THE "REPROBATE INFANTS."

You sinners are, and such a share as sinners may expect. Such you shall have, for I do save none but my own elect.

Yet, to compare your sin with their who live a longer time, I do confess yours is much less, though every sin is a crime.

A crime it is; therefore in bliss you may not hope to dwell. But unto you I shall allow the easiest room in hell.

—Michael Wigglesworth in "The Day of Doom," 1662.

GRAFT AND ALTRUISM.

The rumors which come to our ears from the mouths of criminals say that the so called "system" is a vast business enterprise, yielding $2,400,000 a year. In such a vast scheme individuals rarely count. It is the great, shadowy public with which the managers deal. Let us note, however, that the indifference to the public on the part of the public service corporations and great business enterprises has paved the way for this very system. For the sake of millions of dollars men have been permitted to ignore right and justice. The real motives behind the deed are greed and robbery. A great wave of altruism sweeping over the country is demanding a new interpretation of the command, "Thou shalt not steal." It says to the spirit of business: You shall not ignore human rights in your struggle for gain. We must strive to direct the forces of democracy toward brotherhood, and to that end we must take to heart the lesson which the hour brings home to us and see to it that justice, honor and integrity are put above every other consideration. Upon these alone must rest our civic pride and national safety.—Rev. Dr. Leon S. Harvey.

THOUGHTS ABOUT WOMEN.

A woman would be in despair if nature had formed her as fashion makes her appear.—Mlle. de Lespinasse.

The clown knows very well that the women are not in love with him, but with Hamlet, the fellow in the black cloak and plumed hat.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Do you not know I am a woman? When I think I must speak.—Shakespeare.

Woman sends forth her sympathies on adventure. She embarks her whole soul in the traffic of affection, and if shipwrecked her case is hopeless.—Washington Irving.

We love handsome women from inclination, homely women from interest and virtuous women from reason.—Arsene Houssaye.

He that hath wife and children hath given hostages to fortune, for they are impediments to great enterprises, either of virtue or mischief.—Francis Bacon.

ADVERTISERS AND NEWS-PAPERS.

If there is merit in proportion, and I think there is, the more business a newspaper gets the stronger it becomes, more powerful and more independent. It is giving value received to the advertiser and does not truckle to him or dispose itself to secure his business. In short, it commands and does not obey. If the theorists would think logically for a few minutes they would see the correctness of this proposition. The strong newspaper acquires its power on a basis of public confidence. The advertiser finds a constituency which has faith in its newspaper much more productive of business results than a subsidized sheet could possibly find. Not only do advertisers not run the policy of newspapers, but they seldom or never try.—Don C. Seitz of New York World.

VOX POPULI.

Whatever meaning men may choose, then, to give to vox populi vox Dei, in other spheres, or, if applied to the long tenor of the history of a people in active politics and in the province of practical liberty, it either implies political levity, which is one of the most mordant corrosives of liberty, or else it is a political heresy, as much so as vox regis vox Dei would be. If it be meant to convey the idea that the people can do no wrong it is as grievous an untruth as would be conveyed by the maxim, the king can do no wrong if it really were meant to be taken literally.—Francis Lieber.

A Girls Wild Midnight Ride

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. Kings New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.
