

THE FINISHING TOUCH

SABRO BROS., Manufacturing Jewelers
Bandon, Oregon.

to a woman's toilet is the jewel she fastens to her bosom. We pay particular attention to this branch of our jewelry business, and our display of brooches, pins, chatelaines, lockets, etc., is especially large and unusually attractive and novel. See it by all means. It contains many splendid gift suggestions. Watch our window display.

Local Lore

E. M. Callier who has been on the sick list for some time is able to be out again, which is very gratifying to his many friends in the city.

R. M. Pressey, one of Bandon's prominent dairymen, visited Coquille this week and looked over J. C. Watson's herd of blooded cattle with a view of placing some of them in his own herd. —Coquille Sentinel.

ESTRAED—Jersey cow with white spots, and a bell on. Finder please report to J. H. Gould. 76 t 3.

Tom Knight was up from Bandon last week preparing to move from Bridge to Bandon. Mr. Knight has traded his ranch to Tom Howe for Bandon property, and Mr. Howe moved up from that place this week. —Myrtle Point Enterprise.

For Sale—A number 1 brood mare and 6 months old colt. Inquire at this office. 77 t 6.

E. J. Baker, game warden of Curry county was in Bandon yesterday and called at the REORDER office. Mr. Baker says everything is moving along nicely in the game conditions in Curry county. He also states that there is talk by the department of making the Pacific coast a game preserve for birds.

New goods, fresh drugs, everything up to date at the Orange Pharmacy, the A. D. S. Store.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tallant of Ferndale and Requa, Cal., are visiting the gentleman's sister, Mrs. F. L. Greenough. They are accompanied by Mr. Uphur and Mrs. Roberts of Ferndale. The entire party drove up from Eureka in their Chalmers automobile. They went over to Coos Bay yesterday for a few days, and will then return here for a little longer visit before returning home. Mr. Tallant is engaged in the fish canning business, having canneries at both Ferndale and Requa.

C. B. Zeek can be found at usual place on Main St. Attends to collection business, registers voters, does notary public work, has two good houses for rent in West Bandon. Has cedar timber for sale. 77 t 2.

Mesdames Timmons and Wilson who have been spending several months at different points in Oregon and California, returned home last week.

FOR SALE—4 horses, 3 1/2 in wagon, incubator, 8 doz. chickens, 3 doz. Pekin ducks. Inquire E. E. Stillwell, Twomile. 77 t 4 x.

A number of Bandonians attended the Pendleton round up and all who were there report a big time and a good show. There were over 40,000 people on the ground the last day, which taxed the hotel capacity of Pendleton, which is a city of less than 10,000, but those who attended say they were well provided for just the same.

Mrs. C. Y. Lowe and daughter, Miss Maude, and B. F. Elgin, who have been visiting at Portland other Oregon points, returned home the latter part of last week.

Magazines, periodicals, and classy post cards on sale at Orange Pharmacy.

C. H. Donaca has bought five acres of land from Deyoe & Smith, just east of Bandon and will start at once to improve the same and will make himself a neat little home. Mr. Donaca recently sold five acres adjoining his newly procured place.

WANTED—Watches to repair—Sabro Bros.

Smith's magazine and Bluebook magazine for November, on sale today at Orange Pharmacy.

In last Friday's REORDER we noted the fact that S. Mundy of this city was raising very fine celery, which capped any California celery, and all other celery for that matter that we had ever seen, but since that time Mr. Mundy brought in another bunch which beat them all, weighing 6 pounds and 6 ounces, the largest bunch of celery we have ever seen. Mr. Mundy certainly has the celery growing process down to perfection and is to be congratulated upon his success.

For Carpet and Rug weaving, address Mrs. J. L. Foster, Bandon. 28 t f.

Levi Goff and wife returned from Flat Rock, Ill., yesterday where they had been spending the summer, and Mr. Goff has been looking after his farm there. He says there is lots of oil and gas drilling going on in that section of Illinois and his farm bids fair to be oil producing land. He says they enjoyed the summer very much, but did not want any of the winter weather, so came back to good, mild Oregon where the climate is always fine, and where things look better and are better than they are in Illinois.

Range for rent—Finest range and shelter for stock in Oregon, ten miles from Bandon. Apply to H. L. Anderson, Bandon Ore. 76 t 1.

W. A. LeGore and family returned on the Fifeild from Hanover, York County, Pa., where they had been visiting Mr. LeGore's father who is in very poor health, having had several strokes of paralysis. Mr. LeGore says if people in the west think living is high they ought to go east where they will find everything still higher than it is here. He says he can live cheaper in Bandon than in Pennsylvania.

The LeGore family visited Philadelphia, Baltimore, Atlantic City and other big eastern cities while gone, and had a very enjoyable time except for the fact of the illness of Mr. LeGore's father. They say, however, that they are glad to get back to Bandon and are perfectly satisfied to stay here.

A. L. Jacobsen of Tacoma, has bought the Walker studio and has already taken possession of the same. Mr. Jacobsen is a high class photographer and will no doubt make good here. Mr. Walker has not decided what he will do yet but is thinking of going to Southern California. "We hope," however, that he will find a lucrative business here and will remain in our city.
