AMERICANISM

"Americanism is unflinching love of country; loyalty to its institutions—and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; undivided allegiance to the flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

HERE'S ONE FOR THE EFFICIENT SERVICE OF

The Office of the Sheriff of this county. We are prone to criticize our police when any thing goes wrong but seldom do they come in for a word of praise. However this week The Review has good reason to uphold their good deed.

Monday evening at just about dark our car was stolen practically right out from under our nose. It sat in front of the shop where we work while we were in the shop at work. We missed it in not over fifteen minutes, judging from the amount of work we did and on looking out, judge our surprise to find no car in sight!

We immediately called Sheriff Connell and very shortly word was radioed to all patrolmen to be on the watch.

As soon as the shop was open Wednesday morning Mr. Connell called and told us where the car was at. In just 38 hours from the time he got word of the theft the property was located. Now we hope he can fix the blame on the lads who stole our car.

And we're betting he finds them too!

Tuberculosis Seeks Youths

It strikes at little children under five, taking its grim place among the childhood diseases, killing more than either diphtheria or scarlet fever. It retreats somewhat during the years between five and the early teens, but continues steadily to kill boys and girls. It swiftly advances to the first place among the disease killers during the ages of 15 to 19, and it holds this first place as a cause of death until the late thirties. It kills more girls than boys, more young women than young men.

POPULAR DELUSIONS . . . by MacConachie

DELUSION: THAT LINDBERGH WAS THE FIRST TO FLY THE ATLANTIC OCEAN.
HE WAS THE 63RD PERSON TO FLY ACROSS.

DELUSION: THAT NERO FIDDED WHILE ROME BURNED.
THE FIDDLE WAS NOT INVENTED UNTIL 800 YEARS AFTER NERO WAS DEAD.

DELUSION: THAT A DROWNING MAN ALWAYS RISES THREE TIMES BEFORE SINKING.
HE WILL RISE UNTIL AIR IS EXPELLED FROM HIS LUNGS. IT MAY BE ONE, THREE OR A DOZEN TIMES.

DELUSION: THAT MEN HAVE GREATER PHYSICAL ENDURANCE THAN WOMEN COMPETING AT SIMILAR TASKS.
THIS WAS DISPROVED IN TESTS ON ADULTS AND WOMEN WHILE DRINKING PLAIN GELATINE TO RELIEVE FATIGUE. CONTRARY TO POPULAR BELIEF WOMEN CREATED MORE ENDURANCE THAN MEN.

DELUSION: THAT MEN HAVE ONE LESS RIB THAN WOMEN.
MEN AND WOMEN BOTH HAVE 12 PAIRS OF RIBS.

Broil Franks and Spaghetti

The popular quick meal of frankfurters and spaghetti has more appetite appeal when prepared in the broiler under the live flame; and it is practically effortless during the cooking period in the smokeless broiler of a modern gas range. Turn food once, that's all the attention needed.

LEADERS LEARN OF NICE, FANCY BREAD

Foods Projects leaders from 12 extension units throughout the county attended a project leader training school on fancy yeast breads November 26 at Hillsboro high school. Cloverleaf rolls, crescent rolls, butter rolls, Swedish tea rings Dutch apple cake, and butterscotch rolls were made by the project leaders, who then return to their home communities to present the same demonstration. The instruction was given by Mabel T. Mack, Acting Extension Nutritionist.

Leaders attending the meeting were: Mrs. L. B. Cypher and Mrs. Stigun of North Plains; Mrs. John Prieth and Mrs. G. Anderson; Tigard; Floy Tillong and Grace Nelson, Dixie Mountain; Evelyn Rutschman, and Mrs. Breithaupt, Laurel; Mrs. Riggle, Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Cosby of Buxton; Mrs. L. L. Crawford of Manning; Mrs. Otter and Mrs. Arthur Schultz of Cedar Hill; Mrs. Bainscofer, Mrs. Delmar Dewey and Mrs. Tucker of Pumpkin Ridge; Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Rawley of No.wood; Mrs. Jodie Johnson and Mrs. O. D. Palmer of Genwood; Mrs. Sagar of Forest Grove; Mrs. Oppenlander, Mrs. C. V. Nadolph and Mrs. Brown of Cherry Grove and Mrs. Ibach and Miss Pranger of Roy.

For Women's Eye

"How many miles today?"
"Oh, three hundred, Spokane by tonight."
"Okay. See you at the game Saturday."

And the young miss steps on the gas and is off. The world is at your feet Miss America. Queens of old never dreamed of such fullness of life and yet in spite of it all there is a black cloud off there on the edge of your sky. Just as the sawmill must have logs to feed on, so the liquor business and the night life must have you and yours to fill the tanks. That is the cloud, the threat that you will find yourself a castaway when the years have added their total.

So we speak to the mothers. The answer is a lot with you. And if you will have the record of two women who did a good job at this holy business of upbringing a youth, turn to the Bible. It was a boy this time and years later the Apostle Paul sends him this line when he had become Timothy, the churchman, "I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded in thee also." The Bible is now read in hundreds of languages and the good work of these two women of old, grandmother and mother, Lois and Eunice, is a challenge to womankind the world around.

Babes In Arms
You cannot begin too young. Many a strong man or woman has taken to church as a babe in arms. Even then they begin to sense it that there is a Higher Power. "One half of all you do for your child will be finished by the time it is three and a half years old," says Horace Mann, the great educator. For a standard of conduct teach them the Ten Commandments—"Thou shalt not steal; kill; commit adultery; bear false witness; covet; worship any other than the true God." And where will they find the inner power to live out the holy law except they receive into their lives the Saviour who fulfilled the law and died for our scorn of it? Now hear that Lover of all mankind, "Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God."
