

On a Foundation of Good Hay

and feed your horse will do more work and do it more willingly. It is poor policy to give a horse poor feed and then expect him to do good work. The kind of hay, feed and grain we sell puts muscle on the horse. Give him enough of it and he'll do twice the work and look twice as well. Why not start the improvement to-day.

Persian Way of Eating Watermelon.

"The ordinary Persian bill of fare sounds something like the banquets described in fairy tales," said a man who has spent some time in the orient. "While traveling in that country I found that the best overture to a way-side repast is a watermelon, not cut in slices, as is done in this country, but eaten like an egg, one end being cut off and the contents eaten with a wooden spoon, the rosente fluid trickling all the time to the bottom and affording a fragrant drink when the first course is over."

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50cts at all druggists.

The Storting.

Norway's legislative body is known as the storting, which means the "great court" and should be pronounced to rhyme with "courting." The second part of the word is identical with the English word "thing," as the Scandinavian languages, in common with Anglo-Saxon, have the same word for "thing" and "council." In modern English a trace of the second sense survives in the word "hustings," which came to mean the public platform upon which a candidate appeared at election time, though originally the "husting" was the council at which the candidate was elected, the "house thing" or house council.

The Trials of a Traveler.

"I am a travelling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. Berkshire, Vt. "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy." For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

YOUR STANDARD

Henry Ward Beecher said "Hold yourself responsible for a higher standard of thought, word and action than anybody else expects of you. Never excuse yourself to yourself. Never pity yourself. Be a hard master to yourself—and lenient to everybody else."

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

JOYS OF LIFE.

"Along all our pathways sweet flowers are blossoming if we will only stop to pluck them and smell their fragrance. In every meadow birds are warbling, calling to their mates and soaring into the blue, if we will only stop our grumbling long enough to hear them."

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Unwilling Police.

Civilian policemen were the only ones possessed by Glasgow at one time. In the eighteenth century, according to H. G. Graham, "the whole safety and order of Glasgow were entrusted to the unpaid and reluctant burghers. Every citizen who was between the years of eighteen and sixty and paid a yearly rent amounting to £3 had to take his turn at guarding the city. On touch of drum the gentleman was at his post by 10 at night and strolled with weary tread and yawning gait along the Trognate and High street and up the pitch dark lanes of winter nights till 4 in the morning. After that hour the city was without a police."—London Chronicle
