Local Lore

"FIFIELD"—The "ONLY WAY." 42-tf

W. H. Meredith, one of Port Orford's most popular and wide awake boosters, was a RECORDER caller yesterday. He reports the recent organization of a commercial club in his bailiwick and tooteth his horn both truthfully and clear in regard to the future of southwestern Oregon.

K. F. Wilson, one of the publishers of the Floras Lake Banner, was in town last Wednesday and Thursday and when returning had the misfortune to have his horse fall on him. Mr. Wilson was severely bruised, and the horse so badly injured that the rider was compelled to complete his journey on foot.

FOR SALE—Lot 50 x 100 with new three room cottage, etc. $300.00—Bandon Investment Corporation.

The Fifield is scheduled to arrive at Bandon at 4:00 o'clock this afternoon.

W. H. Meredith, an attorney of Port Orford and secretary of the newly organized commercial club there, was in Marshfield yesterday on business. He had been at Coquille trying a lawsuit over the purchase of a team, the parties having made the deal over the telephone and now each alleges a different version of the terms. The case will probably go to the supreme court.—Coos Bay Times.

Definition FIFIELD—"Superior to all others."—Why not patronize the best and "ONLY WAY?" 54-tf

J. M. Foster, of the Merchants' Protective Association, who has been in this city for the last two months, went over to Marshfield to meet his wife who arrived on the Breakwater from Portland, yesterday. They returned to Bandon today.

P. G. Varney, who has been in Sisson, Calif. for the last two months returned to Bandon, Thursday, on the steamer Wolverine. Mr. Varney is well known in Bandon and adjoining country and we all join in welcoming him back.

See or phone L. J. Radley for all kinds of Fire Wood. 27-tf

Simon Simonson, of Riverton, came down yesterday to spend a few days with friends and have some dental work done.

Mr. Schriber is excavating for a modern house to be built adjoining his present home near the Geo. W. Moore Mill.

Anyone wanting seed grain, call on T. W. Robinson. Extra good seed oats 2c. 61-tf

Al Ames, who has been logging for Mr. Hess of the Two Mile Mill, returned to complete his work Tuesday after moving his family to town. Al will be out a couple of months.

G. N. Skow and son, Walter, the Lakeport butchers, were in town Tuesday, bringing in a load of pork for the local markets. Mr. Skow informs us that California capitalists are contemplating plating Blacklock estate as a summer resort. The Burson Bros. will be down from Portland about the 20th to do the work.

We are prepared to furnish estimates on cost of wiring and lighting your house with electric lights. Let us talk it over with you and give you figures. 62-tf

Ed. Greigware came in from Lakeport Tuesday to attend to the ordering of the front of Mr. McQuarter's building, being constructed there. It is 28x50, two stories and the lower story will be fitted up for a confectionery store and the second used as a lodge room and dance hall.

Landlord Louie Knapp, of Port Orford, was a Bandon visitor Wednesday. He was on his way home after transacting legal business at Coquille.

The liver loses its activity at times and needs help. HERBINE is an effective liver stimulant. It also purifies the bowels, strengthens digestion and restores strength, vigor and cheerful spirits. Price 50c. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

A. J. Hartman, the manager of the new box factory, has purchased the 12x14 Atlas engine from A. E. Kruse and will install it in his plant which will be a strictly first-class factory in every way, and will be a great boon to the Coquille river ranchers and cannerymen.

Don't forget that T. W. Robinson is handling all kinds of hay, grain, feed, etc., at the very lowest prices. 40-tf

The grand ball given by the Women of Woodcraft, New Year's eve, was a success socially, financially, and in every other particular. The music by Kausrud's orchestra was the very finest, and everybody present enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

Don't overlook the Bandon Warehouse in buying your Hay, Grain, or mill feeds. Terms strictly cash—mean lowest prices in town. Give us a trial. 54-tf

Rev. C. H. Barklow, of Myrtle Point, a minister of the Church of the Brethren, commonly called Dunkards, will arrive in Bandon, Saturday, December 14th, and will hold a series of meetings in the old M. E. Church, South. The public is cordially invited to attend.

See A. A. Paull for best grade coal. Phone 382. 60-tf

V. R. Dwiggin, formerly of Bandon, was seriously hurt at Hillsboro, Or., recently, by a telephone pole falling with him. Just how badly he was hurt we were unable to learn. Mr. Dwiggin is well known in Bandon, having worked for the Bandon Light & Power Co. and also for the Bandon RECORDER. Mrs. Dwiggin was formerly Miss Lena Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Logan of this city.
