The Scrap Book

He Didn't Get Over.
Arthur Balfour, the British ex-premier, once was in a great hurry to get to England from his post in Ireland, and, there being no regular steamer for some days, he proposed to cross over in a cattle boat. But in the man from whom he sought information he found a home ruler of most ardent views.

"Can I cross in tonight's boat?" asked Mr. Balfour.

"No, ye can't, thin," said the Irishman.

"And why not?"
"Because 'tis a cattle boat."
"Never mind that. I'm not particular."

The home ruler gave a little laugh.
"No, Mr. Balfour," he retorted; "I dare say ye're not, but the cattle are."

Don't Feel Blue.
Oh, I like to hear a fellow who will whistle at his work;
I like to hear a worker who will hum a little tune.

Er a fellow's got some music, why, he ain't no apt to shirk.
He kin change a bleak December into mild and merry June.

There's enough uv gloom an' sorer uv the kind that hez to be.
Lots uv it's imaginary; you kin whistle it away.

When you see o' trouble skulkin' in the lots behind a tree
Let him see you're merry hearted; put your record on an' play.

What's the use o' feelin' blue?
Natur's happylike an' true.
Help the world to be more cheerful an' twill do the same fur you.

Blue is all right in the sky,
All right in a maiden's eye,
But don't git it in your system. It will kill you by an' by.

—Joe Cons.

A Premature Question.
When President Eliot of Harvard was in active service as head of the university he was noted among the students for his abrupt and brusque manner. Reports had come to him that one of his young charges was in the habit of absorbing more liquor than was good for him, and President Eliot determined to do his duty and look into the matter.

Meeting the young man under suspicion in the yard shortly after breakfast one day, the president marched up to him and demanded, "Young man, do you drink?"

"Why—why—why," stammered the young man, "why, President Eliot, not so early in the morning, thank you."—Boston Transcript.

Badly Twisted.
An Irishman and his wife were asleep in bed when the wife thought she heard a noise downstairs, which she imagined was made by burglars, and, awakening her husband, she said, "Wake up, Pat; there are burglars downstairs." So Pat arose and hastily dressed himself, but in his haste he put his trousers on backward. Quickly grabbing a lamp, he started down the stairs; but, owing to the trousers being tight, he stumbled on the first step and fell down the whole flight. His wife heard the racket and went to the top of the stairs. "Are you hurt?" she asked. Pat arose and, feeling himself to ascertain if he was hurt, found the way he wore his trousers. "No, darlin', I'm not hurt in the least. But I'm all turned around entirely. I gave me body the devil's own twist."

Quite Informal.
Arthur Brisbane, editorial writer for Mr. Hearst, has been a great friend of John L. Sullivan, the former heavyweight champion, for many years. When Brisbane was a newspaper writer in London, John L. was given an audience by the late King Edward, then Prince of Wales.

"By George," exclaimed Sullivan to some of his friends, "Brisbane is the leading young journalist of America, and if I meet the Prince of Wales Brisbane does too."

When the little party arrived at the palace for the audience the court attendants nearly had heart failure as John L. introduced Brisbane in those words:

"This is my pal. He's Arthur Brisbane, the leading young journalist of America."

They pointed out that a newspaper man, especially an American of that profession, could not be present at the reception.

"No Brisbane no me!" said Sullivan flatly.

Finally they were admitted, and then it was Brisbane's turn to get heart failure. Sullivan strode up to the Prince of Wales, grasped him by the hand and said in his deep voice:

"Hello, prince! Let me present Arthur Brisbane, the leading young journalist of America."—Popular Magazine.

Two Scotch Stories.
A Scotch schoolmaster in Banffshire years ago had strong views on the subject of dress. In the day when crinolines was the rage a girl came to school with a very extensive one, which much exceeded the space between the desk and the form on which she had to sit. The teacher, seeing this, said to her, "Come over home and take off these crinolines and come back to the school as God made ye."

Another rough and ready domestic was examining his boys in a catechism and asked if God had a beginning.

"No," said the boy. "Will he have an end?" "Yes," he replied. This was followed instantly by a buffet on the side of the head. "Will he have an end now?" "No," said the boy, and the master was satisfied.

Escaped with His Life.
"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure."

Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Not the Answer He Expected.
One of Lord Desborough's best anecdotes relates to a clergyman who was far more at home in the hunting field than in the pulpit, says London Tit-Bits. On the morning of a meet he was much annoyed at having to officiate at a funeral; but, this over, he mounted his horse and started in pursuit of his friends. On the road he sought information of an old woman with a donkey cart.

"Well," she said, "if you ride to the top of the hill you will come to a 'meester.' Then if you turn to the right you will be likely to come up with them."

Handing her a shilling, he said, "My good woman, why did you call the sign post a minister?"

"Why, you see, sir, it's like this: We used to call 'em sign posts, but since you've been in these parts we call 'em meesters, 'cos, though they points other folks the way, they never goes themselves. Go on, Neddy!"

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS
Their action controls your health. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor. Mrs. H. W. Allen, Quincy, Ill., says: "About a year ago my kidneys began bothering me. I had swelling in my ankles and limbs, then headaches and nervous dizziness, and later severe backaches. I was getting worse, when I began taking Foley Kidney Pills. I kept on taking them until I was once more freed from all kidney trouble. For sale by Bandon Drug Co."

Dainty Snails.
The writer who qualified the snail as "foul and unclean" was guilty of a libel. Snails are most dainty feeders and strict vegetarians, as many gardeners know to their cost. Apparently three centuries ago snails were more popular in England than they are now. The fastidious author of "The Faerie Queene" gives a recipe for their preparation: With our sharp weapons we shal thee fray.

And take the castill that thou lovest in: We shal thee flay out of thy foule skin, And in a dish, with onions and peper, We shal thee dresse with strong vyne-gars.

—London Standard.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.
The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back if not satisfied. Only 50c at all druggists.

KIDNEY DISEASES ARE CURABLE

under certain conditions. The right medicine must be taken before the disease has progressed too far. Mr. Perry A. Pitman, Dale, Tex., says: "I was down in bed for four months with kidney and bladder trouble and gall stones. One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy cured me well and sound." Ask for it. For sale by Bandon Drug Co.

Death in Factory Fires.
The question is often debated as to whether persons who lose their lives in a fire developing with great rapidity undergo extreme physical suffering. An authoritative opinion is expressed by the New York Medical Journal, which says: "Unnecessary anguish of mind has probably been felt by relatives of unfortunate workers killed in factory fires by reflection on the supposedly agonizing pain caused by such a death. Where a great bulk of highly inflammable substances is quickly consumed in a closed space the result is the production of large quantities of carbon monoxide. This gas, it is well known, combines with the haemoglobin of the blood to form a compound that refuses to combine with oxygen. The result is a speedy and probably painless asphyxiation before the flames have had a chance to attack the bodies of the victims."

Doing hard work in a bent or stooping position puts a stitch in the back that is painful. If the muscles have become strained, you can't get rid of it without help. The great penetrating power of Ballard's Snow Liniment will appeal to you most strongly at such times, because it is the very thing you need. Price 25c 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

Manuscript Letters Rare.
Manuscripts and holograph letters from living literary celebrities should be hoarded with great care by their recipients. The prospect is that they will grow increasingly rare. Autograph signatures are probably all that the next generation will be able to bid for in the auction rooms and add to its collections.—New York Tribune.

Disinterested Advice.
"I have told my constituents that I regarded myself as a servant of the people," said Senator Sorghum.

"Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel, "but you want to keep people from gettin' an idea that you're one of these servants who are always on the lookout for tips."—Washington Star.

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime, you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. Herbine cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 50c. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

A Weather Prophet.
"Now, Mrs. Brown, I have planned up your new almanac."

"Oh, thank 'ee, miss, thank 'ee, but my corns tell me the weather far better than any of they 'ere almanacs!"—London Opinion.

In the Barnyard.
"Look how queerly that hen is acting. Do you think she is hatching a plot?"

"No; I think she is plotting a batch."—Baltimore American.

Industry keeps the body healthy, the mind clear, the heart whole and the purse full.—Stimmons.

Right in your busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

How Gold Leaf Kills.
The Chinese consul at San Francisco discussed at a dinner his country's customs.

"There is one custom," said a young girl, "that I can't understand, and that is the Chinese custom of committing suicide by eating gold leaf. I can't understand how gold can kill."

"The partaker, no doubt," smiled the consul, "succumbs from a consciousness of inward guilt."—Los Angeles Times.

A Peek Into His Pocket
would show the box of Bucklin's Arnica Salve that E. S. Loper, a carpenter, of Marilla, N. Y., always carries. "I have never had a cut, wound, bruise or sore, it would not soon heal," he writes. Greatest healer of burns, boils, scalds, chapped hands and lips, fever-sores, skin-eruptions, eczema, corns and piles. 25c at all druggists.
