

A CONTRAST.

For the special benefit of the War and "Seymour Democrats," who are still infatuated enough to follow the lead of the Salem VAMPIRE, we make the following contrast:

GOVERNOR SCYMOUR ON ARBITRARY ARRESTS, AND ON THE SUPPRESSION OF A FREE PRESS.

Our people have, the reform, viewed with alarm, practices and pretensions on the part of officials, which violate every principle of good order, of civil liberty, and of Constitutional law. It is claimed that in time of war, the President has powers as Commander in Chief of our armies, which authorize him to declare martial law, not only within the sphere of hostile movements, where other law cannot be enforced, but also over our whole land.

That at this place no one can disregard not only the Statutes of Congress, but the decisions of the national judiciary. That in loyal States the least intelligent class of officials may be clothed with power not only to act as spies and informers, but also without due process of law to seize and imprison our citizens, and carry them beyond the limits of the State, to hold them in prison without a hearing or a knowledge of the offenses with which they are charged. Not only the passions and prejudices of these inferior agents lead them to acts of tyranny, but their interests are advanced and their positions secured by promoting discontent and discord.

Even to ask the aid of a court has been held to be an offense. It has been well said that "to be arrested, for one knows not what; to be confined, no one entitled to ask what he is to be tried, no one can say when, by a law nowhere known or established or to linger out life in a cell without trial, presents a body of tyranny which cannot be enlarged."

The suppression of journals, and the imprisonment of persons have been glaringly partisan, allowing to some the most licentiousness of criticism, and punishing others for the fair exercise of the right of discussion. Conscious of these gross abuses, an attempt has been made to shield the violators of law and suppress inquiry into their motives and conduct. This attempt will fail. Unconstitutional acts cannot be shielded by unconstitutional laws. Such attempts will not save the guilty, while they will bring a just condemnation upon those who try to pervert the powers of legislation to the purposes of oppression.

To justify such action by precedents drawn from the practice of Governments where there is no restraint upon legislative powers will be of no avail under our system, which restrains the Government and protects the citizens by written constitutions.

I shall not inquire what rights States in rebellion have forfeited, but I deny it at this rebellion can suspend a single right of the citizens of loyal States.

I denounce the doctrine that civil war in the South takes away from the loyal North one principle of civil liberty.

It is a high crime to abduct a citizen of this State. It is made my duty by the Constitution to see that the laws are enforced. I shall investigate every alleged violation of our statutes, and see that offenders are brought to justice. Sheriffs and District Attorneys are admonished that it is their duty to take care that no person within their respective counties are imprisoned nor carried by force beyond their limits, without due process or legal authority. The removal to England of persons charged with crime, without their friends, their witnesses and means of defense, was one of the acts of tyranny for which we asserted our independence. The abduction of citizens from this State for offenses charged to have been done here and carrying them many hundreds of miles to distant prisons in other States or Territories, is an outrage of the same character, upon every principle of right and justice.

The above article appeared in the VAMPIRE of October 27th, just previous to the news of the triumph of Democracy in the Atlantic States. Every one of the filthy dogs who train in that squad, endorsed its sentiments. Had the elections gone in favor of Abolitionism, they would still continue to endorse it. They would continue to swear it was "just their sentiments." The miserable Canaille are now ready to swallow their puke on that occasion—to take back into their foul and filthy stomachs the torrents of scurrility and unnumbered abuse spewn forth by them upon men whom they knew in their hearts were always right. What dependence can be placed upon men who will thus sacrifice truth, honor and principle, and who do violence to their own consciences and convictions, for the sake of being on the winning side? What right have such men as will endorse the above infamous sentiments from the Salem paper—and they all endorsed it at the time—to claim that they are "Seymour Democrats?"

The devil has more just grounds for claiming to be an "angel of light."

To POSTMASTERS.—There are several newspapers published in Oregon and elsewhere as much in "aid and comfort of the enemy" in the present war as any that have been extended from their offices. It will be remembered that during Mr. Buchanan's administration an order was issued to all postmasters to arrest all incendiary matter found in the mails.

[This is an infamous lie. Never was any such order issued by a Democratic administration.—ED. UNION.]

By this order all postmasters are authorized to open and search all suspected packages and destroy the contents, if by them deemed of incendiary character. This order, made under a Democratic administration, is applicable to the present time, and we have no doubt if postmasters in Oregon take the responsibility of arresting treasonable and incendiary matter in their offices, that the Postmaster General will consider the proceeding regular and proper.

The above was not only an endorsement of the outrageous and arbitrary acts of the Abolition Administration in its raid against a free press, but a direct encouragement to the lowest mental tools of the Administration, to act without orders, and to rob the mails.

The Linn County "Union" Convention, was held at Albany March 29th, 1862, Joseph Hamilton Chairman, and S. F. Church Secretary. A. Osborne Assistant Secretary. Bush's Monkey "Captain John," T. A. Riggs, C. H. Barber, Dr. S. A. Smith and J. P. Backenstow reported, among others, the following resolutions, which will put the mark of the tyrant's tool upon their brows so long as they live.

4th. That we approve of the test oaths required by our Government before granting any bounty to any person, believing as we do that every loyal citizen will gladly avail himself of the privilege of swearing allegiance to his country.

6th. That we approve of the course of our Government in stopping from the mails the disloyal journals of Oregon, believing that the Oregon Democrat, Oregon Union and Jacksonville Gazette are aiming at the overthrow of our Government, and the recognition of the Southern Confederacy.

Have not the tools, toadies and lick-spittles of tyranny, who enunciated these sentiments, a clear and undisputed right and title to claim kindred with Governor Seymour? Are they not "sweet scented" "Seymour Democrats?"

The following thrilling incident of the unsuccessful charge at Fredericksburg, is from the pen of a correspondent of the Missouri Republican:

Parts of Sumner's grand corps charged three times up the declivity in front of the enemy's works and were as often repulsed with dreadful slaughter. Amid the groans of the dying, the shrieks of the wounded, and the defiant cries of the retreating column, which fell back cheering, "Hurrah for General McClellan," could be heard above the roar of battle, sometimes from our defeated soldiers, sometimes from the wounded, and often from the dying soldiers.

THE STONEMAN OF DEATH.

What Baker's Election did.

With what beautiful consistency preaching against abolition, comes from a wretch who, to gratify his personal malice, did not hesitate to send an Abolitionist to the United States Senate at a time when that was the only branch of the Government that was not in Abolition hands, and when that election gave the Abolitionists a MAJORITY OF ONE, even in the Senate. Don't preaching against Abolition come with a beautiful grace from the crowd who elected Billy Adam's pet puppy, "Abolition Johnny" instead of Judge Wait; and who do all they could to send Logan—at that time a radical Republican—to Congress in place of Shiel and Stout? Don't preaching against Abolition come with a sweet accent from the Massachusetts Abolition Squirt, who helped to elect "Sore-headed Sumner" to the United States Senate before he left his native New England? But to Baker's election; it is frequently said that Democrats had a majority in the United States Senate to thwart the Abolition designs of the Lincoln Administration, if the Southern Senators had remained.

This is not true. The election of E. D. Baker gave the Administration a majority of one, even in that body. Baker acted and voted with the Abolitionists on every occasion. He voted for the Clark substitute and the vote of the Clark substitutes and the vote of the Clark substitutes.

After March 4th 1861 the United States, stood 34 Republican Senators to 34 Democratic of all shades, giving the casting vote to Vice President Hamlin, who, of course, would throw it on the side of the Abolitionists. The following were the Republican Senators of the 37th Congress.

- MAINE—Lot M. Morrill and Wm Pitt Fessenden.
- VERMONT—Solomon Post and Jacob Colburn.
- NEW HAMPSHIRE—John P Hale and Dan'l Clark.
- MASSACHUSETTS—Chas. Sumner and Henry Wilson.
- RHODE ISLAND—Jos. F. Simmons and Henry B. Anthony.
- CONNECTICUT—James Dixon and Lafayette S. Foster.
- NEW YORK—Preston King and Ira Harris.
- NEW JERSEY—John C. Ten Eyck.
- PENNSYLVANIA—David Wilmot and Edgar Cowan.
- ILLINOIS—Lyman Trumbull and Ch H Browning.
- INDIANA—Henry S. Lane.
- OHIO—Benj. F. Wade and John Sherman.
- MICHIGAN—Zachariah Chandler and R. S. Bingham.
- IOWA—James W. Grimes and James Haden.
- WISCONSIN—James R. Doolittle and S O Howe.
- CALIFORNIA—James A. McDougall. (elected by Republicans).
- MINNESOTA—Morton S. Wilkinson.
- KANSAS—James H. Lane and S. C. Pomeroy.
- OREGON—James W. Nesmith (elected by Republicans) and E. D. Baker.—34.

The Democratic Senators from free States were Bright, Latham, Rice and Thompson. These four with the 30 slave State Senators make 34. Thus it will be seen that the Senate, even if all the Slave State Senators had remained, would have been a tie, giving the casting vote to the Republican Vice President, Hamlin. This was the prospect that alarmed the South and had as much, or more than anything else, to do in driving that section out of the Union. The Oregon conditions had such an effect upon the mind of the National Democracy that we find the coalitions against Shiel, against Stout, and in favor of "Nes," and Baker alluded to in the address put forth by Mr. Stevens on behalf of the Democracy in 1860. There is no doubt but that those coalitions produced a lasting impression upon the minds of men in the South and led them to believe that they had no prospect of justice from the North, when even such favored communities as Oregon had been at their hands, turned against them and sent Abolitionists to the Senate of the United States, to vote away their constitutional rights and assist in cutting their throats.

Saint Mary's Academy for Young Ladies.

Under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy names of Jesus and Mary, PORTLAND, OREGON.

THIS Institution is agreeably situated in the most healthy part of the City of Portland, on a gently rising eminence which commands an extensive and beautiful prospect. Its objects are to educate young ladies in all the useful and ornamental branches generally taught in the most approved schools.

The moral and intellectual improvement of the pupils will be attended to with the greatest solicitude, and the most devoted attention paid to the general regulations of the Institution. The young ladies are under the watchful care and government of their teachers.

Pupils of every religious denomination will be equally received, and all interference with their religious convictions carefully avoided. Good order, however, requires that all should conform to the general regulations of the Institution. All letters to and from the pupils will be inspected by the superioresses.

The scholastic year commences on the first of September and terminates about the middle of July. It is divided into four quarters of eleven weeks each. Reports of the health and progress of the pupils are forwarded semi-annually to parents and guardians. The course of studies embraces the various branches which constitute the elementary and general education, including Reading, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Algebra, History, Logic, Grammar, Rhetoric, Composition, Geography, Use of the Globes, Astronomy, Botany, Natural Philosophy, French, Vocal and Instrumental Music, Drawing and Painting, Plain and Ornamental Needle Work, Knitting, Crochet, &c. French, Music, Drawing and painting are extra branches, and will be taught at the option of the parents.

Each pupil must be provided with two pink gingham dresses, two white blouses, a white dress, a blue dress, a black dress, a black and white lace veil, one black silk apron, a white straw hat with white trimmings; a knife and fork; a table, dessert and tea spoon; gilet, six table napkins, six towels, a white counterpane, three pairs of sheets, three pillow cases, bed cover, six changes, and the rest of the clothing in proportion.

and other poisonous drugs, and after they have robbed you of your money and injured your constitution, they will cast you off with the charge that you have not followed their directions. The only way to avoid such imposters, is to consult Dr. J. C. Young, the Pioneer Advertising Physician of California. At a meeting of the Medical Faculty of the State, called to investigate the source of malpractice that has caused so much suffering in this country, it was unanimously recommended that all the afflicted should consult Dr. Young, as he was the only regular physician now advertising in California, all others in his line being quacks and imposters, and are not to be trusted. The afflicted will please take notice that there was not a physician at the meeting who had ever heard of a single case of malpractice from Dr. Young, while not one of them but had seen a number of cases from other foreign quacks, who vainly set forth their pretended virtues in the public prints.

Thank heaven, they are getting thoroughly exposed, and it will not be long before they will have to fly the country to avoid the just indignation of an outraged public. Then will all good people thank Dr. Young for his continued efforts to banish quackery from our midst.

There are many in Oregon suffering for want of scientific medical treatment, and yet fear to apply to a physician, because they or their friends have been deceived by some of the charlatans who infest the community, and who publish themselves as good physicians, professors, etc. To all such we unhesitatingly recommend Dr. J. C. Young, as a physician in whom all can place confidence. He is a man of eminent and profound study, a good surgeon, an honorable gentleman, who can sympathize with persons in affliction. His standing as a physician and a gentleman are both guaranteed—the first, by his medical works, which are an honor to his author, and the extensive and highly successful course of practice with which he has been honored since his advent in California, and the latter by his numerous patrons and large circle of acquaintances.

REMEMBER—That Dr. Young wants no patients but those fully capable of appreciating and distinguishing the service of a regular thoroughbred physician from the paltry, unlearned, and trifling quack.

REMEMBER—That Dr. Young is the only regular practicing physician advertising to cure diseases of impudence.

REMEMBER—That Dr. Young's remedies and treatment are entirely unknown to all others prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Europe, and the first in the country, from pure chemical impurities.
