A good story is told of a teacher in a certain town who told her pupils the story of the landing of the pilgrims, and then asked each of them to try to draw, from imagination, a picture of Plymouth Rock. All went to work but one little fellow, who hesitated and finally asked, "Please teacher do you want us to draw a hen or a rooster?"

FOR SALE—New modern 6 room bungalow with concrete basement and floor. Will sell cheap. Cash or terms. H. Schrieber. 98 tf

The Coquille Sentinel contest for new subscribers has closed, and as usual in these contests, there is dissatisfaction over the result and a charge of "running a skin game." The probabilities are that the contest was run wholly on the square, but it is next to impossible to make the public see it that way. In fact this writer was never very enthusiastic over contests as we think it a poor way to get subscribers and is seldom, if ever, a paying proposition.

ESTRAYED—Team of dark bay horses, weight about 1000 pounds each, 10 years old, one in good condition with saddle marks, the other not so fat, with white star in forehead, both shod all around. Any one knowing whereabouts of horses, please notify W. C. Sanford, Bandon, Ore. Reward. 101-12
