One of the most effective ways for local merchants to oppose encroachments of mail order houses is to advertise liberally in the home paper. Too many merchants sleep on their oars while the catalog house comes in and takes a large portion of their trade. They demur at undertaking anything like a thorough system of advertising, contending that the drift to the mail order houses is bound to come; and yet they make free complaint over the inroads of the mail-order houses into their particular trade. The fact of the matter is, the trade belongs rightfully to them and would come to them if they were progressive enough in inviting it with good, live advertising.

The Very Good Man.

Towne—I don't see why Goodley should be so unpopular with all of you. He never speaks ill of any one. Browne—No, but he's one of those aggravating fellows who can say, "Oh, yes, Jones looked very happy when I saw him last," and say it in such a way as to give the impression that Jones was horribly drunk.—Catholic Standard and Times.

What Did She Mean?

He—Won't you miss me when I'm far away? She—No; I shall always think of you as very close!

Mail Carriers Will Fly.

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection its unequalled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Hard to Forget Sometimes.

"I always make it a practice to let tomorrow take care of itself."
"That's easy enough, but it's forgetting yesterday that causes trouble for so many of us."—Chicago Record-Herald.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. Its a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Considerate.

Business Man—You tell me I am hurting myself sitting so long at my desk, but I can't make any money if I don't. Doctor—Have you enough to pay me? Business Man—Yes, Doctor—Then stop.—New York Weekly.
