COL. R. H. ROSA AND MAY- OR J. W. MAST ARRESTED

TRIAL TONIGHT. ALL WOMEN JURORS

The Burn's and Pinkerton detective agencies, after spending vast sums, have at last unearthed the heinous criminality of two of the most prominent citizens of Bandon Mayor J. W. Mast has been discovered—caught in the very act—eating eggs out of season (the eating not the eggs). The sleuth hounds have detected the Colonel in the act of driving Dan Patch, alias Joe old timer, etc., at a breakneck speed on the Bandon-Langlois road.

The sensational trial of these !!! $ $!!! $-criminals (words gave out) will mark an epoch in the history of this favored country. The history making event will take place in the Commercial Club Hall tonight. Judge N. J. Crain will open the court promptly at 8:30. Be on time.

Regardless of the cost skillful and learned counsel have been retained. The trial will be excitingly lively, entrancingly interesting and—well you heard about the cat laughing.

To assist the solemnity of the proceeding and to assure a trial pleasant for the prisoners a women's jury will be empanelled.

A charge of 25c will be made for admission, which will be good for contempt of court fines for twenty-five outbursts of uproarious mirth. Take the event in. It will be worth your time and the quarter.

The Boys Scouts Law.

1. A scout is trustworthy. A scout's honor is to be trusted. If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie, or by cheating, or by not doing exactly a given task, when trusted on his honor, he may be directed to hand over his scout badge.

2. A scout is loyal. He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due: his scout leader, his home, and parents and country.

3. A scout is helpful. He must be prepared at any time to save life, help injured persons, and share the home duties. He must do at least one good turn to somebody every day.

4. A scout is friendly. He is a friend to all and a brother to every other scout.

5. A scout is courteous. He is polite to all, especially to women, children, old people and the weak and helpless. He must not take pay for being helpful or courteous.

6. A scout is kind. He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.

7. A scout is obedient. He obeys his parents, scout master, patrol leader, and all other duly constituted authorities.

8. A scout is cheerful. He smiles whenever he can. His obedience to orders is prompt and cheery. He never shirks nor grumbles at hardships.

9. A scout is thrifty. He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay but must not receive tips for courtesies or good turns.

10. A scout is brave. He has the courage to face danger in spite of fear and has to stand up for the right against the coaxings of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies and defeat does not down him.

11. A scout is clean. He keeps clean in body and thought, stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, and travels with a clean crowd.

12. A scout is reverent. He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

People Should Guard Against Appendicitis.

Bandon people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German appendicitis remedy. A single dose relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation, instantly because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities. C. Y. Lowe.
