William Penn.
William Penn was arrested in England Aug. 14, 1700, for preaching to Friends. He was tried Sept. 3 and acquitted, the jury being outrageously abused because of its verdict.

His Senate Salary.

The Hon. John Jay Crittenden of Kentucky in December, 1819, resigned his seat in the United States senate at $800 a year "to get bread for his family."

Babies' Eyes.

All infants at birth have blue eyes. In some babies immediately after birth pigment granules begin to develop in the iris. Thus they become brown or black eyed. In others, however, no such pigment formation takes place and the eyes remain blue or gray throughout life.

The Trojan War.

The Trojan war, which was a siege lasting from 1193 B. C. to 1184 B. C., resulted in the invasion of Troy by the Greeks.

Scared by Dogwood Trees.

While a British army was marching against Washington's camp, expecting to find a small force, the redcoat scouts mistook for tents a hill of blooming dogwood trees and returned with the report that the patriot army was so large that its tents whitened the hills. This caused the British to retreat.

Diamond Cutting.

Before a diamond has been dressed it passes through the hands of a cleaver, turner, cutter, sawyer and polisher.

Checking the Population.

To check the growth of population beyond the means of subsistence rewards were offered by the Chinese government in 1730 to certain classes of people who remained single.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County

Olaf Fiskaa, Plaintiff,

vs.

Kaia Fiskaa, Defendant.

To Kaia Fiskaa, The above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon:

You are hereby required to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in the above entitled court on or before the 13th day of February, A. D., 1912, and if you fail so to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the said complaint for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in his said complaint which is substantially, 1st: For a decree of the court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the said plaintiff and the defendant, and for a divorce therefrom; 2nd: For such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by order of the Hon. John S. Coke, Judge of the aforesaid Circuit Court, duly made and entered of record on the 28th day of December, A. D., 1911, which said order directed that said summons be published once a week for six weeks consecutively in the Bandon Recorder, a semi-weekly newspaper of general circulation published in Bandon, Coos county, Oregon, and that said summons requires you to appear and answer said complaint on or before the 13th day of February, 1912, which is the last day of the time prescribed in said order for the publication of said summons.

The date of the first publication thereof is January 2, 1911, and the date of the last publication is February 13, 1912.

A New Use.

Quite a novel method of announcing an engagement was that employed by a clever young lady in the west. She telegraphed a girl friend in Boston: "Solomon, six, three."

Looking up that chapter and verse the friend replied: "I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine." Boston Transcript.

The Bojars of Russia.

Bojars held exclusively the highest military and civic offices in Russia and were so universally looked up to by the mass of the people that the most powerful rulers, even Ivan the Cruel, considered it prudent to use this form of expression in their ultimatums: "The emperor has ordered it; the Bojars have approved it."—New York Telegram.
