AMERICANISM

"Americanism is unflinching love of country; loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; undivided allegiance to the flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

Mrs. McKercher held a committee meeting Wed. of Grange members to plan a party at Grange Hall Thur. evening March 21st.

Let a smile do the service of a sermon.— Louis Anspacher.

Big Boys Would Get Busy

"Miss Swift, take this wire and send it to each of our directors." — "Come Chicago first plane. We now have control of line vital to every man, woman and child. Not only for America but for all countries. The price is right and demand should be world-wide. Possessors find line so personal and vital they die rather than give it up. Directors to meet to vote millions for spread of news in full pages in all daily, weekly, monthly papers."

"Now Miss Swift, get this on the wire for time flies and on he wifes for time flies and we must reach the people who have but a few hours of life left as well as the mass who tell themselves they have years ahead."

Sure, the Board will be there every last man of them and on their throats to learn what so needful a thing might be. This that all colors, races, conditions old and young; high and low; will grasp. Sure, they will vote millions to get it before the people.

Now what is all this about? Simply to remind you of what

Your problems connected with that dinner in honor of friendly Saint Patrick can be solved by keeping the following recipes before you:

Party Punch

Decaffeinated coffee is a welcome brew to serve at parties, so that you and your guests can linger over second cups without worrying over sleeping problems.

To make decaffeinated coffee by the percolator method, use 1 heaping tablespoon decaffeinated coffee, regular grind, for each cup (½ pint) of cold water. Pour cold water into pot. Set percolator basket in pot and put coffee in it. Cover. Let percolate slowly and gently 15 to 20 minutes, or longer than ordinary coffee, to obtain full strength of decaffeinated coffee. (For a 4-cup percolator, use ¾ cup coffee.)

For a gala party punch, pour 4 cups freshly made, chilled decaffeinated coffee over a pint of ice cream in a punch bowl or big mixing bowl, and blend lightly with an egg beater until the ice cream is partly melted. Sprinkle with a grated nutmeg.

Green Vegetable Party Salad

1 box (12 oz.) quick-frozen lima beans, cooked
1 box (10 oz.) quick-frozen green beans, cooked
1 box (12 oz.) quick-frozen green peas, cooked
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
1 teaspoon scraped onion
1 tablespoon vinegar
1½ cups cooked salad dressing

Cook frozen lima beans, frozen green beans, and frozen peas according to directions on packages. Drain and season with salt and pepper. Cool. Add pimiento, onion, vinegar, and dressing and toss together lightly. Chill thoroughly. Serve on crisp lettuce. Serves 10 to 12.

Quick-frozen foods are holiday time savers for hostesses, for all the troublesome work of preparation was done before the flavor and vitamins of ocean-fresh fish and garden-fresh fruits and vegetables were sealed in by quick-freezing. They are all ready to cook or serve when you take them from their cartons.

Pineapple-Mint Lamb Ring

Two — Victory Here And Now
We have Christ as Saviour and He moves in to add His eternal God Life to your poor fainting, brutal, shiftless, proud, selfish, sin-loving heart. All that to make you like Himself in thought, word and deed. Christ is the lead of a new race upon the earth. He is the Head; the saved are the members of His body; a new creation, the Bible calls them, Three: Desires. In the ages to come God is to show the riches of His grace in His kindness to us through Christ Jesus.

Cry to God for mercy. Cry until he gives you faith to reach and lay hold of his Son as Saviour and Lord. Your head cannot take this in, you say? Of course not. BY BETTY BARCLAY

¾ cup water
5 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon mint extract
Green vegetable coloring
Marinate lamb for one hour in French dressing, well seasoned with onion.

Bring to a boil pineapple juice, vinegar, ½ cup water, sugar, and salt. Pour over the gelatin which has been allowed to soften in the ¼ cup water five minutes. Stir until dissolved. Pour enough into a pint and one-half ring mold to just cover the bottom. Set all gelatin aside until it starts to thicken. When gelatin in mold has thickened, garnish with sliced olives. Pour in about half the remaining gelatin mixture. Drain the lamb and put on top of the gelatin. To the rest of the gelatin add mint flavoring and green coloring. Pour over the lamb. Set in refrigerator until firm. Unmold on lettuce, fill center with cold slaw and garnish with water cross and tomato sections. Yield: Six servings.

Tamale Pie

(a one dish meal)
1 cup cooked, dried Lima
1 pound cooked ground beef
2 pound cooked ground pork
1 tablespoon chili powder
1 cup ripe olives, pitted
2 cups raisins
2 cups milk
1 cup cornmeal
1 teaspoon salt
All ingredients in order given, pour into a buttered baking pan and bake about 1 hour in a moderate oven (350° F.)

St. Patrick's Magic Ice Cream

(Automatic Refrigerator Method)
¾ cup (7½ oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
½ cup water
1 teaspoon almond extract
Green vegetable coloring
1 cup whipping cream
¾ cup finely chopped pistachio nut meats
Mix sweetened condensed milk, water, almond extract and green coloring, if desired. Whip cream to custard-like consistency. Fold in chilled mixture. Freeze in freezing unit of refrigerator until half frozen. Scrape from freezing tray. Beat until smooth, but not melted. Add pistachio nut meats. Replace in freezing unit until frozen. Serves 6. It's failure-proof as well as quick and easy. It needs only one stirring while freezing yet it's always creamy smooth and free of ice splinters; and it takes only 1 cup of cream for six generous helpings.

THE SOONER THE BETTER

Mother was telling stories of the time she was a little girl. Little Harold listened thoughtfully as she told of riding a pony, sliding down the hay-stack, and wading in the brook in the farm.
Finally he said with a sigh, "I wish I had met you earlier Mother."

WRAPPING UP A JOB

When George Bishop learned of an opening in the shipping department of a large business house, he didn't waste a minute. By special messenger he dispatched to the head of the shipping department a smartly tied and neatly addressed package. The clerk opened it to find, inside, another box. Within that was a third, and inside that a letter—George's application. "I thought you might like to have me demonstrate my ability instead of merely telling you about it." He listed the wrapping time on each package. "Believing that you are interested in speed as well as appearance." The chief shipper was interested in George as well. They got the job.

To An Actor

How do you act on the Stage of life
In a world that is burdened
With worry and strife,
Do you bring to your audience
Those you meet
A story of failure
And tragic defeat,
Do you bring tears to the eyes
Stricken by grief?
Do you cause worry when
There should be relief,
Do you tell of fading flowers
And fallen leaves,
Do you bring a sad story
To hearts that grieve?

Or

Do you play a part in a
Comical role,
Bringing laughter and joy
To a tired soul;
Singing like the jesters
Used to sing;
And to sorrowing souls,
Comfort bring;
Clowning your way on
Lives great show;
Bringing mirth and humor
Wherever you go;
Then joy go with you,
Thru all the years,
And count your days with
Smiles not tears,
And when death comes,
Your life to sever
You will live in our hearts,
Forever, yes forever.

USE FEET ONLY

The vocalist at a camp concert seemed to have an endless repertoire. The fact that his voice was obviously beginning to grate on the audience, did not deter him in the least.
At last, one exasperated listener shouted: "Hi, d'you know 'The Long, Long Trail?'"
"Why yes," replied the vocalist, proudly. "Shall I sing it?"
"No," quickly came the reply, "ht it!" — Montreal Star.
