GRIEF.

Time cures our griefs.—Latin Proverb.

He conquers grief who can take a firm resolution.—Goethe

Every one can master a grief but he that has it.—Shakespeare.

She grieves sincerely who grieves when unseen.—Martini.

Some of your grief you have cured.

And the sharpest you still have survived.

But what torments of pain you endured

From evils that never arrived!

—Emerson.

Almost a Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent result." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Twisted.

Hicks—I hear that Brown's speech at the club dinner last night was quite funny. Wicks—The opening sentence was—very! He rose and said, "While I was sitting on my thought a chair struck me." Everybody roared.—Boston Transcript.

Company.

A crowd is not company. Faces are but a gallery of pictures where there is no love, and talk but a tinkling cymbal.—Francis Bacon.

When men are pure, laws are useless; when men are corrupt, laws are broken.—Disraeli.

The Danger After Grip.

lies often in a run down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Penalty of Initials.

"It has been my observation," said the pretty girl, "that the greatest difficulty a girl experiences at a coeducational college is disposing of the quantities of shaving soap sent her by manufacturers who copied the names of the entire student body from lists where boys and girls alike are registered by their initials and distributed his samples of soap impartially with the request that the recipient write a testimonial to the effect that it is the best shaving soap she ever used."—Philadelphia Ledger.

It Looks Like a Crime.

to separate a boy from a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. His pimples, boils, scratches, knocks, sprains and bruises demand it and its quick relief for burns, scalds, or cuts is his right. Keep it handy for boys also for girls. Heals everything healable and does it quick. Unequaled for piles. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

Pretty Dirty.

Once a year the newsboys of London are given an outing some place on the Thames river where they can swim to their hearts' content. As one little boy was getting into the water his little friend said:

"Johnnie, you're pretty dirty!" "Yes," replied Johnnie. "I missed the train last year."—Success Magazine.

Puts End to Bad Habit.

Things never look bright to one with "the blues." Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try them. Let the joy of better feelings end the "blues." Best for stomach, liver and kidneys. 25c at all druggists.
