Shipping Business at this Port Continues Very Good

The Elizabeth sailed Saturday morning with 236,000 feet of lumber, 300 bundles of veneer slices, 7 cases and 2 bales of woollens, 81 bundles of broom handles, 17 cases of cheese, 200,000 shingles, and 8 tons of miscellaneous. The Elizabeth also carried the following passengers: Mrs. Wm. Vore, R. G. Armstead, Mr. Bronston, Wm. Melgren, L. Peterson, P. Sossa and J. D. Linderman.

The Phoenix is in port and will be ready for sea tomorrow morning. She will take out a big cargo of lumber and has a good list of passengers booked.

The Randolph and Ruby are both in port and will probably sail tomorrow, as will also the Ida McKay.

The Fifeid sailed Sunday with 400,000 feet of lumber and a good list of passengers, among which were: Chas. Baxter and wife, S. Braun, E. J. Calline, James Orr, H. A. Mendel, A. E. Calline, and others.

Mrs. C. Ledgerwood spent several days last week at Coquille.

The Fifeid arrived in San Francisco this morning. She will return here about Friday and will probably sail Sunday.

At the Grand.

The management begs to inform the public that the Hollingsworth Stock Co. formerly presenting plays at the Grand Theatre every Wednesday night have changed the day to Friday nights.

Next Friday night March 24th this popular company will offer another pleasing comedy. Specialties between act by Billy Van, and high class motion pictures will comprise the entertainment.

Prices, adults 35c, children 25c. All seats reserved.

Four Mile Echos.

A very pleasant Grange picnic and good services by Rev. Sanderlin were held at Four Mile Sunday. Quite a number were present and plenty of good things to eat were on hand. Mr. Pohl of Bandon, was down and gave a very good talk on farming, and several other excellent addresses were delivered.

The donkey engine bought from Cope & Dyer just reached the county road Sunday. The roads were bad and the limbs hanging over the road were a great trouble.

F. R. Miller's family have been having a hard tussle with the grip.

Died, March 15, Wallace Miller, the child of F. R. Miller, of influenza and infantile paralysis. Wallace was taken with the infantile paralysis last summer from which he never fully recovered. He was a bright little fellow and the family have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

Mrs. T. H. Shaw returned from San Francisco last week where she went about two months ago on business.

Mrs. Bulle moved her husband to town last week where he could have a better chance for medical treatment. Mr. Bulle has had a hard spell of cold or grip from which it seems hard to recover.

Mr. Coon made final commutation on his homestead last week.

The assessor has been making his regular rounds.

H. J. Crippen is again at the helm of the Lakeport Banner as editor, and says he is going to bury the hatchet with the Port Orford Tribune and Gold Beach Globe, and states further that he will not even scrap over the county printing. That's good; Curry county can be better boosted by all the papers in the county working in harmony.

C. A. Rohn, who has had charge of the government property at Bandon for the past two years, has resigned his position. We are glad to note however, that Mr. Rohn will not leave this section.

Walter Sinclair of Coquille was a Bandon visitor to-day.

A Change For the Better.

The nine-year-old boy of a Baltimore family who is compelled by his parents to practice daily upon the piano may not be a clever performer, but he has a pretty shrewd notion of the worth of an instrument, as well as a rather mature wit, as is evidenced by an incident in the household not long since.

His father upon returning home from a week's absence heard the lad plugging away at the piano. "When did you learn that new piece, son?" asked the parent. "It isn't a new piece, dad," answered the boy. "The piano has been tuned."—Lippinott's.

She Won.

He was a philosopher and a talker. She was a woman of action. They stood together on the bridge and watched a tug that was hauling a long line of barges up the river. "Look there, my dear," said he. "Such is life. The tug is like the man, working and toiling, while the barges, like the women, are—" His wife gave him no time to finish the sentence. "I know," she said. "The tug does all the blowing and the barges bear all the burden."—

S. R. Loshbaugh of Bridge has traded his property in that neighborhood to Walter Donald of Bandon, and Mr. Donald is moving up to take possession this week. Mr. Loshbaugh will remain a couple of months to help in the saw mill and then expects to move to Bandon to make his home.—Coos Bay Times.

Notice for Publication.

Department of the Interior, Roseburg, Ore., U. S. Land Office, February 13, 1911. Notice is hereby given that Martin W. Treadgold, whose post office address is The Dalles, Oregon, did on the 2d day of June, 1910, file in this office Sworn Statement and application, No. 06365, to purchase the E. 1-2 N. E. 1-4 Sec. 11 and S. 1-2 S. E. 1-4 Section 2, Township 30 S, Range 14, W. W. Meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the Timber and Stone Law, at such value as might be fixed by appraisement, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised at $965; the timber estimated at 1,770,000 board feet at 50 cents per M., and the land at $ 0.00; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 6th day of May, 1911, before Register and Receiver at Roseburg, Oregon.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.

BENJAMIN F. JONES, Register. 13-10-T

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for Coos County.

James Tierney, Plaintiff vs. Margaret Roehl, Peter Schneider and C. R. Wade, Defendants.

Suit in Equity—SUMMONS

To Margaret Roehl and Peter Schneider, defendants above named:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which is Tuesday, February 28, 1911, and if you fail to appear and answer in said suit within the time prescribed, a judgment and decree will be taken against you for want of an answer and the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in plaintiff's complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows, to-wit:

That a certain conveyance executed by defendant, Peter Schneider, on or about March 10, 1910, to defendant, Margaret Roehl, purporting to convey eighty-five feet off of the East end of lots 1 and 2, of block 7, in Woolen Mill Addition to Bandon, Coos County, Oregon, and also lots 6 and 7, of block 8, in Azalea Park addition to Bandon, Coos County, Oregon, as the same appear plotted and of record in the office of the County Clerk of said Coos County, be declared fraudulent: that the said deed be set aside and the said property subjected to the lien of a certain judgment obtained by plaintiff against said defendant, Peter Schneider, on or about December 15, 1910, in said Court for the sum of $568.00 or thereabouts, with the costs of this suit; that all right, title, interest, claim, lien and estate of defendant C. R. Wade, therein be forever foreclosed, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet, just and equitable.

Service of this summons upon you is made by publication thereof, pursuant to an order made by the Hon. John S. Coke, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County, which said order bears date February 25, 1911, and directs the publication of this summons in the Bandon Recorder, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published at Bandon, Coos County, Oregon, and directs that the same be published in said paper once a week for the period of six weeks.
