

Local Lore

Miss Jane Smith was down from Craine's camp and visited her brother and his family over Saturday night.

LOST—A hat pin, set with brilliants. Please return to this office and receive reward. 42-12-X

Willis Coy was down from Lampa Saturday, returning Sunday.

Dr. C. Earl Low has decided to locate at Langlois and is now in that little city. Dr. Low is a graduate of the medical department of Willamette University at Salem, and has served one year in the Salem hospital. Dr. Low expects to locate at Langlois permanently.

SAV, watch the horses smile and grow fat when you feed them grain and hay from T. Robison. 40-11

Mrs. Joseph Flann of Bear Creek was a Bandon visitor Monday.

Have four contracts. Want carpenters and laborers. Apply to N. P. Nelson, Prosper, Or. 39-15

Hanrahan, Plymouth and Logan have just opened the streets in a large addition to West Bandon for the Merchant Land Co. of Marshfield and the same will be put on the market soon.

See the Bandon Warehouse Co. for hay, grain and feeds. The best in town. Prices right. 38-11

Judge G. W. Rea, who has been ill for several weeks, was some better at last report.

Bandon Warehouse Co. have just what you want in hay, grain and feeds. See them. 38-11

A. D. Morse, who has been ill at his home for several months, is reported a little better at present, and his friends hope that he may soon be able to get out again.

Why not buy your feed of T. W. Robison at the Central Warehouse? Special bargain prices for next 10 days. Hay, Grain, Mill Feed and Seeds of all kinds. Call and see. Prices right. 40-11

The Central Warehouse is to be equipped with some fine new four wheel cars for freight business, a thing that is very much needed to take care of the business.

If you appreciate speed, comfort and safety, travel on the Stmr. Fifield. 42-12

Mrs. J. C. Lee and Mrs. Florence of Lakeport, are in Bandon today.

Why does everybody travel on the Stmr. Fifield? Because it gives the best accommodations and service. 42-12

Thos. Coats, who has been confined to his home with paralysis for the past year and a half was able to take an automobile ride with J. H. Shields Sunday and says he enjoyed the trip immensely.

You boost for a good thing, don't you? Boost for the Stmr. Fifield and you will then boost the "good thing" along. 42-12

There are lots of "widowers" around town these days, as their wives "have gone to the country." There is considerable talk of a consolation party to which none but "deserted husbands" will be invited.

FOR SALE—Two acres, all fenced, two-thirds seeded down, good box house, well furnished, some garden, 2 1/2 miles from Bandon. Price $350. Address John Mott, Prosper, Ore. 41-11-T

The first dining car ever operated in Alaska, made its initial trip over the newly completed line of the Copper River & Northwestern Railway recently. It is attached to trains plying between Cordova and the interior. The advent of the diner in Alaska means that the old style of travel in the far North is departing rapidly. A la carte meals are served and returning passengers say the service is a great success.

At The Grand.

If you come to the Grand to-night you will see three reels of high class Pictures entitled—The Snare of the City, an Essanay drama, very interesting. The Emperor's Return, a picture showing an incident of Napoleon's spectacular career. Swans, a beautiful scenic.
3000 feet—a splendid program.—The admission the same—10c.

STRAVED—Pale red moolley cow, about 4 or 5 years, with underbit in left ear, small bell on, giving milk, came to my place about two weeks ago. Owner call, prove property, pay damages, and take same away. J. A. Armfield, Prosper, Or. 434-T

J. W. Roberts and J. Ira Sidwell left Sunday overland for Portland.

Civic Love.

Luther Barnack and a thousand other scientists and experimenters the world over are carefully watching millions of plants in the hope of something new. If any new, peculiar or strange trait appear, the little seedling is watched as priceless; all of the millions of the old and uniform are thrown away. But we of the human garden reserve this. We cherish the million which are all alike, and if, by the infinite miracle of the Infinite, one new and different appear, we beat him, uproot him, derive him of rain, light, air, all that makes for growth; and if he finally triumph and in a later day, a monument is erected to him as a rare human flower, he has triumphed, not in the sunshine of society, but in spite of its pitiless persecution. Can we not for our Festival time create a religion of joy, hope and tolerance, by which it shall be our creed to listen well to him who preaches new doctrines? To crown him with flowers now and make glad the living heart—not with bronze when that heart has perished.

The citizens of Florence loved her as if she were a veritable mistress of their affections. It is so we ought to love our city. She sits in the Seat of the Mighty, prepared for her from the beginning. She is crowned with beauty. Her breath is fragrant. All things of joy and greatness lie at her feet. But all will be as iron, hard and black, if she be not spiritually beautiful. Her citizens who love her as their mistress must bring to her as jewels for her wearing: Freedom, Charity, Beauty, Broad Tolerance and Hope. These be above gold.—Charles Erskine Scott Wood, in the June Pacific Monthly.

Care of the Herd Boar.

Most farmers seem to think it a great deal of trouble to keep a boar. The main reason that a boar is troublesome is because of inconvenient arrangements and poor fences. Keep him inclosed by fences that will turn him and he will be contented. Do not keep him in a dry or muddy lot. He eats grass the same as the sows and the cows. Turn him out where he can have range and company. A boar and a sow get along together, but a brood sow makes the best company for him, and a whole herd of brood sows won't hurt him. He will do much better when he has company and show a much better disposition. Do not let the boar run with the fattening hogs unless he really needs fattening up. If the hogs are being fed on a good balanced ration it will be all right for the boar. A hog can be vigorous and in good condition and not be fat.

Western Sheep Experiments.

The Wyoming experiment station after repeated trials concludes that corn and the bearded or Scotch barley, when fed with alfalfa, are about equal in value for mutton production. Barley in this test proved to be a shade better. Twenty-seven per cent less alfalfa and 28 per cent less grain were required where barley replaced either in a ration.
Grade lambs with mutton sires made greater gains, conditions being similar, than did Rambouillet lambs, though a record of food consumption for each class was not kept. The western stockman has a feed in barley that is of great value for meat production, and it may be used to advantage as a crop substitute.

OLD NEWSPAPERS.

Their Usefulness Is Not Gone Just Because You Have Read Them.

The mere fact that moths cannot read is no reason why they should devour newspapers, but they do nevertheless. It isn't exactly the newspaper or its editorial policy that moths dislike. It's the ink used in printing the type that makes the moths stay away. That is why, in the absence of mothproof bags and cedar chests, some housewives pack their furs and woollens away wrapped in newspapers at the end of the winter season and find that is a satisfactory way of preserving them against the ravages of moths. There is nothing better than old newspapers for use under the carpets for the same reason.

Old newspapers have many other uses as well. Wet in water they serve to clean out the stove splendidly. Crumpled newspapers are excellent to clean lamp chimneys. They can even be used for an iron holder for an emergency.

Newspapers dipped in lamp oil are useful for cleaning windows. Irons not much soiled can be rubbed on old newspapers and thus made fit for use. Dipped in lamp oil they are splendid to rub the outside of the dishpan. They keep it bright and shining. Torn in shreds, slightly dampened and scattered over the carpet, they keep down dust when sweeping. They clean the sink of its grease and sediment. Nothing is better for the greasy paper can be at once burned after use.

Many times folded newspapers will serve as a mat to stand hot and blackened pots or kettles on and save soiling the kitchen table. The kitchen stove is kept bright after the cooking of each meal with old papers, and this saves many polishings.

THE CHEERFUL VIEW.

As man was created for health, so was mankind created for happiness, and to speak of its misery only is to say words that soon are forgotten. Why not speak as though mankind were always on the eve of great certitude, of great joy? Thither, in truth, is man led by his instinct, though he never may live to behold the long wished for tomorrow.—Masterlinck.

S. S. FIFIELD

WHEN Traveling you want the most for your money, don't you? Why? Because it is a business proposition. That is just what we have to offer. We can give you the most for your money. The Steamer Fifield is the best equipped passenger boat sailing from ports south of Portland. She is the largest boat sailing from the Coquille river. These facts can not be disputed. The Fifield has the best passenger accommodations and service. Hot and cold water in every room. Fifield is equipped with wireless. This service alone ought to appeal to you. Fifield has twin screw engines, therefore no danger of being at the mercy of the sea.

REMEMBER that we always have a full passenger list both ways. Why? It is just as we stated above. We give you the most for your money. When you want to go to San Francisco, order your berth early, then you will be sure of getting one. Don't stop to think about it and put it off for a day or two. Many things happen in a day or two. Do it now before it is too late. We also give the best freight service. Ask anyone. They will tell you that we do. Why ship any other way than the best when it doesn't cost any more.
