AMERICANISM

"Americanism is unfailing love of country; loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; undivided allegiance to the flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

HERE'S ANOTHER NUT FOR NEW-DEALERS TO CRACK

This little news item might be termed the height of irony.

Some time ago a group of unemployed hosiery workers decided to create their own jobs by going into the hosiery business for themselves. They made a deal with a bank for possession of an abandoned hosiery mill.

Shortly after opening they signed an agreement with their union to pay themselves union wages. However, they found that this was an impossibility, and so they had to petition their union for the right to cut their own wages.

The union refused. Result. The business faces bankruptcy, which would mean that these worker-partners must return to the relief rolls.

SAVINGS AND INVESTMENT

"The life insurance, which we buy to protect our families of ten turns out to be the best investment we ever made for ourselves," said an authority lately.

Life insurance is more than just a way of saving money. It is far and away the safest and surest way, so far as the average man is concerned. It isn't subject to the ups and downs of the business cycle. It comes through, right on schedule.

The lady confessed to having married four husbands. (1) a banker; (2) an actor; (3) a doctor; (4) an undertaker. When asked why she choose of the men in her life were of so many and such varied occupations, she replied that it was her idea of the cycle of life: one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready and four to go.

Baked Orange Marie

By BETTY BARCLAY

For this month's prize recipe I am choosing "Baked Orange Marie", a dessert that has been popular with thousands for many years, but may be new to you.

It is economical, easy to prepare, healthful and surprisingly delicious. Try it yourself and I am sure you will serve it again and again.

Baked Orange Marie

(Serves 4)

4 Sunkist oranges
With a sharp knife cut off tops and remove meat from oranges, leaving shells clean. Combine orange meat with:

8 dates, stoned and shredded
4 teaspoons chopped walnuts
4 teaspoons seeded raisins
4 teaspoons grated coconut

Sweeten to taste. Fill orange shells. Bake in a dish with 1/2 inch of water in bottom, in a slow oven for 45 minutes. Take out of oven and top oranges with a meringue made from:

1 egg white, stiffly beaten with 2 tablespoons sugar

Sprinkle meringue with coconut and return oranges to oven to brown. Serve hot or cold. A marshmallow may be used to top each orange in place of meringue.

A negro soldier was on sentry duty for the first time. A dar's form approached.

"Halt," he cried in a threatening voice. "Who goes there?"

"The officer of the day."

"Advance."

The officer advanced a few steps but before he had taken a dozen steps, again the command rang out, "Halt!"

"This is the second time you have halted me; what does that mean?"

"Never mind what that means. My orders are to say halt three times and then shoot."

School Lunch Suggestions

By BETTY BARCLAY

If school lunches are among the problems that confront you at this season, it's a good idea to start collecting helpful suggestions now.

By packing a lunch box you can better control the noon meal for the school child than by giving him a luncheon allowance. Both plans have their points, of course. The one-time lack of hot food in the luncheon brought from home is now overcome with thermos containers.

Milk, fresh fruits, fresh vegetables, whole grain cereals, eggs and meat—all the essentials—can be included in the school lunch box—not necessarily at one time but often enough to give the child properly balanced meals. Be sure to include fresh fruit every day.

Probably the orange is the ideal fruit for the school lunch, available as it is the year around. It is an appetite stimulator for the "won't eat" child, and is rich in the protective elements so necessary to growing children—vitamins C, A and B, as well as calcium. This fruit is well protected and not easily bruised in packing; the skin may be loosened and sections partially separated before it is placed in the lunch box.

Since the sandwich is the basis for a majority of school lunches prepared at home, most mothers will welcome some

Sandwich Suggestions
Orange juice is good to thin peanut butter or cream cheese, or to moisten fillings of ground dates, raisins, figs and nuts. These make especially excellent fillings for toasted sandwiches.

Lemon juice gives added tartness to meat, egg and fish fillings where desired. Moistened fillings with lemon juice to taste. Or spread bread with butter (1/4 pound) creamed with lemon juice (1 tablespoon).

Orange Marmalade Sandwiches:
Spread one slice of sandwich with Orange Marmalade, one with cottage or cream cheese or peanut butter. Marmalade fillings are especially good on orange or brown breads.

Orange Honey Bread

Variety in sandwich breads is an important factor in the appetizing school lunch. One of the most delicious varieties we have tested is an orange honey bread, sure to be popular with the school child. Moreover, it is a simple recipe for the busy mother.

2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup honey
1 well beaten egg
1 1/2 tablespoons grated orange rind
2 1/2 cups flour, sifted before measuring
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup chopped nut meats

Cream shortening and honey. Add egg and orange rind. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Add dry ingredients to creamed fat and honey mixture, alternating with orange juice. Add chopped nuts last. Pour into an oiled 9 by 5-inch loaf pan. Bake at 325° for 70 minutes. Cut when cool and spread with cream cheese or orange marmalade.

Orange Salad Cup
As a change from fruit to be eaten out-of-hand, prepare a salad cup which may be packed in a small jar with screw top, paper salad cup or thermos container.

Combine:
1/2 cup fresh orange slices quartered
1/2 cup pineapple pieces
1/2 cup diced apple
1 tablespoon lemon mayonnaise
