Terrible Loss Involved by War

Dear Ones at Home Suffer Most

By the Most Rev. JAMES GIBBONS.

Roman Catholic Cardinal of Baltimore

© Underwood & Underwood.

LET us cherish the hope that the day is not far off when the REIGN OF THE PRINCE OF PEACE will be firmly established on the earth; when the spirit of the gospel will so far sway the minds and hearts of rulers that standing armies will yield to PERMANENT COURTS OF ARBITRATION; that contests will be carried on in the council chambers instead of on the battlefield and decided by the pen instead of the sword.

IF WE DO NOT INSIST THAT BEFORE MEN GO TO WAR THEY SHALL DO EVERYTHING IN THEIR POWER TO SETTLE THEIR DISPUTE BY ARBITRATION, THEN MIGHT BECOMES RIGHT.

The truth is that the most frightful sufferings of war are borne by the WIVES AND CHILDREN of those who fight in the field. The bitter agony of their waiting and anxiety is far worse than the mere physical hardships and sufferings of the armed men. A wound to the loved one in battle strikes MORE CRUELLY those who have to wait at home.

PHYSICAL SUFFERING USUALLY DISSIPATES THE FEAR OF DEATH. MEN CAN SUFFER AND DIE BRAVELY IN THE EXCITEMENT OF WAR, BUT HARDER, MUCH HARDER, TO BEAR IS THE MORAL AGONY OF THOSE WHO MUST WAIT, WITHOUT POWER TO HELP THEIR DEAR ONES IN DANGER.

Men will not fight if they have time to grow cool. Nations will not fight if they have time to think. The penalties and degradations of war are too great, the agonies of the weak and helpless, the aged and other noncombatants are too horrible, the waste of wealth, the destruction of industry and commerce, are too VAST to be endured when there is a WAY TO PEACE.

THE HUMAN BRAIN.

Scientists Claim It is Distributed All Over the Body.

Once it was believed that the gray matter of the brain was confined with in the skull. Now physicians and other students of physiology tell us that this same "gray" matter is found in other parts of the body—for instance, in the tips of the fingers of the blind, where the thinking has been consciously much exercised. One physician tells us there is little brain in the throat, and it often seems to be an independent thinking organ. An operator on the throat must become a friend and confidant of that little brain or his operation will not be successful. The little brain has a memory, and if the operator's hand has slipped and misused that throat the brain in the head may consent to the operation and desire it, but that little throat brain will resist even if it be months after the mistake, and if the operator persists the patient may be thrown into convulsions, such is the memory of that little brain.

And what has been discovered in the throat and in the finger tips will yet be discovered throughout the whole body, because we will consciously think in every part. At present much of the thinking is involuntary, not with the co-operation of the eye or central consciousness, but self knowledge brings you where you co-operate with yourself, and there are harmony and unity in all the activities of the body because of confidence throughout in the master of it.

The cells of your body can be seen as little selves or people, forming a government over which you exercise good rule by becoming acquainted with your people, educating public sentiment in noble thinking, putting away internal strife, hatred and other forms of inharmonious. Certain persons suffer because they have hatred and despised parts and functions of their bodies. Hatred withers, paralyzes and congests. No one can do his best under disapproval—seek out a way to think kindly, generously, truly of yourself.—Detroit Free Press.

MORBID BLUSHING.

A Terrible Affliction That May Be Helped by Convex Glasses.

The essential cause of morbid blushing is a morbid temperament, says Dr. H. Campbell, M. R. C. P., in the Practitioner. A normal person may blush, but he is not greatly disturbed by it. He may be disconcerted for the time; but the storm over, he soon forgets all about it. The morbid blusher, on the other hand, suffers mental torture.

The blush throws him into a state of panic such as in the normal person can only be excited by some desperate experience. The anguish is so great that he lives in constant dread of being exposed to the conditions which excite it. This dread colors his entire life. He wakes up with it; he falls asleep with it. It haunts his dreams.

Morbid blushing is, in truth, a terrible affliction. In its severe forms, Dr. Campbell says, it always calls up thoughts of suicide and not infrequently actually prompts it.

The female sex is more apt to blush than the male sex, although more men than women seek medical help for morbid blushing. Those who suffer from the complaint may gain some confidence by using strong convex glasses. The artificial myopia thus induced by blurring the surroundings tends to diminish self consciousness.

In other words, distort the faces of people by means of spectacles and it will not matter to you how they look at you, for you will not notice them.

Russia's Parquetry Floors. Most flooring put down in Russia is parquetry, and it is generally oak. Even in the unpretentious houses and flat buildings this parquetry is to be found. In some cases, of course, the finish is not so fine as in others, and in ordinary buildings the designs are not so elaborate. One of the most noticeable features of a Russian house is that rugs and carpets are used for wall decorations instead of floor coverings. Floor polishing by professionals, who come regularly once every week or ten days, is considered a part of the regular routine of running a house.—Detroit Free Press.

Churchyard Yew Trees. One reason given why very old yew trees are so often found in country churchyards is that originally these trees were planted to supply the peasants with wood for their bows, for in lawless times it was soon discovered that the only place where trees would be safe from nightly marauders was the churchyard, where the most hardoned thief dared not venture between darkness and dawn.—London Mail.

A Philosopher. "My! You wanted fried potatoes, didn't you?" said the careless waitress as the customer in the restaurant finished his meal and rose to leave.

"That's all right," answered the patient man. "I've wanted so many things all my life that I didn't get 'em used to it."—Newark News.

Social Parasite. "You needn't brag about your social connections if you do belong to an Historic family. Don't you want for a living?" "I work! How do I work?" "Everybody you can."—Baltimore American.

An Exception. "They say that lightning never strikes twice in the same place." "Doesn't it? I know a woman who's been married for her money three times"—Detroit Free Press.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health Is not for those suffering from kidney ailments and irregularities. The prompt use of Foley Kidney Pills will dispel backache and rheumatism, heal and strengthen sore, weak and ailing kidneys, restore normal action and with it health and strength. Mrs. M. F. Spalsbury, Sterling, Ill., says, "I suffered great pain in my back and kidneys, could not sleep at night, and could not raise my hand over my head. But two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me." For sale by Bandon Drug Co.

Procrastination. In describing the daily life of a certain distinguished citizen of the republic a writer in the Review of Reviews gives by way of contrast the story that follows:

This calls to mind an English humorous writer who sketched out his daily program as follows: Rise at noon, breakfast at 1, a stroll to the club, attention to mail, some afternoon calls, a ride in the park, dinner, a round of evening parties and then to bed.

"But when do you do your literary work?" he was asked.

"Why, the next day, of course," was the reply.

As a Critic Saw Browning. "There was marked vulgarity about Browning, particularly in his accent and in the tone of his voice and a certain indescribable savor of sycophancy of a man eager to be of a grade to which he did not belong, but the poet was there—the poet's keen eye, the poet's heart, obvious in his remarks and descriptions.—Memoirs of John Churton Collins.

Typewriters Given Away.

The Emerson Typewriter Co. of Woodstock, Ill., have recently given away over 400 of the highest grade, wholly visible Emerson Typewriters made in the world. They have gone into every state and territory in the United States. There may be some in your town. They are giving them away everywhere to men, women, boys and girls, over 18 years of age, on surprisingly liberal conditions.

If you could make any use of a $100.00 typewriter, providing it did not cost you even one cent, then in a letter or on a postal card addressed to Frank L. Wilder, President, Woodstock, Ill., simply say, "Mail me all your Free Offers," and by return mail you will receive their Free Offers, the names of over 400 who have recently received typewriters free, and you will learn what easy conditions you can get one of their typewriters, free, right away.

The Emerson Typewriter is one of the highest grade, wholly visible typewriters made in the world. Many who have used the "Emerson" and other makes pronounce the "Emerson" superior to any $100.00 typewriter on the market. It is a wholly visible machine has every new, up-to-date feature, looks like other high grade $100.00 typewriters, though it sells regularly for less and on terms of $1.00 down and to cents a day until paid for. The "Emerson" has every new improvement, universal keyboard, back spacer, tabulator, two-color ribbon, everything the best; is the ideal machine for beginners as well as for the most expert typists and stenographers; just the typewriter for the smallest or largest office.

If you could possibly make any use of a high grade typewriter, even though it didn't cost you one cent of money, then be sure, on a postal card or in a letter addressed to "Frank L. Wilder, President, Woodstock, Ill.," say "Mail me your Free Offers." 8 110
