 and died very suddenly March 1. Mr. Harris worked for the Southern Pacific for 23 years and has been a resident of Beaverton since 1919.

He is survived by his widow Ida M. Harris of Beaverton, one son, John H. of Portland, one in Los Angeles and a daughter Dora B. Sylvester in Westfield, Mass. Also five brothers and four sisters in the state of New York.

Services were conducted March 5 at Miller and Tracy funeral parlors and interment was at Riverview Abbey.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late J. L. Harris are deeply grateful to all our friends for their kindness and sympathy extended us in our recent sorrow, and for the many beautiful flowers. Also with to thank the members of B. of R. T.

Try This Lemon Ice Cream Pie!

Lemon ice cream served in a crumb crust makes Lemon Ice Cream pie, a delicious and refreshing dessert. Beat 2 eggs until lemon-colored. Add sugar gradually to egg until mixture becomes thick like custard. Beat in: 1/2 cup light corn syrup, 2 cups top milk (or 1 cup milk and 1 cup coffee cream), 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel.

Freeze combined ingredients in refrigerator tray at lowest temperature until stiff. While mixture is freezing, cover bottom of another freezing tray with wax paper. Spread with 1/2 the crumb mixture made with 1 1/2 cups rolled graham cracker crumbs, 1/2 cup melted butter and 1/4 cup sugar. When ice cream is frozen, remove to a bowl and whip with an electric or hand beater until light and creamy.

Quickly pour the beaten frozen mixture into crumbled tray. Top with remaining crumbs. Freeze without stirring at coldest temperature until hard. Unmold, remove waxed paper and cut in slices. The lemon ice cream may also be served without the crumb crust. This recipe may be made in a crank freezer, if preferred.
