OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF BANDON

The question is popped while they are sparking and argued after marriage.

According to an eastern paper another new wheat has been discovered in Palestine which is proof against nearly everything, including rust, drouths, grasshoppers, harvest hand famines and car shortage. That ought to hold you for a while.

Another question that is often up for argument after the venter of love has been scratched off in a few places is, did he marry her or did she marry him?

No one's education is completed until he learns in the book of experience that he is more or less related to the ass.

If some rich men should lose their money they would not be worth anything.

Every man who deals with the public has occasion to nurse numerous sore spots where the dear people have landed on him with number "eleavings."

When the women get into politics will the padding habit be carried far enough to affect the census?

A good booster is a truthful booster of the truth.

Not only the rich but the poorest of men always have something—to hide.

Some wise and solemn people in prominent positions want no change because they prefer bills of large denomination—which they are now getting.

Mean tongues have shattered more nerves than whiskey.

To be orthodox is to be under control and therefore an intellectual slave.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you" probably was not meant to refer to those who laugh at their own wit.

The young gentleman whose lady escort treats him with icy civility may be said to be up against a cold proposition.

Elbert Hubbard, the famous writer of epigrams, says that "hope" is blasphemy. We "hope" he is mistaken.

Workmen's Compensation Committee.

T. Meyer of Marshfield, representing the Workmen's Compensation committee which is working in the interests of the bill to come before the Oregon Legislature this term, was in Bandon Wednesday in the interests of this bill and interviewing the local workmen in regard to it. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this committee in another column of the RECORDER and would also state for the benefit of those interested that a copy of the bill is at Manceit's confectionery store where any who are favorable thereto can go in and sign the petition to the legislature, asking that body to pass the bill as it is framed. The bill has aroused considerable opposition from certain classes of attorneys, casualty insurance companies and some financial interests but the bill as framed is for the best interest of the working man, who after all is the most interested, and all working men are asked to go in and sign the petition.

Oregon Development News.

Portland, Ore. Jan. 16 (Special)—The cause of irrigation never received a greater boost in this state than during the convention of irrigationists at Portland the past week. Never before has the cause of the irrigation gathered so much support and the outlook for the future in this direction was never so promising as now.

The convention attacked the subject from the standpoint of the settler and never lost sight of his interests in the matter the whole time. This is as it should be for the actual settler on the land is the one most interested and the one who, above all others, should be consulted.

This irrigation congress is right in line with the tremendous development movement now so generally under way throughout the whole state. It means more lands made available for the farmer, greater wealth for Oregon and a greater and more prosperous population.

The lay of the Oregon hen has been the subject of much thought on the part of the regents of the Oregon Agricultural College and they will seek funds from the legislature to establish a model poultry farm at Corvallis. The average hen in the state lays about 50 eggs per year, while champion layers at the college have gone well past the 200 mark in a twelvemonth. It is desired to develop a laying strain of poultry, and to sell the fowls and their eggs at a reasonable price to farmers is the object aimed at in establishing the poultry ranch.

Fruit growers of the Rogue River Valley district have organized a co-operative association, which is expected to do much to bring about better marketing conditions. It is believed better distribution can be effected and the glut of markets avoided, thereby getting better prices for fruit.

The Government will provide for road building through lands in this state held in forest reserves. Announcement was made this week that a total of $16,077 has been set aside for building roads in 13 forest reserves in Oregon.

Redmond had a notable celebration the past week when the big potato warehouse lately erected by the co-operative efforts of farmers in that district was opened. This building marks the beginning of a movement among the farmers of central Oregon district whereby a better market is offered for their products. Potatoes and other crops can be stored here and sold in large quantities when the market is best.

To harness the Columbia River by means of a hydro-electric plant at Celilo, developing no less than 100,000 horsepower, is the project of a state senator, who will suggest his plan to the Legislature in a bill. He believes the states of Oregon and Washington should build and operate this power plant.

Frightful Polar Winds.

blow with terrific force at the far north and play havoc with the skin, causing red, rough or sore chapped hands and lips, that need Bucklen's Arnica Salve to heal them. It makes the skin soft and smooth. Unrivalled for cold-sores, also burns, boils, sores, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

The Boy Scout Movement.

As the fisherman baits his hook with food most pleasing to his victim; so are the mothers to be baited with the seeming good points in the Boy Scout movement. The oath published recently was by no means complete. As it appears it is seemingly harmless, and sounds very good to the unsuspecting reader, but like the highly colored posters and the smoothly worded circulars, that ensnare the soldier and marine, so are you being deceived by only the bait you are most apt to swallow, but you may be deceived into consenting to your boy becoming a Scout. Mothers let us examine the oath as printed and see wherein you or your boy will derive any benefit, therefrom.

First: "To do my duty to God." Whose God think you is here meant? The God of Mammon (gold) as worshipped by our nation today? Or the gentle Christ, who said, "Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God."

Christ, who all his life fought the rich and died a martyr for the poor and down trodden of humanity? Who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me for such is the kingdom of heaven?" If then, our children in their innocence are fit for the "Kingdom of Heaven" what an awful crime we commit when we convert Angels into demons of hell by teaching them the art of slaughter. "To do my duty to my country." Pray mothers how much of the great country belongs to you or your boy. Do you know that more than one-half the mothers in the United States today have no homes of their own, but live in rented homes?

More than one-eighth live in mortgaged homes. And a vast number of boys and their mothers in your county live in mean small houses, with scarcely a modern convenience.—A Mother.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known every where as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

A Hero in a Lighthouse.

For years J. S. Denahue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50cts at all druggists.

People Should Guard Against Appendicitis.

Bandon people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German appendicitis remedy. A single dose relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation, instantly because this simple mixture antiseptically cleanses the digestive organs and draws off the impurities. C. Y. Lowe.
