

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The Christian Endeavor of the Beaverton Church of Christ attended the Rally at Gaston last Sunday, October 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chandler, both ministers, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Colb.

Mrs. Alice Lakanen of Seattle is at the home of her mother Mrs. C. Bristine Lundgren of Nob Hill farm, having been called here by the sickness and death of her father, John Lundgren.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Braun and son Robert from Forest Grove were Sunday dinner guests at the Tom Graf home Sunday.

H. Russel Hulett, who is attending Oregon State College came home to visit his father, J. H. Hulett, and his sister, Mrs. Aletha Graf Sunday. Russel plays snare drums in the college band and had been in Seattle playing at the University of Washington vs. Oregon State game Saturday. The Staters lost but Russel said it was a good game right up to the last minutes of play.

John Locke of Portland was a caller at the Hulett home here Sunday. He is a former student at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Ralph Graf of Spokane, Washington is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCloskey this week. Her year old son Stephen accompanied her on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis are the proud parents of a baby girl born Sunday at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. Mrs. Davis will be remembered as Miss Phyllis Wildman.

Miss Rosina Ward of Parkrose was a caller at the Tom Graf home Sunday. It will be remembered that Miss Ward was for a short time employed on the Review.

Miss La Merne Dean came up from Salem where she is employed, and spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Marion Long.

BETHANY

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Otterson of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirch and daughter Kathleen of Greys River, Washington visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wyss over the week end. Mrs. Kirch is remaining a few days.

Mrs. Theodore Lindbloom and daughter Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. George Doby and Mrs. Lena Strowe visited at the home of Mrs. Jennie Sandstrom and her daughter Sunday.

Jack Zitzman is home again from the Good Samaritan hospital and is convalescing.

The Leedy Grange met for their regular meeting Wednesday night. After the meeting the grange gave a surprise shower for Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Mays, who were recently married. The grangers gave them many nice gifts. They were also happy to get acquainted with the new Mrs. Mays. There were about thirty present, including visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gould were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Losli of Laurel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Trummer and Leo, Bob and Marian have moved about a half-mile on the other side of Bethany.

STIFF FIGHTS FOR OREGON TEAMS

Oregon football teams face a lot of stiff competition next Saturday, October 26 when the U. of O. meets Washington State at Pullman and O.S.C. meets the Uclans in Los Angeles.

The U. of O-Washington State game will be heard over KALE starting at 1:45 p.m. and the

O.S.C.-Bruin game will come over KOIN broadcast by John Carpenter starting at 2:45.

PUTS SHINGLES OVER OLD ROOFS

When America re-roofs thousands of her homes every year, she doesn't tear off the old shingles but puts new ones right over the old shingles.

This, in essence, was the discovery of the Red Shingle Bureau, sales promotion organization for the Pacific Northwest's shingle industry following a nation-wide survey to determine how its products were being used in roof remodeling.
