Hello Call.

It is remarkable how quickly some people can see the splinter in some body else's eyes, but can not see the log in their own eye.

An incident of this is given in your RECORDER of March 10th, modifying the Hallo call.

It is "Hallo" not "Hello " The word has been known in German long before we heard of any "hallo" girls or tele; hones; even then the English speaking people used the word reversed by syllable; it was never thought, even spoken of as in need of a modification,

Another objectionable word to the great reformer is "dam" applied in water works.

What about "Rotterdam, Amsterdam" and similar "dams?"

In regard to the first word "hallo" or "hello" as the good reverend has it, I wonder if he also objects to the word "God?" reverse it and you have ' dog.'' What nonsense to see only

It will not be long until he has to walk the same road his father went; he will have to resign: the American people will not stand for ship, consisting of C.
