Recorder Homemade Philosophy

Your greatest weakness may be in saying just what you think.

Whiskey is the great-st deceiver in the world; after giving you a rosy view of things and making you feel unusually fine you are sure to be left in the dumps.

Falling in love at first sight indicates a disposition too impulsive to be trusted.

The superstitious person who can see things in the dark is blind in the day time.

Dr. Greek: "I have a notion to start a newspaper in Bandon and call it the Limit."

A man in Kansas City went around in an automobile Christmas distributing five dollar bills to the poor. He gave away $200 in this way. This man's Santa Claus expedition probably did more good than one of Carnegies libraries.

A wife begs her husband to tell her all of his past so she will have something to feel bad about.

From our office window we view the long combers on the Bandon bar as they curl up in huge mountains of water and break with a mighty crash upon the jetties. You lovers of ocean grandeur come to Bandon and see the real thing.

Ike Hadley: For forty years the doctors have been telling me what to eat; now I would appreciate a little advice on how to get it.

It is hard to keep that hypocritical streak from showing.

The worst man in the community is always the most terribly outraged upon discovering a weakness in the preacher.

It is written somewhere "thou shalt not swear," but that is no reason you should not swear off.

Andrew Carnegie is having trouble in creating his pension fund for ex-presidents. About the last thing a rich philanthropist will do with his money is to give it to the poor.

People who go to a party are bound to be amused at everything that happens.

The man who chews tobacco will argue that a fire place is more comfortable than a stove.

Laura Jean Libby says a kiss is the best Christmas present; in that case there ought to be enough to go round.

Sticking your nose in a man's mouth while arguing the question is driving the point in too far.

The gent who has the cards stacked is a cynical standpatter.

The fellow who is down and out has no trouble in seeing the need of reform.

We haven't any particular interest in a great man's autograph unless it is signed to a check.

The old saying that the fools are not all dead yet is evidenced by the fact that fortune tellers still manage to exist.

The Catholic Sentinel of Portland is discussing the question "how to make saloons fewer?" How would drinking less whiskey do?

A prejudiced mind is the brain of a slave.

He who wins by deceit loses.

No real great man ever had a great opinion of himself.

Hard hatred will plow more wrinkles in your face than hard work.

FOR SALE: Acreage tract of 5 acres, platted all around it. Will cut about 50 lots 25 by 125. Lots selling at $150. This entire tract with small orchard, house and barn only $3500. Inquire at office of Bandon Recorder.

THE WORKINGMAN'S RIGHT.

Not till society shall be so adjusted, so organized, that whoever is willing to work shall assuredly have work and fair recompense for doing it, as readily as he who has gold may exchange it for more portable notes, will the laborer be placed on a footing of justice and rightful independence. He who is able and willing to give work for bread is not essentially a pauper. He does not desire to abstract without recompense from the aggregate of the world's goods and chattels. He is not rightfully a beggar. Wishing only to convert his own muscular energy into bread, it is not merely his but every man's interest that the opportunity should be afforded him. Nay, it is the clear duty of society to render such exchange at all times practicable and convenient.—Horace Greeley.

HONOR.

Say, what is honor? 'Tis the finest sense
Of justice which the human mind can frame,
Intent each turling frailty to disclaim
And guard the way of life from all offense
Suffered or done.

We know the arduous strife, the eternal laws
To which the triumph of all good is given,
High sacrifice and labor without pause,
Even to the death, else wherefore should the eye
Of man converse with immortality?

Advice to Bored.

A successful after dinner speaker said:
"I owe my success to the fact that I'm always brief and to the point. I once asked Senator Depew how long an after dinner speaker ought to speak.
"About two minutes—unless by that time he has struck rich ore," the senator replied. "And if he hasn't struck it he should at once stop boring."
—Los Angeles Times.

Labor Wasted.

"You went to a lot of trouble to train your dog."
"Yes," replied Mr. Growcher. "And it was a mistake. The only thing a man who teaches a dog tricks gets for his pains is to have a lot of people say the dog is smarter than he is."
—Washington Star

Modern.

First Chicago Child—My father is connected with some of the best families in town. Second Chicago Child—Pooh! That's nothing. My father is separated from three of them.—Life.

Poor Suggestion.

Distressed Mother—John! John! Baby has swallowed my latchkey. Absentminded Father—Never mind dear one mine!—London Opinion.

Aguardi's Voice.

The record soprano voice was Lucreeza Aguardi's. This lady, who died in 1781, could easily strike C in altissimo.

Chinese Pirates.

As long ago as the thirteenth century the island of Hongkong was a piratical stronghold, and for centuries the Chinese government was unable to drive the sea robbers out. All craft passing what is now Hongkong harbor were compelled to pay tribute. The higher elevations of the island served as lookout stations, and no boat that approached was permitted to leave until it had paid toll.

Three Names.

"All peace" is the meaning of the name Alfred, while Arthur means a strong man. Samuel means "heard by God."

A Natural Soap Bath.

Timor, a village in one of the East Indian islands, has a spring from which bubbles up water heavily charged with radium and alkali. It has the appearance of a miniature volcano. It forms a natural soap bath, but the worst feature is that vegetation for miles around is ruined.

Tree Life.

The Ivy lives about 200 years, the elm 300 to 350 years, the linden 500 to 1,000 years, the locust tree and the oak 400 years, the fir 700 to 1,200 years and palm trees 3,000 to 5,000 years.

People Should Guard Against Appendicitis.

Bandon people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler's, the German appendicitis remedy. A single dose relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation, instantly because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities. C. Y. Lowe.

Mrs. R. A. Tabor, of Crider, Mo., had been troubled with sick headache for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.
