FRIDAY ..... December 27 1912

There are good and sufficient reasons why the streets of Bandon should be renamed. For example: Running North Ocean street changes to Main; Spruce to Pine; Railroad to Abernathy; Pacific Ave. to Gibbs and then to Salmon. One street bearing three different names is surely confusing to a stranger. Running east and west Third Ave. changes to Myrtle; Second Ave. to Coos; First suddenly changes to Eighth; Ash becomes Randolph and then Sixth; Prosper Ave. changes to Fifth. There are two Second streets; two Third streets; three or four First streets and other names are duplicated. All this is confusing and entirely unnecessary. No stranger can find his way in Bandon by street and number. The city should prepare for free delivery of mail and one thing necessary it would seem is the renaming and renumbering of streets. To rename the streets will cost the citizens absolutely nothing. If the City Council or the Commercial Club will appoint a representative committee of citizens to suggest names the city engineer will prepare without cost a blue print showing names and corrections suggested by said committee. Then when the council passes an ordinance embodying said report, with such as the city dads may see fit make, the whole thing is done and we believe it will meet with quite general satisfaction of the citizens of Bandon.

The state tax commission has decided that notwithstanding the decision of the attorney general to the contrary the personal property exemption law passed in November will not apply to the 1912 assessment. Rolls in all the counties are complete and it is held that segregation of the exempted property would be impossible.

Recorder Homemade Philosophy

After all this old earth is rather a popular resort; most of us hang on as long as possible.

The superstitious are bound to hear strange noises at night.

Looking into the dark and seeing things that are not there is no evidence of spirituality.

We hate to see a square jawed woman who talks in a bass voice color her eye brows with a lead pencil.

One reason why life is such a long list of losses is because we bet the returns will be too high.

We content that a "soul kiss" is too apt to end up in a slobber.

Most of us take some comfort in the fact that good men make bad breaks.

Mrs. Sally Smart says she knows her husband would make a brave soldier because he is too lazy to run.

Examine the head of a quarrelsome person and you will invariably find a big bump of self conceit.

Ever notice how many things "they say"? Yet "they" are mighty hard to locate.

Many things we once knew were true we now know are not true.

The good spender who throws away his ready money never has any other kind.

If Christmas brings you a bust head the next morning your idea is subject to modification.

No one is successful in politics unless he gets an office and keeps it.

No matter how well you render your part a number of gushing friends will secretly sneer.

Every young person thinks their parents are careless about their dress.

The shortest day in the year is too long for a loafer.

Every compliment is bestowed with a string to it.

In giving credit for Christmas presents father is apt to be over-locked. A trust standing (if the grocer) rymen and spending all his ready cash he is often growled at for not spending more.

A Bandon physician says fish is food and is healthful. A London doctor says fish contains phosphorus and is harmful. As we eat fish when we get a chance we are banking on home talent on the fish question.

Could Shout For Joy.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. R. Rader, of Lewisberg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, of curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no superior. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Less Bowel Trouble in Bandon.

Bandon people have found out that a single dose of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German appendicitis remedy, relieves constipation, sour stomach or gas instantly. This simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities and it is surprising how quickly it helps.—CY Lowe.
