Plays And Dances Are Featured

Skits, one-act plays and square dancing featured the first "Spring Festival" held in Washington County, the evening of April 2, at the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce rooms. Groups from different sections of the county brought in rehearsed skits, plays and dances which they are doing for amusement in their home communities, according to Kathleen McCrae, home demonstration agent.

The West Union Junior Women's Club presented a skit, "In the Good Old Nick of Time," with the following members taking part: Gene Haley, Ava Zurcher, Evelyn Schmidt, Betty Jacobson, Mable Kent, Clara Tschabold, Helen Fuegy, Vivian Jeffries and Clara Jeffries. "The Minister's Mistake" was given by the Verboort Lady Foresters, with three characters: Dora Greene, Ida Hermens and Mary Bell. The Lelystown Community club presented a skit "Buying Eggs," in which Albert Coussens, Germaine Maes and Bertha Seut took part. The Norwood Extension Unit presented a one-act play, "Fever Heat," in which the following participated: Anna Tolvsted, Christine Powell, Ada Wald, Bertha Floyd, Angie Coppennoll, Gladys Bacon, Margaret Scoffer and Shirley Skillings. Two square dances were given by the North Plains Woman's Gym class, half of whom were dressed as men. The dancers were Noreen Allyn, Agnes Thies Madge Ross, Blanche Stewart, Gertrude Mays, Effie Jackson, Sophia Hills and Blanca Stigum. The dances were called by Annie Langue and Roland Hall played the piano.

CLUB GIRLS ATTEND COOKING SCHOOL

72 4-H Club girls from various parts of the county attended the Cooking School held on April 5th, at the Hillsboro office of the Portland Gas and Coke Company. 4-H Club girls and leaders from West Union, Raleigh, Helvetia, Heywood, Beaverton, Durham, Hillsboro, Glenwood, Schefflin, Lelystown and North Plains attended the Cooking School, according to Kathleen McCrae, home demonstration agent.

The demonstration given by Rita Calhoun, home service director of the gas company, consisted of ice box cookies, vanilla drop cookies, baking powder biscuits and custard angel food cake. These are the exhibit articles for 4-H club members in Cookery I, II and III, on which the prizes are based at county and state fairs. Miss Hazel Burrell, a former 4-H girl from Portland, gave a bread-making demonstration, showing good planning and efficiency as a standard for local 4-H girls in planning demonstrations. Miss Grace Workman assisted throughout the day.

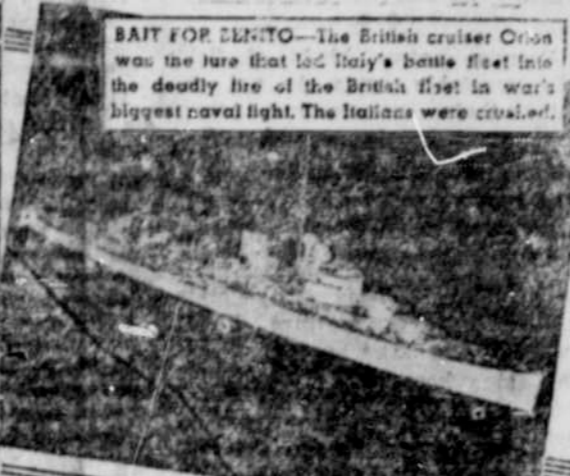

Wednesday evening Beaver Chapter O.E.S. entertained the local Jobs Daughters and Masons. A group of members from South Gate, presented a minstrel show. Refreshments were served.

CURRENT EVENTS PHOTOGRAPHED FOR THE REVIEW

FASHION PARADE IN MINIATURE—The forward march of fashion during 50 years is symbolized by these dolls, each "modeling" a decade's styles. They are a feature of the Fisher Body display in the General Motors Parade of Progress, traveling exhibit which spotlights our progress in everything from cars to clothes.

BAIT FOR ELENTO—The British cruiser Orion was the lure that led Italy's battle fleet into the deadly fire of the British fleet in war's biggest naval fight. The Italians were crushed.

SPRING COSTUME. Trailing vines, with a few red and blue posies for color, are embroidered to the white wool jersey blouse. Her slacks are of fire-engine red wool jersey.

CHECK FOR SEVEN BILLION—Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren signs a treasury warrant for the seven billion dollar lend-lease fund voted by Congress, the largest single warrant in history.

BALANCED DIET?—This is easy if you're an acrobatic dancer like Marie Helles—but most of us prefer our morning coffee sitting down. Wonder how she stirs it?

City Fathers To License Some Firms

The regular monthly meeting of the City Fathers convened Monday evening with Aldermen L. R. Harris, L. F. Humburg, F. D. Peck and Walter Van Kleek present along with Mayor Rossi, Fire Chief A. Olson, City Attorney P. Patterson and General Supt. Fred Goyt. Alderman Barnes and Auditor Amadoc came in later.

A letter was read from the W.P.A. regarding the Sorrento Water district, asking further information.

General Superintendent Goyt recommended that a chlorination plant be installed at the Beaverton City reservoir. He was instructed to obtain information regarding such an installation and report to the Council at a later date.

Recorder Doty was requested to write to Hy Samuels requesting certain information regarding the West Slope Water district and their reaction to the new Fire Protection Law just passed by the State Legislature.

Insurance to the amount of $3,500 was ordered from Leonard Adams to cover the new shop recently constructed.

An ordinance regulating the operation and maintenance of woodyards and automobile and machinery wrecking yards in the city limits was passed, making it necessary for such places of business, if operated within 400 feet of dwellings or business houses to obtain written permission of the owners of the property to conduct their business. A permit must also be obtained from the City Recorder to operate their business. This already in operation. does not apply to those yards.

HOME SCENE OF MUCH ACTIVITY

The Northwestern Christian Home for the aged has been the scene of much spring activity. The new grade for the road encircling the grounds is nearly ready for surfacing. Concrete steps have been placed between the laundry and the clothesline level, and gardening is holding attention. Flowers and shrubs are being set in to complete the landscaping.

Interesting memories are those cherished by Miss Ada Belle Brown, elderly resident of the Home. Miss Brown was born in Indianapolis, Ind., May 11, 1865. As a young woman one of her first positions was in a newspaper office in that state. Here she knew Booth Tarkington, Irvin Cobb and Meredith Nicholson, all employed as cub reporters on the paper, Indianapolis News. With a reminiscent smile, she recalls each as an eager young man keenly interested in his chosen work and scarcely as yet realizing the possibilities of future fame.

Coming to Portland in 1902, Miss Brown took up child nursing and made this her life work. Recently, during a minor illness she was much surprised and pleased to become re-acquainted with a young interne with whom she had been associated during her early training. Now, Dr. Vernon Brown, an elderly Portland physician, is attending physician for the home patients.

EASTER PREVIEWED AT KIWANIS MEET

Wednesday evening's Kiwanis meeting was a preview of Easter and proved to be an exceptionally fine one. Dr. B. B. Sutcliffe, President of the Multnomah School of the Bible, Portland, was the speaker. Clifford Wilcox of Seattle, a student at the school, sang two well chosen Easter numbers. He was accompanied by Miss Miriam Doty.

Dr. Sutcliffe presented a masterful discussion on the resurrection of Jesus Christ and what it could mean to the world and to the individual, if we would but lay hold upon Jesus Christ who comes in resurrection with life. He graphically illustrated the simplicity of accepting Christ likening it to accepting a gift from a loved one or friend—the gift of eternal life. Christ is ever ready to solve our problems and the problems of our war worn world.

The roster of visitors included Mr. S. S. Paxson of Beaverton and C. D. French of Salem. Following the meeting, Mr. French, who is with the Traffic Safety Division, State of Oregon, gave

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED HERE

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Wolf of Garden Home have announced the engagement of their daughter Carleen, to Lieutenant Edward Jannsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Jannsen of Reedville. The wedding is planned for Easter Sunday in the army chapel at Barksdale Field in Shreveport, La., where Lieutenant Jannsen is an instructor in the army air corps.

Lieutenant Jannsen and his fiancée are graduates of Beaverton high school and the former spent two years at Oregon State college prior to his air corps training. He graduated at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, and received his officers' commission in December and has been stationed at Barksdale Field since that time. The bride-to-be has been entertained at various showers by friends and relatives the past week.

The group some very interesting tests in driving ability. Needless to say, there were some surprising performances chalked up.

MILLING COMPANY REBUILDS ROOM

The Findley Milling company is rebuilding a storeroom to replace that lost by fire some months ago. The new quarters are approximately fifty feet in length. The outside surface will be covered with galvanized sheets covering a firm inner foundation. The new storeroom is being built upon the site of that destroyed and connects with the mill.

AFTERNOON PARTY AT ADAMS HOME

Mrs. Lester Adams of Route 2 entertained at an afternoon party April 3. The guests were the Women's Council of the Church of Christ and her neighborhood Priscilla club. About thirty were present to partake of delicious refreshments served by the hostess. Red Cross sewing and other hand work occupied the time. The birthday of Mrs. V. Boge was also celebrated.
