Patents.
Application for a patent must be made in writing to the commissioner of patents at Washington. The applicant must also file in the patent office a written description of the invention or discovery and of the manner and process of making it in such full, clear, concise and exact terms as to enable those skilled in the arts and sciences to which it appertains, or with which it is most nearly concerned, to construct and use the same. When the nature of the case admits of drawings the applicant must furnish them of the required size. In all cases which admit of representation by model the applicant if required by the patent office must furnish a model.

Saved by His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. J. R. Flint, Brain-tree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for colds and coughs, it is the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Linnaeus and His Works.

How much sleep do men need? Jeremy Taylor was content with three hours. Bismarck and Gladstone needed eight, but Goethe, Napoleon, Mirabeau and Humboldt professed that they could get along very well with less. Linnaeus, the naturalist, was one of those who robbed themselves of sleep during their earlier years and made up for it later in life. In his wakeful periods during his old age he would retire to his library, take down one of his own works and read it with a sigh of regret. "How very fine," he would murmur, "What would I not have given to be able to write a book like this!"

A Log on the Track of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesseheimer, of Lincoln Neb., had been sick over three years but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cts at all druggists.

Observation.

An observant man in all his intercourse with society and the world constantly and unperceived marks on every person and thing the figure expressive of its value and therefore on meeting that person or thing knows instantly what kind and degree of attention to give it. This is to make something of experience.—John Foster.

Saves Leg of Boy.

"It seemed that my 14-year old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote F. D. Howard, Aquone, N. C. "All remedies and doctors treatment failed until we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles. 25c at all druggists.

On and Off.

Mrs. Hightone—You are having trouble with your cooks? Mrs. Flashly—The first one carried on so. Mrs. Hightone—And how about the last? Mrs. Flashly—She carried off so. I lost two dresses and a hat.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying, "her face is her fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at all druggists.

Its Kind.

"Yes, my son."
"Then, pa, would you call the people of Venice a floating population?"—Baltimore American.

First Printing Press.
The first printing press in the eastern settlement of America was set up in 1638. In the summer of that year a ship bearing a printing press, a printer and three pressmen arrived on the shores of New England, the printer being Stephen Daye. In the same year the press was set up at Cambridge. One of the earliest and perhaps the most celebrated of the issues was "The Bay Psalm Book." It is interesting to know that the actual press is still preserved. After various wanderings in Boston, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont it was found in Windsor county and presented to the Vermont Historical society.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., and consider it the best on the market." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Where the Danger Lay.

An English clergyman says that when he came to a certain place as vicar he asked whether there were any sick to be visited.
"Oh, no, sir?" was the answer. "Nobody is ever ill in Berrygarbor. There is an old man, to be sure, over ninety, who has taken lately to his bed, but there hasn't much the matter with him that I know of."
"I thought to myself," added the vicar, "of the story of the Scotchman who said to his doctor:
"Ye pu' a verra long face, doctor. D'ye think I'm dangerously ill?"
"Na, na," was the reply. "I don't think ye're dangerously ill, but I think ye're dangerously old!"

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Cold Blooded Betting.

The extreme callousness of the old English gamblers—or gentlemen, as they were then called—is illustrated by the following account which Horace Walpole, the celebrated letter writer, gives of a curious occurrence at White's coffee house in London. In one of his epistles to Sir Horace Mann, under date of Sept. 1, 1759, he says: "They have put into the papers a good story, made at White's. A man dropped down dead at the door and was carried in. The club immediately made bets whether he was dead or not, and when they were going to bleed him the wagers for his death interposed and said it would affect the fairness of the bet, and they stopped their efforts."

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.
