Ready for an ascension into the ozone (some 4500 feet) is this mammoth, open end, gas filled balloon which will make regular afternoon appearances on the "Circus Cavalcade" program at the 34th annual Multnomah county fair at Gresham, August 19 to 25. Riding into the clouds with the big balloon will be a dauntless parachutist who will perform feats of dare devilry on a trapeze hanging from the underside of the balloon, which measures, when inflated, 70 feet in height and 40 feet across.
