Elder F. M. Sheehy, who is in charge of the Latter Day Saint churches of the Pacific slope, is in Bandon at present, holding services at the local church. Mr. Sheehy is a very strong and logical preacher.

A committee of the Brethren church has been in Bandon this week looking over the situation with the view to building a church of that denomination.

F. T. Tuttle has the lumber on the ground and will start the building of a fine new bungalow on his lots in Azalea Park.

R. E. Buck brought two turnips to this office yesterday afternoon that are the equal of anybody's turnips raised in any land. The larger one of the two was about six inches high and at least five inches in diameter and the other one was not much smaller. Mr. Buck says the man who says you can't raise good vegetables in Coos county, does not know what he is talking about. All they need to do is to take care of their gardens the same as people do elsewhere and this will be the garden spot of the earth. It might be added that looks and size are not the only merits of Mr. Buck's turnips, but they have the taste as well.

FOT TRADE—6 room house and 4 garden lots to trade for Bandon property; house and lots preferred. Pacific Real Estate Co., Coquille. 52-8t-x

Rev. F. J. Chatburn, of the Latter Day Saint's church, has moved from Myrtle Point to Bandon, having bought the Geo. Lorenz property. Mr. Chatburn will have charge of this district of Latter Day Saint churches. D. W. Carpenter is president of the local church.

Everybody get in and boost for the Carnival and Agricultural Fair. We are going to have a fall festivity that will be well worth going miles to see, and we invite all southwestern Oregon to join in helping to make it a success, besides enjoying three days of fun and education.

You boost for a good thing, don't you? Boost for the Strm F. field and you will then boost the "good thing" along. 45-tf

Loyal Wiren went up to Astoria with the new gasoline schooner Hulda, and will visit friends up there for a while and take in the big Astoria centennial.

A committee, consisting of Rev. Wm. Chandler, Elder J. S. Root and J. F. Mumford of Myrtle Point, came down Tuesday to make arrangements to build a Brethren (Dunkard) church on the lots which the church owns on Fourth and Main streets. Rev. J. W. Barnett, who recently moved into the Dickson house, will have charge of the work and will also be pastor of the church. They hope to start a Sunday-school soon.
