

NEW GRACE DOLLAR COMING SOON

Big Lumber Carriers Will be Here in Two or Three Weeks.

Captain G. J. Fosen has been in Bandon a few days looking into conditions and getting acquainted. Captain Fosen will have command of the new Grace Dollar, the new steel vessel of the Dollar fleet, that is to come to this harbor. The new vessel will be here in two or three weeks, according to Capt Fosen and will have a carrying capacity of 1,200,000 feet of lumber and will carry 800,000 feet of lumber, drawing 12 feet of water.

The Grace Dollar will be 230 feet in length, will have a 40 foot beam and 16 feet depth of hold. She will have 1000 horse power engine, thus giving her plenty of power for most any kind of sea.

She will be the biggest boat that ever crossed in over the Coquille River Bar and will be a great addition to the fine fleet of vessels visiting this harbor.

John Hak is Killed by Log.

John Hak, head rigging slinger at Smith-Powers Camp on South Coos River, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a log. He was horribly crushed about the head and body.

It seems that a log being hauled in caught on another log and before it could be released, it jerked the second log around so that it struck Hak.

Hak's body was brought down last evening, Chauncy Clark, time-keeper at the camp accompanying it. Hak was 28 or 30 years old and had been employed in the local camps for some time. He was well liked by all. Of rather small stature, he had a hobby of always wearing a stiff hat.

Hak was born a French Canadian and is said to have been born near Winnipeg. He has no relatives here but Coroner Wilson is trying to locate them near Winnipeg.—Coos Bay Times.

Hub Clothing & Shoe Co. Expands.

The Hub Clothing & Shoe Co. with stores at Bandon and Marshfield is continuing to expand their business by putting in a store at Myrtle Point. The new store is to be a big one from the start and they expect to do a big volume of business. J. T. Sullivan manager of the Bandon store says that the company did a much larger business both at Bandon and Marshfield during 1912 than in any previous year in the history of the company and the year 1913 so far promises to be still another record breaker and with the new store at Myrtle Point, the possibilities for business will be increased.

It Pays.

At the urgent request of the advertising department we reprint this bit of logic from an unknown source: "When a duck lays an egg she just waddles off as if nothing had happened. "When a hen lays an egg there's a whale of a noise. "The hen advertises; hence the demand for hen's eggs instead of duck's eggs."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Denmark Doings

Mrs. Clapshaw, Mrs. Chenoweth and Misses Edna Capps, and Emma Sydnam were visitors at Denmark school last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Foreman, the Denmark teacher, visited at Port Orford from Friday evening till Monday morning. The trip was made by stage. She reports Port Orford to be a very social little town, and mentions particularly the courteous behavior of the young people of the village. Wonder if the absence of the "liquor element" could have anything to do with the moral tone of a community enough to make it noticeable to an unbiased stranger. We wonder.

Mr. Jas. White was giving his new automobile an airing Sunday. The splendid condition of the roads makes autoing a delight, and everybody wanted a ride.

Mr. E. J. Bement transacted business in Langlois Tuesday.

A Valentine post-office at public school, and a dancing party at Mr. Chenoweth's Hall for the young people in the evening is the program for Denmark Feb. 14th.

Mr. E. J. Bement has purchased a 120 acres of land joining his hill farm. The land was bought from Mr. Olson who is removing from Langlois to California.

Allie Ferrier who cut his foot severely a couple of weeks ago is doing nicely now, and is to entertain at a birthday dinners Wednesday evening.

Lincoln Memorial Service.

The Lincoln Memorial Sermon was delivered at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning the 9th, by Rev. H. C. Hartranft, who was assisted in the service by Rev. J. Mickey and Rev. A. Haberly of Bandon, and Rev. Williams of San Francisco.

The sermon was certainly a masterpiece and was delivered by Rev. Hartranft in his usual masterly manner, to a crowded church of admirers of America's, yea the world's greatest man in his time, Abraham Lincoln, whose name and fame will never die. The Bandon Post G. A. R. and W. R. C. attended the service in a body as is their usual custom.

The Boy Scouts of Bandon did their newly organized troop great credit by assembling at the church door in open order form and saluting the G. A. R. and W. R. C. as they passed through the column, then they fell in, in the rear of the ladies, and marched into the church in a body.—G. A. R. Committee.

The directors of the Bandon public library are shaping the affairs of the library with the intent of consigning it to the care of the city. This will guarantee the continuance of the institution as a free public library, and will insure co-operation with the Oregon Library Commission and will secure contributions from all the departments of the government.

Bets are Offered.

A Marshfield man is offering to bet anywhere from $100 to $1,000 that the Willamette Pacific railroad will be completed and ready for operation by July 1, 1914, about 17 months from now. To date, no one has taken any of the bets, although several believe they can take down some easy money in that manner. One or two men are thinking of taking a share of the offer and may post their wagers today.—Marshfield Record.

Says Bandon is Better.

In a letter from S. E. Hiner, now at National City, Calif. He says: "Perhaps something from this part of Uncle Sam's domain might prove of interest to the reader of the RECORDER."

Fred Leeper and family arrived here Thursday, January 23rd and Fred says he knows what it is to be in a storm at sea, as they had a very rough trip down.

This section of California has received such a set back from the recent frosts that it will be at least two years before the country can regain what it has lost. The lemons are all frozen and nearly all the oranges are a loss, the bloom and the new crop for next year are all destroyed as well as the crop that was just about ready to harvest. There are quite a number of young lemon orchards that are very badly crippled, even the young palm trees are frozen brown, but no wonder, when it froze one and one-fourth inches thick.

Of course the people here do not like anything said about the hard freeze in this sunny southern California but it won't hurt Bandon to know it. It is fun to see how the many real estate boosters try to make everything appear alright, but they don't seem very anxious to take the new comers out for an auto ride to show them the beautiful lemon groves, where he can make big money on land they are asking $1000 an acre for. Those brown leaves and shrunken up lemons are a very poor inducement for the prospective buyer.

Orpheum.

Wayne the Wizard who is playing at the Orpheum this week presented a good bill last night and the performance was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. His tricks are wonderful and Great Egyptian Trunk Mystery is the greatest of all mysteries.

If you have not placed your order, better do so at once. We have the best equipped job office in the Coquille Valley.

Herman Reynolds the Mexican who was taken from Bandon for larceny in a building, which larceny was committed in the Hartman concrete building last fall, will be held over until the next term of court for trial. He is suffering from appendicitis and an operation may be necessary.

Tom Nielson was a Marshfield business visitor one day this week.

Lincoln's Birthday at Bandon Schools.

Lincoln's Birthday Memorial exercises at Bandon schools was duly attended by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. of Bandon, the 12.

The exercises were very appropriately arranged and carried out by Superintendent Hopkins and the teachers and scholars in all of the grades.

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. enjoyed every moment of the time spent with the schools, and regret that the time could not have been longer.—G. A. R. Committee.

For a Coast Line.

The Triplicate says that on Thursday last a party of railroad surveyors consisting of ten men in charge of Mr. DeCamp, and arrived at Crescent City on the steamer Del Norte and left next day for the southern part of Curry county, to begin work on surveying a line down the coast. They are in the employ of the Southern Pacific Co., and the Triplicate learns that they will locate a line along the coast through Oregon and California to connect with the railroad at Trinidad and eventually with the California & Northwestern when that road is completed to Eureka from the south. For some time past there has been a surveying crew in Southern Curry, between Pistol and Chetco rivers, working south, and it looks as though the S. P. people were getting in a hurry to complete the survey on the subject of getting busy on construction work.—Coos Bay News.

Life Saving Site Picked.

Andre Fourchy, chief of the coast construction department of the life saving service, has completed his findings in the lower bay and this morning left for San Francisco, by way of Myrtle Point, to submit his work to the head officers. Mr. Fourchy had been with the life saving crew in the lower bay for between a week and ten days, and took soundings in all parts of the bar and channel. The soundings extended over all the south part of the inlet, about Charleston bay, outside the bar in the vicinity of the Carina wreck and in the neighborhood of the position planned for the south jetty. Mr. Fourchy's work was done preliminary to moving the life saving station from its present location on the north side of the bay to a point near Coos Head, at the entrance to Charleston. It is presumed some immediate activity will take place, now the survey is finished, and it is likely the new station will be commenced early in the spring.—Marshfield Record.

"It Will Be Built."

Southern Pacific engineers were busy last week at North Bend, surveying along the waterfront and making preparations for the contractors, McArthur, Perks Co., to commence construction. It is stated positively at North Bend that active work will commence immediately, and that there will be no cessation until the line from Eugene to Coos Bay is completed. According to report, the S. P. has accepted the stipulations in the bridge permit granted by the War Department and the building of the concrete piers will soon be under way. Carl Albrecht, who is in close touch with North Bend affairs, informed a number of Marshfield people Saturday, that he was authorized to bet $10,000 that the bridge would be built and that bets could be laid from $10 up. None of the money was covered so far as we've heard of. Coos Bay News.

James P. Olsen of Langlois passed through Bandon last night on his way to Portland. Mr. Olsen says his water power proposition on Willow Creek is coming along nicely, that he can control at least 5000 horse power and will have a power plant big enough to supply all Coos and Curry county.
