Here are a few recipes, carefully chosen with the Lenten season in mind:

Haddock Baked With Cheese
2 packages quick-frozen fillet of haddock, partially thawed
1 tablespoon minced onion
4 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper

1 1/2 cups fine soft bread crumbs
1/2 cup grated American cheese
1/2 cup milk

Separate fillets and cut in servings; sprinkle with salt and pepper and place in shallow baking dish. Sauté onion in butter until delicately browned. Add salt, pepper, bread crumbs and cheese, and toss lightly with fork to mix well. Spread over fillets, pressing firmly on fish. Pour milk around fish and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 35 minutes, or until fish is cooked and crumbs are delicately browned. Serves 4.

Quick-frozen foods make it possible to have ocean-fresh fish throughout Lent, no matter how far you live from the sea. All the fresh flavor and vitamins of vegetables, fruits and sea foods are sealed in at the time of quick-freezing.

Magic Mayonnaise
2/3 cup sweetened condensed milk
1/4 cup vinegar or lemon juice
1/4 cup salad oil or melted butter
1 egg yolk
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains cayenne
1 teaspoon dry mustard

Place ingredients in mixing bowl. Beat with rotary egg beater until mixture thickens. If thicker consistency is desired, place in refrigerator to chill before serving. Makes 1 1/2 cups. This mayonnaise is always magically smooth and creamy, and will give an appetizing and delicious flavor to Lenten salads of fish and vegetables.

Hawaiian Cheese Mold
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
3 cups canned unsweetened pineapple juice
4 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
Juice of 1 lime
1/2 cup thick mayonnaise
1 cup cottage cheese

INDEPENDENCE vs. CONTENTMENT

Contentment in old age isn't simply a matter of a roof over one's head, three meals a day. Contentment involves, above all else, the factor of independence. Independence from charity, from relatives, from Government relief. It means economic self-security.

One of Life's Great Tragedies is the number of men and women who reach old age entirely without financial resources of their own. They feel that they are a burden to others, even though that feeling is entirely unjustified.

COUNTY OFFICERS VISIT LOCAL P.T.A.

The Beaverton P. T. A. held its Founders' Day Program on Tuesday.

A very large crowd was in attendance to enjoy an interesting meeting.

There were several County officers present. Mrs. Thompson, President Mrs. Mabey, and Mrs. Imlay.

At the close of the program a silver tea was held in honor of the Founders.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. WOOD

Monday, February 24, Mrs. R. Stewart was hostess at a luncheon and handkerchief shower in honor of Mrs. V. A. Wood who will move to Portland the first of March.

In addition to the guest of honor, Mrs. Wood, among those present were: Mrs. F. Austin, Mrs. M. C. McKercher, Mrs. Walter Van Kleeck, Mrs. J. H. Dobbins, and Mrs. Nelson Walker, all of Beaverton and Mrs. C. Gilmore of Portland.

MISSIONARY WILL ADDRESS SOCIETY

The West Slope Missionary Society will meet Tuesday P. M. March 4th, at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. S. E. Forsberg, Canyon Road. Mrs. W. H. W. Paget of the Ceylon and India General Mission will be the speaker. All the ladies of the community are cordially invited to be present.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM THE CAPITOL

Mrs. Gladys White and upper grade students of the Middleton school visited the Legislature on Thursday and enjoyed an instructive time inspecting the Capitol Building.

The courtesy of the Senate was extended. A number of residents of Middleton accompanied the students, including Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Susan Winters, Mrs. Butler, and Mrs. Emu Brookman and Mrs. Charles Gale.

Frank H. Reeves, prominent attorney of Portland, appeared before the Senate Committee on County Affairs Tuesday. Frank formerly resided at Cedar Mills years ago.

Last Thursday, Albert Kemmer, who is practicing law in Portland, and resides at Cooper Mountain, was before the legislature concerning legislation pending at this time.

Friday, Clarence Alberts, of Salem, called in the Senate and inquired about Washington County. Years ago he was a resident of Forest Grove, and later moved to Beaverton with his parents. His father at that time was owner of the Beaverton Flour Mill. While at Beaverton, he was one of Beaverton's best ball players.

Adam George, of Portland, was at Salem, and listened to the debate on the truck bill, Senate Bill number 7. When Mr. George was a boy he lived in eastern Washington County, at the old pioneer home known as the Jack Sloane place, on the old Oregon City Road, and during his boyhood days attended school at Beaverton.

There are many letters being received lately at the legislature in behalf of four lane traffic on the Tualatin Valley Highway.

The Washington County delegation are pleased to receive these communications, and the same are being called to the attention of the State Highway Commission.

This week the State Highway Commission informed the Washington County delegation that "The Commission expects to give this project due consideration in the formulation of the future construction program," signed by H. B. Galsayer, Secretary.

Dr. Edward Boring, a former student of Beaverton, now one of Oregon's prominent opticians who offices at North Bend, was at the Capitol Tuesday on business in the Senate. Dr. Boring at the present time is president of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce, and takes - this opportunity to send his best wishes to his many friends in Washington County.

Henry Johnson and wife of Cedar Mills, were at the legislature Tuesday on business before the legislature. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were members of the Farmer's Union. Mr. Johnson is president at this time, and states that organization is meeting at the Barnes School.

Last Monday night at the public hearing on the House Bill No. 348, Paul W. Patterson, R. C. Bush, who is president of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce, J. L. Searcy, J. W. Barney, City manager, spoke in behalf of the League of Oregon Cities program for a share of the gas tax to improve city streets.

At the hearing on this proposed House Bill No. 384, the proponents of this measure made a splendid presentation in behalf of the bill. This program of the League of Oregon Cities is receiving more support than it did at the last session of the legislature. The delegation from Washington County presented some of the best arguments in behalf of the bill that was heard during the hearing.

SPRAGUES VISIT OLD FRIENDS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sprague of Seattle were in Beaverton re-creating old acquaintances and visiting with old friends Jack came to Beaverton in 1923 and after his son, "Bud" graduated from Beaverton schools he sold his store, the one owned by C. Martin now, and moved to Seattle where he now owns three stores and is doing very well. He still likes to come to Beaverton, where he still owns a little more property.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Joe Moshofsky and Don McElligott spent Sunday skiing at Timberline.

Mrs. Myrtle Haines is reported quite ill at her home on South Main street.

Mrs. Anne Holloke and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Chas. McElligott, Portland.

A number of members from the Beaverton Grange attended the meeting of Tigard Grange last Thursday.

Mrs. M. C. McKercher entertained at dinner Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Gilmore and daughter, Elizabeth, of Portland.

A. M. Jannsen had the misfortune to wreck his car at the foot of Jefferson street Tuesday evening. He dodged to avoid hitting a speeder head-on.

We wish them every success in this new venture. The place was selling over the counter Wednesday but will have their Grand Opening Saturday.

A considerable delegation from the local Kiwanis club called on the State Highway commission Thursday in the interest of a four lane Tualatin Valley highway through Washington county.

Louie and Mildred Balmer, Glenn Smith and wife and Ed. Young drove to Seaside, Astoria and way points, including a visit to one of Mr. Young's lady friends, Thursday. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Bailey's Ice Cream Supreme is the name of the new streamlined business place recently opened in the former jewelry store on Broadway. Clark Bailey is the proprietor. He hails from Portland.

Bethany-Cedar Mill
By Esther Sandstrom

Bert Flekeska is working in San Francisco.

Mrs. Dora Edinger was operated on Monday morning at Good Samaritan hospital.

Hans Bollne received the sad news of his father's death in Sweden Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Trachsel and son, Ernie, of Portland visited at the home of Mrs. Susie Losli Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Nystrom, Mrs. Jennie Sandstrom and Esther attended a banquet at the Mens Viking Lodge in Portland Thursday.

The Cedar Mill demonstration unit met with Mrs. Art Pearson Wednesday. Miss Kathleen McCrea was the demonstrator on meat cooking. She cooked four different kinds of meat - Swiss steak, Scallops, porcupine meat balls and stuffed pork chops. Mrs. Nancy Boy and Mrs. Francis Walters were the project leaders and demonstrated table setting and table manners. There were 15 present.

A Real Raisin Pie

By Frances Lee Barton

SING a simple food song. Oven heat turned high.

Four and ninety raisins baked into a pie.

When the hostess cuts it, guests both old and young, clamor for their portions. Now my song is sung.

Raisin Pie
1 cup raisins
2 cups water
4 tablespoons quick
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 tablespoon butter
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 baked 9-inch pie shell
Cream, whipped

Add raisins to water, cover, and cook 30 minutes. Drain; add water to juice to make 2 cups. Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, and liquid in saucepan and mix well. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Pour small amount over egg, stirring vigorously; return to saucepan and bring just to a boil. Remove from fire and add butter, raisins, lemon juice, and rind. Fill pie shell. Cover with whipped cream.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT NOW IN PROGRESS HERE

With West Linn in first place in the T.Y.V. league, the second place is all tied up, Hillsboro, Sherwood and Forest Grove all winning seven games each and losing only five.

In the tournament now going on here, Beaverton at the time of going to press had won two and Sherwood had lost two.

In Tuesday's games, Beaverton won from Sherwood, 26 to 19, and Hillsboro won from Forest Grove, 35 to 29.

Wednesday night Beaverton won from Tigard, 32 to 12 and Forest Grove won from Sherwood, 23 to 17.

Thursday night Forest Grove played Tigard and Beaverton is to meet Hillsboro.
