Surveys at the mouth of the Columbia river show that the entrance is growing deeper. The area of deep water is growing, apparently through the action of the river current, which, directed by the jetty, is scouring out the channel to a greater depth. Steadily improved conditions are looked for at the mouth of the river, particularly as work on the north jetty progresses. Do you need a lamp, bell or other bicycle supplies? If so, see S. D. Barrows, the bicycle man. 58-tf
