More True Than Funny.
"How's Jennie and Bill?"
"All right, I guess. They're livin' in a downtown hotel."
"They are? Why? Why ain't they keepin' house, now that they've got married?"
"Well, they thought they wouldn't go to housekeepin' for awhile."
"Why not?"
"They're waitin' to get rich enough to be able to buy furniture that will look well in the same room with the same stuff they got for wedding presents."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Saved by His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. J. R. Flint, Brain-tree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for colds and coughs, it is the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cts. and $1.00.
Guaranteed by all druggists.

Know His Place.

"Yes," said the determined looking woman, "I might manage to hand you a bite to eat if you'll saw and chop a good pile of stove wood and bring in a few buckets of water and chop the weeds out of the garden and fix up the fence."
"Lady," replied Meandering Mike,
"I'm only a hungry wayfarer. I ain't yer husband."—Washington Star.

A Log on the Track of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion.

Michael Hesseimer, of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again.
They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cts at all druggists.

Caesar's Mother.

Caesar's mother was "a strict and stately lady of the old school, unaffected by the cosmopolitan laxity of her day." Consequently, though the Caesars were wealthy, their household was "simple and severe." Its greatest son "was always passionately devoted to his mother, who shared his house up to the time of her death," when he was forty-six years old.

Saves Leg of Boy.

"It seemed that my 14-year old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote F. D. Howard, Aquone, N. C. "All remedies and doctors treatment failed until we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles.
25c at all druggists.

The Home.

The home is the cornerstone and bulwark of the state, and everything which tends to keep alive and renew its influence and associations should be cherished and encouraged.—Chin-nati Enquirer.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the says, "her face is her fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills.
They promote health and beauty.
Try them. 25 cents at all druggists.

Towels.

Towels should be thoroughly dried before being put away. In their damp condition mold sometimes forms on them, which not only spoils the towels, but has even been known to cause skin troubles.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., and consider it the best on the market." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Wily Widow.

"What made that old millionaire marry that young widow?"
"She did."

Old Time Floggings.

An act of the time of Queen Elizabeth ordained that vagrants were to be "stripped from the middle upward and whipped till the body is bloody." Four-pence each was the recognized charge made by the "whipman" for every male and female vagrant who passed through his hands, but on special occasions this sum was exceeded. Says the constable's account of Great Staughton, Huntingdonshire: "May, 1691.—Paid in charges taking up a distracted woman, watching her and whipping her next day, 8s 6d." After whipping people according to the statute the authorities sometimes gave them a letter recommending constables and others "to be as charitable as the law permits."

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it. For sale by C.
Y. Lowe.

Utilization of College Yells.

Farmer (whose son has been at college)—What was that howlin' you was doin' out in th' grove? Son—I was merely showing Miss Brighteyes what a college yell is like. Farmer—Waal, I swan! Colleges is some good after all.
I'm goin' into town to sell some truck tomorrow. You kin go along an' do th' callin'.—Chicago Record-Herald.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Kind Hearted.

Hewitt—Why did you marry? Jewett—Just to give a friend of mine, a clergyman, a job.—New York Press.

Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and correct that and the headaches will disappear.
For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Your Druggist Stops That Itch

If you are suffering from Eczema, Psoriasis or any other kind of skin trouble, drop into our store for instant relief. We will guarantee you to stop that itch in two seconds.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles, but none that we could recommend as highly as this, a mild wash of Oil of Wintergreen Thymol and a few other ingredients that have wrought such wonderful cures all over the country.

This compound is known as D.D.D.
Prescription for Eczema and it will cool and heal the itchy, burning skin as nothing else can.
A 25c trial bottle will prove it.
Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big-profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee—if you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE it costs you not a cent.
