BAD STREETS A MENACE TO LIVES

Question of Improving Them Is Country Wide.

GOOD SIDEWALKS NEEDED.

Two Men Killed Recently in Passaic, N. J., on Account of Ruts on Thoroughfares—Mud and Water Pools Also Harm Community.

The matter of improving the streets and sidewalks is a problem which every town has always with it, like the poor. No city, town or village has such good sidewalks and streets as to be past the point of improving them. In most places whose citizens boast loudly of the excellence of their street conditions it is quite possible to find some thoroughfares which are neglected woefully.

There is a tendency on the part of officials in almost every city or town to improve certain streets as show places, neglecting others. While, of course, the thoroughfares which are used the most should be kept in the best condition, there is no adequate reason why side streets should be totally neglected.

Sometimes a little foresight in the matter of street improvement will save not only property, but human life. Streets which are rutted by wheels after a heavy rain should be surfaced with solid material that will not be subject to ruts by heavy traffic.

Recently two men were killed in Passaic, N. J., on account of the poor condition of the streets. A fireman and a member of the board of education lost their lives when the fire engine was wrecked. The machine was traveling twenty miles an hour when it struck a deep rut. It wobbled and as a rear wheel caved in swung half-way around, crashing into an iron trolley pole.

Recently a Philadelphia jury made the following report about the condition of streets:

"We recommend that immediate steps be taken to repair the streets, especially those most generally used. Their present condition makes traveling in vehicles of all kinds unsafe as well as uncomfortable in addition to causing discredit upon the city."

"We can make the world a little better each day we live in it if we only work at it."

"RUSHING THE CAN."

How Edison Park, Chicago, Gets Rid of Her Tinware.

Edison Park, Chicago, Ill.—modest, retiring and always discreet—shocked all her sister parks on the northwest side by "rushing the cans." Park Ridge, Irving Park, Jefferson Park, the very nearest neighbors, simply sat back and gaped at the mere vulgar suggestion.

But when they saw how Edison Park was "rushing the cans"—rushing them out of town, but the desolate shores of the Des Plaines river that cut back in their chairs and clapped their hands gleefully.

Good Water Our Greatest Need
It needs no apology to say that one of the greatest needs of any community is a supply of good water, not merely a supply of water, but water that is clean and attractive for drinking and personal use; water that is not only free from the germs of disease, but is beyond the danger of such germs being present; water that is "pure and wholesome," as the courts say, and for which freedom from pollution is a first requisite.

Loss of Time Means Loss of Pay
Kidney trouble and the ills it breeds, means lost time and lost pay to many a working man. M. Balent, 1214 Little Penna St., Sireator, Ill., was so bad from kidney and bladder trouble that he could not work, but he says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills for only a short time and got entirely well and was soon able to go back to work, and am feeling well and healthier than before." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results—a good friend to the working man or woman who suffers from kidney ills.—Bandon Drug Co.

Gilbert's Famous Doors.
The world renowned doors of the baptistry at Florence represent nearly the entire lifework of Gilbert. He began the first pair when he was twenty-three years old, and when he finished the second pair he was seventy-three. Excepting the three statues outside Or San Michele and one or two minor works, these two pairs of bronze doors represent his labors for half a century. These doors, declared by Michelangelo "fit to be the gates of paradise," represent the book of Genesis in all the depth of its meaning, and the skill of the artist has never been overpraised. It is impossible to exaggerate the glory of the work, and if one has the time and money the sight of these wonderful doors is well worth the trip to Florence.—New York American.

Thirty Years Together.
Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there is no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. Its the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

"Who was that man who just went out?"
"That was a magazine scout."
"Eh! What did he want?"
"He's working up an article which will prove that the grandfathers of plutocrats are usually undetected criminals."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Take off that dead bird's plumage now. Oh, easily in our alley! And deck the hat that shades thy brow with blues of the valley. —Chicago Tribune.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

"If you were a little wiser, you'd be a little better off." —Judge.

Mary had a little shoe, Correct from tip to toe. And every time that fashion went That shoe was sure to go. —Judge.

set the world talking; but Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he always keeps at home the king of all laxatives—Dr. King's New Life Pills—and that they're a blessing to all his family. Cure constipation, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia. Only 25c at all druggists.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an anti-septic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.
