WISDOM FROM SAGES.

Like effects must close in like effects.—Browning.

Before man made us citizens great nature made us men.—Lowell.

The best of prophets of the future is the past.—Byron.

On the approach of spring I withdraw without reluctance from the noisy and extensive scene of crowds without company and dissipation without pleasure.—Edward Gibbon.

That endless book, the newspaper, is our national glory.—Henry Ward Beecher.

The necessities of things are sterner stuff than the hopes of men.—Disraeli.

No nation can be destroyed while it possesses a good home life.—J. G. Holland.

HOW CHILDREN CAN BE KEPT HAPPY AND HEALTHY

Public Playground is All That is Needed to Make Youngsters Rejoice.

We are here showing a fine example of the benefits of a public playground. Look at this picture of the two smiling, curly headed boys. Don't they look healthy? Don't they seem to be enjoying their seesaw very much? Yes; that is just what they are doing. They are "having the time of their lives" in a public playground provided by the generous community.

Now, why can't this community do the same thing? Why can't our children be as happy and healthy as the youngsters in the picture are? Think how useful a public playground would be to the town. The children could have "the time of their lives," and the mothers wouldn't feel so anxious when the children were away, lest harm befall them.

GOOD ADVICE FOR EVERY CITIZEN.

Pull together for general, not individual, welfare.

Seek better and cheaper transportation for customers from nearby towns.

Let the other fellow live, even if you disapprove of him and of his business.

Give young men a chance.

Seek business and trade close at home as well as abroad.

Get into closest possible relations with nearby cities and towns.

Boost your own little old town everywhere and all the time.

WARE THE SOAP SWINDLER.

If You Do Get Caught Help Your Friends and Neighbors Not to Be.

Not long ago a slick tongued fraud calling himself an agent for the "Woodbury Soap company" went through the country taking orders, says the Rural New Yorker.

Ten dollars and a half was the sum asked for the soap, a box of 200 cakes, and twenty-five cakes extra if cash was paid down, and there was a premium of forty yards of axminster carpeting or rugs, furniture, etc., as the housekeeper might require—a very wonderful bargain this, but so wonderful that it is surprising what a large number of persons bit at the bait a stranger threw at them and with the hook showing so plainly, yet they forked over the money asked for the goods, and he delivered to them the twenty-five cakes of soap as extra.

He told his victims that his partner was to follow in a week with a four horse team and deliver the goods, but neither himself nor partner has ever appeared. It is said that he took over $300 in one town alone and skipped many houses, probably fearing telephones, as inquiries might be raised.

This money was taken mostly from farmers, many of them borrowing the money from neighbors or kinsmen, so eager were they to get such a bargain. Such human sharks preying on their kind should be dealt with as the marine ones are.

Why does the rural community continue to invest its hard earned dollars in the schemes of strangers where there isn't even 25 cents of it coming back when there are honest merchants who would be glad to take orders for such goods?

The trouble is that people who get so badly taken in do not, as a rule, expose such rascals and allow their neighbors and the community to get better also when the next "green goods promoter" comes around. People should never allow such things to pass unnoticed. When you get "stripped among thieves" expose them, turn on the light of publicity, and the traveling frauds at least will learn that the highways are too hot for them to travel on and the people are too enlightened to give them an ear. The exposure of such rogues is the duty of every disinterested citizen.

Denver Gives Free Trees.

Denver believes in trees and believes in them so strongly that the city gives them to citizens willing to plant them. Denver recently celebrated what has come to be known there as Municipal Arbor day. It was the sixth annual free distribution of trees by the city. Sixteen thousand large saplings, costing the city 30 cents each, were distributed to 4,000 citizens. Of the 16,000 trees half were maples and half elms.

Escaped with His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Post Harrelson, S. C. "Doctor said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free at all druggists.

O'Connell's Wonderful Oratory.

Daniel O'Connell, the Irish orator, spoke in Covent Garden, London, many years ago, and John Coleman, an old English actor, pictured him as follows: "The audience hung spellbound on the words of the great orator. His resonant and magnificent voice, flavored with its rich Hibernian accent, held both soul and sense captive. As for me, my Celtic blood took fire, my heart throbbled with passionate indignation or melted into tears as he dwelt upon the wrongs of my beloved country. Never, surely, was such a born orator! Stern men cried one moment and laughed the next. Strange to say, they never laughed in the wrong place, though once at least he afforded them a unique opportunity. As he approached the end of his oration, carried away by his theme, he took his wig off a brown 'jazey' put it in his hat and mopped his beautiful bald brow with a great flaming crimson bandanna. The action appeared so natural and appropriate that no one seemed to think it absurd or even incongruous."

Stings or bites of insects that are followed by swellings, pain or itching should be treated promptly as they are poisonous. Ballard's Snow Liniment counteracts the poison. It is both antiseptic and healing. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

Borrowing.

"Did he borrow any money from you?" "Borrow! How can I tell unless he returns it?"—Exchange.

Right in your busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Couldn't Hurt His Brain.

Strickland W. Gillilan says that Sam Jones and "Sunshine Hawks" of Baltimore, the revivalists, were invited to the home of a good brother and sister in the church. At the dinner table it transpired that the sister had had a sinister purpose in issuing the invitation, for she said: "Mr. Jones, I wish you'd tell my husband that smoking is injurious to him. I know it is, but he won't believe it. I wish you'd tell him, and it might have some influence over him."

"No, sister," said Jones, who was himself an inveterate smoker. "I can't tell him that. Smoking injures only the human brain. And he hasn't any brain to injure, or he wouldn't have married you. Now, sister, I came here to eat—that is what I was invited for—not to lecture. So if you'll carve for turkey, give me a piece of the white meat and Hawks a leg we'll be all right." And that husband's gratitude lives yet.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back if not satisfied. Only 50c at all druggists.

Defining a Boundary Line.

In 1847 Rufus Choate appeared in behalf of parties whose rights were affected by the boundary line between Massachusetts and Rhode Island, thus described in the agreement:

"Beginning," etc., "thence to an angle on the easterly side of Watuppa pond, thence across said pond to the two rocks on the westerly side of said pond and near thereto, thence westerly to the buttonwood tree in the village of Fall River."

In his argument, commenting on the boundary, Mr. Choate thus referred to this part of the description: "A boundary line between two sovereign states described by a couple of stones near a pond and a buttonwood sapling in a village! The commissioners might as well have defined it as starting from a blue jay, thence to a swarm of bees in living time and thence to 500 foxes with firebrands tied to their tails."—Minneapolis Journal.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS

Their action controls your health. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor. Mrs. H. W. Allen, Quincy, Ill., says: "About a year ago my kidneys began bothering me. I had swelling in my ankles and limbs, then headaches and nervous dizzy spells, and later severe backaches. I was getting worse, when I began taking Foley Kidney Pills. I kept on taking them until I was once more freed from all kidney trouble. For sale by Bandon Drug Co."

Longest Indian Word.

The longest Indian word on record is the following, that was printed in an Indian Bible in 1661:

Wutappesittukqussunnoohwehtunkquoh.

It signifies "kneeling down to him." When the Rev. Cotton Mather, primitive Boston's Puritan pastor, first saw this consolidated phrase it prompted him to jestingly observe that the words of the language must have been growing ever since the dispersion at Babel.—New York Telegram.

KIDNEY DISEASES ARE CURABLE

under certain conditions. The right medicine must be taken before the disease has progressed too far. Mr. Perry A. Pitman, Dale, Tex., says: "I was down in bed for four months with kidney and bladder trouble and gall stones. One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy cured me well and sound." Ask for it. For sale by Bandon Drug Co.

Proved Himself Great.

With a sigh she laid down the magazine article upon Daniel O'Connell. "The day of great men," she said, "is gone forever." "But the day of beautiful women is not," he responded. She smiled and blushed. "I was only joking," she explained hurriedly.—Western Christian Advocate.

A bad taste in the mouth comes from a disordered stomach, and back of that is usually a torpid liver.—A condition which invites disease. Herbine is the remedy needed. It corrects the stomach and makes the liver active and regular. Price 50c. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

Why does everybody travel on the Stmr. Field? Because it gives the best accommodations and service.—45 U
