

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. E. R. Sheets has been sick a couple of weeks but is reported fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott returned Monday from a business trip to southern Oregon.

Two new computing gas pumps will be installed this week in front of Guy Carr's garage on Broadway.

P. H. Barry and family spent Sunday with the J. R. Rasmussen family who live just south of Beaverton.

Mrs. Robert Strubel is spending a couple of weeks visiting with relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

Jacob Schmitt has sold two of his houses and is himself moving into the old home on Watson street.

Dr. R. S. Welsh is driving a new Nash-Lafayette sedan purchased this week from Guy Carr, the local Nash dealer.

Dog racing will begin May 23 and those who own and race the speedy hounds are beginning to gather hereabouts.

Mesdames Doy Gray, Ferd Schoene, E. P. Hedberg, and W. J. Scott attended the party given by the Mystic Shrine in Portland Tuesday afternoon.

Russel Hulett was up from Corvallis last week end to visit relatives here. He proudly announced that he had recently been pledged to two honorary fraternities.

The ladies of St. Cecilia's church are sponsoring one of their popular card parties to be held in the church basement Wednesday evening, May 8, Pinochle, 500 and beans.

They do tell us that three worthy gentlemen, Mike Mettler, William Grauer, and Guy Carr went fishing last Sunday on Rock creek. They also say that they got a fish.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Barnes motored to Seaside Sunday with his sister Mrs. Perl Lingo and son Robert from Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fuller and daughter Deloris of Hillsboro.

R. R. Summers has begun the construction of a fine residence on Barbur boulevard for F. C. Ashmussen. Beaverton Electric will do the electrical work and Frank Noyes has the plumbing.

Guy Carr tells us that his new apartments on Erickson avenue are in such demand that he has a list waiting to rent them. He is contemplating building three new apartments this season.

Thos. Graf has the material on the ground ready to begin construction of a new fence around his house. He'll need more than that to keep young John Linn in the lot in the near future.

Frank Bushnell, local band instructor at the high school announces that he will have three organizations in the band festival at Hillsboro being held May 3, the high school band, the orchestra and the drum corps.

Some folks were complaining about the rain Tuesday, some were rejoicing. It reminds us of the old copybook rhyme, "A rule, man's a fool, when it's hot he wants 't cool. When it's cool he wants 't hot, always wanting what is not."

Miss Elida Gibson left Thursday for her home in Moscow, Idaho, after spending some time visiting with her son, Jay Gibson, and his family.

Fred Huston visited over the weekend with his parents at Harrisburg.

Mrs. J. W. Raynard, former Beaverton resident, was in town Tuesday on business.

Mrs. D. Long entertained the members and several friends of the Friendly Circle at her home on Watson street on Friday afternoon of last week.

Wilson Fuel Yard is moving to their new location between the two highways on Lombard between Bertha-Beaverton and the old Canyon road.

The women's council of the missionary society held its regular monthly meeting Friday with a pot luck lunch served at noon, afterwards there was a business meeting with a program following.

Paul Hicks was in town Tuesday. He will be remembered as the proprietor of what was known as "Bobby's Cafe." He has been under the weather for some time and only works the carnivals a short time in the summer. He makes his home with his parents of the old Hillsboro road just south of Aloha.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wohlauf is spending the week with the Shively family on Hanson avenue. They will live at the Donaldson place this summer from where they will race their famous greyhounds. The Wohlaufs have not been here for some years and old friends are welcoming them to Beaverton. They may make up their minds to make this their permanent headquarters for they tell us they like Beaverton very much.

and Poults thrive in the warmth of GASCO BRIQUETS!

Here is why thousands of successful poultry raisers burn Gasco Briquets in their brooder stoves year after year: Gasco Briquets hold fire 8 to 10 hours after stoking — maintain a uniform temperature constantly — never smother out — leave no ashes. They've also proved cheaper than any other solid fuel for both brooder and home use. Order today. Prompt delivery.
