Marriage Takes Place On Friday

Miss Lela Huddleston, daughter of Mrs. Anna Fabrique of Beaverton, was united in marriage to Mr. Lenn Holman of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman of Camas, Wn., at a charming informal ceremony in the Church of Christ in Multnomah by the pastor, Elery A. Parrish, Friday evening, March 28.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Chester Huddleston. She was lovely in a gown of blue marquisette. She carried a shower bouquet of wild currant blossoms and wore currant blossoms in her hair.

Miss Jessie Cross of Portland was the bride's only attendant. Her gown was shell pink organza and her flowers were blue iris.

Don Berg of Portland acted as best man.

Glenn Shelley played the wedding march, preceded by a collection of favorite love songs. Clarence Tolman sang "Oh Promise Me" which was followed by a duet, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mr. Tolman and Halle Cobb, sister of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given at the Lyle Cobb home in Beaverton. Mrs. Walter Myers presided at the table, assisted by Mrs. J. N. Trovas. The Misses Geraldine and Isabelle Clampitt and Ruth Brenninger served the sixty-five guests.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Huddleston, Carol and Joyce; Garland Huddleston, Clifton and Maxine; Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cobb, all of Williamina; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Faulconer and Mrs. Archie Branson of Sheridan; Mrs. Wilbur Campbell of Sisters, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kirkpatrick, Helen and Lee, Jr., Charles Holman, Jr., and Mrs. Loyal Smith all of Washougal, Wash.

The young couple will be at home to their friends at S. W. 35th and Vermont Streets.

ELIOT PRESENT AT CLUB MEET

W. A. Eliot, curator of the Bird Sanctuary on Cornell Road was present at the March meeting of the Beaverton Community Garden club and gave a delightful lecture on native birds. His collection of beautifully colored slides added to his interesting remarks. Plans for a spring plant sale and tea were considered and the members voted to enter an exhibit in the Men's Garden Club flower show which was held this week at the Portland Public Market. Miss Anne Green of Portland will be the guest speaker at the April meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. H. A. Hartshorn on Canyon Crest road.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION HELD SAT.

The vote, a light one, at the Aloha-Huber school bond election Saturday, was 55 for and 72 against the issuance of bonds. The proposed bond issue of $31,000 was for the building of a new school house.

BOND PAYMENTS MADE BY STATE

Bond payments made by the state of Oregon on April 1st of this year cut the state's outstanding bonded indebtedness to $33,366,385, it was disclosed today by Earl Snell, secretary of state. On April 1st, payments totaling $1,775,000 became due.

The state's outstanding bonded indebtedness as of Dec. 31, 1940 amounted to $35,175,385. The April 1st payments cut this figure to the $33,366,385 mark and put the state in the position of having reduced its bonded indebtedness by slightly over 10 percent since 1930 when, at the end of the year, the outstanding bonds totaled $60,339,510.

The bonded indebtedness at the end of 1940 was divided as follows: highway bonds, $14,766,750; world war veterans' state aid bonds, $18,275,000; irrigation districts interest bonds, $2,081,635; rural credits farm loan bonds, $52,000. In addition to the April 1st payments this year, the state paid off $34,000 of irrigation districts interest bonds in January of this year.
