PRAYER BEFORE PLANTING TREES.

Lord, we are setting in this chosen ground
 These tender nurslings, trusting in thy grace
 To cherish them through infancy, to guide
 Their tiny rootlets through the darksome earth,
 To lift their boughs to heaven and give them power
 To yield their tribute unto grateful men
 In fruit or flower or shade, for who but thou,
 And thou alone, O God, amidst the gloom
 Of never ending night beneath the sod,
 Can weave the network of those fragile roots
 And make their long antennae feel the way
 To nooks of moisture and fertility?
 And who but thou can pilot up the stem
 The warm, sweet sap, like green blood making glad
 The veinlets of the utmost little twig?
 And who but thou, O Lord, in mystic wise,
 With alchemy divine, can from the earth,
 This sordid earth, extract pure essences
 To paint the cheeks of blossoms, scent their breath,
 To swell the fruits with lusciousness and make
 The leafy boughs one mass of heavenly green
 Haunts for the song birds, cool retreats for men?
 —Walter Malone in Scribner's Magazine.

MUSIC.

When I hear music I fear no danger. I am invulnerable. I see no foe. I am related to the earliest times and to the latest.
 —Thoreau.

Just as gymnastic exercise is necessary to keep the body healthy, so is musical exercise necessary to keep the soul healthy. The proper nourishment of the intellect and passions can no more take place without music than the proper functions of the stomach and the blood without exercise.—Plato.

OBEDIENCE.

We mustn't be in a hurry to fix and choose our own lot. We must wait to be guided. We are led on like the little children by a way that we know not. It is a vain thought to flee from the work that God appoints us for the sake of finding a greater blessing to our own souls, as if we could choose for ourselves where we shall find the fullness of the divine presence instead of seeking it where alone it is to be found, in loving obedience.—George Eliot.

BOOKS.

God be thanked for books. They are the voices of the distant and the dead and make us heirs of the spiritual life of past ages. Books are the true levelers. They give to all who will faithfully use them the society, the spiritual presence of the best and greatest of our race. No matter how poor I am, no matter how the prosperous of my own time will not enter my obscure dwelling. If the sacred writers will enter and take up their abode under my roof, if Milton will cross my threshold to sing to me of paradise, and Shakespeare to open to me the worlds of imagination and the workings of the human heart, and Franklin to enrich me with his practical wisdom, I shall not pine for want of intellectual companionship, and I may become a cultivated man, though excluded from what is called the best society in the place where I live.—Channing.
