to let the horse decide as to the character of our feed. Order a supply and give him enough to permit a proper decision. You'll be amazed at the eagerness with which he will commence the job of judging and the reluctance with which he sees the bottom of the feed box or nose bag.

TRUE WORTH.

Honor and shame from no condition rise. Act well your part; there all the honor lies. Fortune to men has some small difference made—One tannin in rags, one flutters in brocade. The cobbler aproned and the parson gowned. The friar hooded and the monarch crowned. "What differ more," you cry, "than crown and cowl?" I'll tell you, friend—a wise man and a fool. You'll find, if once the monarch acts the monk Or, cobbler-like, the parson will be drunk. Worth makes the man and want of it the fellow. The rest is all but leather or prunello. —Pope.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its tolly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50cts at all druggists.

Sea Level and Tides at Panama.

The average sea level of the Pacific ocean and the Caribbean sea, at opposite sides of the isthmus of Panama, is the same. This is the mean or average levels of the two waters during all days of the year. But there is a great difference in tides. The Caribbean tides are faint, rarely exceeding two feet, while the tides in the Pacific at Panama are not pacific, for they at times rise ten feet and sink ten feet below normal undisturbed sea level. Without tide locks, currents would alternately rush in the canal from south to north entering, and from north to south escaping.—New York American

Are Ever at War.

There are two things everlastingly at war, joy and piles. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve will banish piles in any form. It soon subdues the itching, irritation, inflammation or swelling. It gives comfort, invites joy. Greatest healer of burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises, eczema, scalds, pimples, skin eruptions. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

Young America.

"You may be president some day, my boy," said the patronizing old gentleman.

"Great Scott!" replied the sadly flippant youth. "You're not trying to pick dark horses that far ahead, are you?"—Washington Star.

Knows Better Now.

Teacher—Tommy, you should have known better than to fight with that Williams boy, Tommy—I know, ma'am, but I thought I could lick him.—Hearth and Home.

The Trials of a Traveler.

"I am a travelling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. Berkshire, Vt. "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr. Kings New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy." For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

A Political Pointer.

"A president has to eat a good deal these times."
"What do you mean?"
"The chief executive has to attend a great many banquets and the like."
"Seems so. What about it?"
"I was just thinking that the next president ought to recognize the growing importance of this social side of the job and appoint an addition to the cabinet in the shape of a toastmaster general."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Real Progress.

"How is father getting on with his riding lessons?"
"Very well. We children are allowed to watch him now."—Fliegende Blätter.

The safest way of not being very miserable is not to expect to be very happy.—Schopenhauer.
