The Scrap Book

Still in Suspense.

Private Donahue and Private Leahy were the best friends, but when Private Donahue became Sergeant Donahue, Private Leahy saw the fallings of his former companion with amazing clearness.

"Sergeant," he said one day after long fixed gazing at his superior in rank, "if a private stepped up to a sergeant and called him a consorted lit the monkey, what wud happen?"

"He'd be put in the yardhouse," said the sergeant.

"He wud?"

"But if the private only knew the sergeant was a consorted little monkey and said niver a wurd wud he be put in the yardhouse for that?" inquired Private Leahy.

"Av coghe he wud not," said the sergeant loftly.

"Well, thin, for the present we'll have it go at that," said Private Leahy.

A Beautiful Hope For You.

Every day is a new beginning. Every morn in the world made new. Ye who are weary of sorrow and sinning. Here is a beautiful hope for you. A hope for me and a hope for you.

All the past things are past and over. The tasks are done, and the tears are shed. Yesterday's errors let yesterday cover. Yesterday's wounds which smarted and bled.

Are healed with the healing which nigh bath shed. Every day is a fresh beginning. Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain. And spite of old sorrow and older sinning. And puzzling forecast and possible pain. Take heart with the day and begin again.

Only the new days are our own. Today is ours, and today alone. —Susan Coolidge.

The Doctor's Twins.

An Irish doctor while enjoying a holiday in the country took the opportunity, along with a friend, to go fishing. During operations the doctor's sinker came off and was lost. Here was a dilemma—no sinker, no more fishing that day. Happy thought—he had a bottle in his pocket. The bottle was filled with water, carefully corked and sent down on its mission.

After a few minutes' interval the doctor had a bite and pulled up his line at racing speed, finding a fine pair of fish, one on each hook.

"Ha, doctor, twins this time," exclaimed his companion.

"Yes," quoth the doctor, "and brought up on the bottle too."

Changed His Mind.

When Representative Brown was practicing law at Newton he fell out with the district judge over some trivial matter. One day the court wanted him as a witness in a case and sent the sheriff after him.

"Just tell the judge to go to —," said Brown when the sheriff told him to come to court.

"All right," said the sheriff. The latter wheeled around and started toward the courthouse. Brown turned and looked at him. The longer he looked the more convinced was he he had made a mistake. So he started after the sheriff. But the sheriff was too fast for him and reached the court room unmolested.

"May I please the court," said the sheriff, "Mr. Brown told me to tell the court to go to —."

Just then Brown rushed through the door to the courtroom, and before anything could be said or done by the judge Brown remarked:

"May I please your honor, I have changed my mind. You needn't go till testify."

The incident caused so much merriment that the stand old judge forgot the insult and ordered Brown to the witness stand to testify.—Kansas City Journal.

The Lawyer's Business.

A Scotsman got himself into some legal difficulty and went to consult a solicitor. After he had heard his client's story the solicitor was still a doubtful whether he had got all the facts.

"Now are you sure you're to tell me the whole truth?" he asked.

"Ay, ay, ay," was the reply. "I've told ye the bare truth. I thought ye'd be better able to put in the lies yersel'."

Queer Handshakes.

Joseph Jefferson and Wilton Lackaye were one season in the same company. It was the custom of Mr. Jefferson to take curtain calls and make a speech to the audience. He liked it, the audience liked it, and everybody but Lackaye liked it. Lackaye contended that no actor should step out of his part and make a curtain speech.

One night Mr. Jefferson made his speech and afterward happened to pass Lackaye as he was going to his dressing rooms.

"Well, Wilton," Jefferson said, "how did I do tonight?"

"Oh," Lackaye replied, "it was the same old story. You went out there and made the usual blunder."

"Blunder?" Jefferson exclaimed.

"What blunder did I make?"

"Why," Lackaye replied, "you said as I look into your faces I feel that I should like to shake hands with each and every one."

"What's wrong with that?" Jefferson demanded.

"Wrong with it?" Lackaye retorted. "It's absurd. John Drew's face is the only one I ever saw that you could shake hands with."—Saturday Evening Post.

Attack Like Tigers

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif. "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strengthen nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

United States Gets Basque Shepherds.

One hundred and fifty Basques—the first to come to the United States in ten years—have settled in Montana, Oregon and Idaho to engage in the care of sheep and raising of grapes. A few Basques are already scattered over this country, and practically all of them are as good citizens as can be found.

There are half a hundred of them in Colorado, and they are the best sheep herders who ever came to this country.

There is quite an old colony of them in Nevada, and they are all rich. The Basques come from the northernmost province of Spain.

The Basques Americanize quicker than some of the peoples of central and northern Europe because they are more eager to learn the English language. They are supposed to be descended from the aboriginal population of the region from whence they come and to have less admixture of other blood than any race in all Europe.—Denver Field and Farm.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there is no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. Its the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

A Man's Stride.

It has been estimated that the average length of a man's stride is thirty-one and one-half inches and that the distance an average traveler can cover at this rate is 1.158 yards an hour or 119 yards a minute. The number of strides would be 1,500 an hour or 125 a minute. The length of the stride in the various armies is as follows: United States, 30 inches; German, 31½ inches; Austrian, 29½ inches; Italian, 29½; French, 29½; British, 30 inches.

Steel Pens.

Steel pens were first produced in 1803 in England. The retail price for one at that time was half a crown (about 60 cents).

Seemed to Give him a New Stomach

"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Youngpeters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablet gave me a surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Loss of Time Means Loss of Pay.

Kidney trouble and the ills it breeds means lost time and lost pay to many a working man. M. Balent, 1214 Little Penna St., Streator, Ill., was so bad from kidney and bladder trouble that he could not work, but he says: I took Foley Kidney Pills for only a short time and got entirely well and was soon able to go back to work, and am feeling well and healthier than before." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results—a good friend to the working man or woman who suffers from kidney ills.—Bandon Drug Co.

Lofty Valley.

The "valley" of Mexico is 7,500 feet above the sea level.

An Old Superstition.

An old superstition prescribed that if those who were affected with ague would visit at dead of night the nearest crossroad five different times and then bury a new laid egg the disease would be buried. If the experiment failed they attributed it to some unlucky accident that may have befallen them on the way.

If you sit in a cool draft when you are heated and get a stiff neck or lame back, you will be looking for something that will ease the pain. Fix your mind on Ballard's Snow Liniment and don't be talked out of it because it is the best pain relieving liniment you can get any where. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

A Giant Soldier.

A Hungarian foot soldier of the Archduke Ferdinand attained the stature of eleven feet. His portrait was in the Ambrosian cabinet at Vienna.

Lived Over a Century and a Quarter.

The Newport Mercury, which was founded by Benjamin Franklin's brother James, of April 24, 1783, contained a notice of the death of Daniel Cullen, who had attained the age of 128 years.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Catskill.

Catskill was originally applied to the river by the Dutch, who afterward transferred the name to the mountains. It was originally spelled Katskill, which, translated, is "panther creek." From the numerous panthers or lynxes centric animals that formerly infested those lofty hills.

A well known Des Moines woman after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Vineyards of Champagne.

The vineyards in Champagne comprise only 20,000 acres, yet they are divided among and cultivated by more than 17,000 proprietors. Many of these do not possess more than an acre, but the land is so valuable that even such a small vineyard affords a good livelihood to the proprietor, his wife and his family.

Do not allow your kidney and bladder trouble to develop beyond the reach of medicine. Take Foley Kidney Pills. They give quick results and stop irregularities with surprising promptness.—Bandon Drug Co.

White Lead.

White lead, the basis of paint, was first used by the Dutch, and it was not until the end of the eighteenth century that it was adopted by the English. In 1815 it began to be used in the United States.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel ailments. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Stone Cutting Tools.

Mention of stone cutting tools dates back to 1491 B. C.

A Dwarf Artist.

Charles L. English, king, honored with his presence the marriage of Richard Gibson and Anne Shipper, each of whom measured three feet ten inches. Gibson rose to celebrity as a painter.

Foley Kidney Pills will check the progress of your kidney and bladder trouble and heal by removing the cause. Try them. Bandon Drug Co.
