

An Unlucky Man.
There lived a man in our town.
Aga he was pretty tough.
He played football and broke his crown
And yet had not enough.
So he had an airplane
Some hundred feet or so
Lifted on a weather-vane
And topped down below.
Alas, his oil tank followed strong;
A racing auto came along
And tossed him to the side.

Attack Like Tigers
In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

Smile.
Take the old world with a grin
If you lose or if you win.
If you're up smile as you go,
Cheer the fellow down below;
If you're down then keep on grinning.
Folks will think you're really winning.
Take the old world with a smile,
If you're up let people know it,
And a smile's the way to show it;
If you're down smile just the same.
That's the way to play the game.

Hay Fever, Asthma and Summer Colds

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram St., Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience.—Bandon Drug Co.

Another Maxim Vindicated.
The young rat, straying carelessly near the mouth of an old well, heard a voice saying:
"There's something good to eat down here. Jump in."
"Who are you?" timidly squeaked the young rat.
"I am Truth," answered the voice.
So the young rat jumped in and was drowned.
Corollary.—Truth, with a reputation for lying at the bottom of a well, sometimes makes good.—Chicago Tribune.

Do not allow your kidney and bladder trouble to develop beyond the reach of medicine. Take Foley's Kidney Pills. They give quick results and stop irregularities with surprising promptness.—Bandon Drug Co.

Long Drawn Out.
Little Elmer had just been given a piece of pie. "Are you going to give me another piece, mamma?" he asked.
"Why do you ask, Elmer?" she queried.
"Cause if you ain't I'll eat this piece real slow," was the reply.—Chicago News.

Unfeeling.
Orator—I ask you, what is this life we lead so dear? Soon I'll be lying with me forefathers. The Voice—An' givin' 'em points at the game foot—London Tit-Bits.

Sallow complexion comes from bilious impurities in the blood and the fault lies with the liver and bowels—they are torpid. The medicine that gives results in such cases is Herbine. It is a fine liver stimulant and bowel regulator. Price 50c. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

Dodged the Ruins.
Mr. Cleverton—You saw some old ruins in England, I suppose? Mrs. Struckett Rich—Yes, and one of them wanted to marry me.—Princeton Tiger

The Dear Girls.

Seemed to Give him a New Stomach
"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Youngpeters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me a surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Grandpa's Chickens.
Dorothy was visiting her grandparents in the suburbs for the first time. Seeing a quantity of feathers scattered about the backyard, she shook her head in disapproval.
"Grandpa," she said gravely, "you really ought to do something to keep your chickens from wearing out so."—Suburban Life.

Accused of Stealing.
E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accused Bucklin's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of all their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c at all druggists.

His Unneighborliness.
My neighbors don't like me, their hatred is deep.
And I hear that they want to annoy
My right to live near. I don't blame them, I keep My lawn mower rusty and dull.
—Chicago News.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

A picnic is a lively prance
For quiet little boys perchance.
When they, alas, sit on the grass
And get their pants chock full of ants.
—Boston Herald
