OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF BANDON

Recorder Philosophy

What has become of the old fashioned gent who claimed that he had read the Bible all through once?

If a Bandon business man fails, it will be because he doesn't keep up with the profession.

Greatness is a ghost. It is born in the brain of weaklings and thrust upon any old thing with the hope of some personal reward; either in the way of protection or material benefit.

Bandon affords opportunities to make friends—or in other words to make money.

And now the Kansas City Star is being prosecuted for criticising a judge. We note that judges sometimes exhibit feelings of revenge, same as other people.

Never "turn the other cheek" unless you are the biggest.

Look out for the man you helped up. He is likely to try to take a fall out of you just to show that he no longer needs your assistance.

We contend that a woman with a mustache can improve her looks more by shaving than a man.

A great many people have a doublebarreled brain. You get one barrel of soft soap in your face and the barrel of buck shot in the back.

Dr. Frank Dygert of Myrtle Point says that medicine, like pins, has saved lots of lives by not "bein' swallowed."

A BOY SCOUT STORY

The Boy Scouts will learn, if they follow the general program laid out for them, and if they have an efficient Scout-master, any and all of the following things:

Scoutcraft—The Manual reads: "To be a Scout means to be prepared to do the right thing at the right moment, no matter what the consequences may be."

Woodcraft—Which enables the Scout to find his way no matter where he is; teaches him the various kinds of wild-fruit roots, nuts, etc., teaches him careful observation, etc.

Campercraft of all kinds—including tenting, cooking, boating, swimming, tracking, signaling, etc. Also health and endurance, chivalry, first aid and life saving games and athletics, patriotism and citizenship.

Meetings should be, if possible, once a week. The main difficulty is in getting a good Scout-master. It must be someone reliable, responsible, and whom the boys will respect.

It is wisely recommended to "go slow." Get things well started. Let each boy have his own task. Send to headquarters for a Booklet on Formation of Patrols and Troops. Each boy should have a Manual. It is thirty cents well spent. All information and material may be had from National Headquarters Boy Scouts of America, Fifth Avenue Building, New York City.

In general, I believe this organization, as it stands today, to be a splendid and unique boys' opportunity. The especially good points are the military discipline, with peace intent; the dignity of the organization; the supervision of the boys and their interests by a Scout-master who is himself accountable to superior officers; the intelligent appropriation and intelligent use of

How many rows do you have with your wife because you hate to take things back to the store?

One way to save some things is to get rid of them—trouble, for instance.

The famous writer Kipling says "the female is fiercer than the male." And a Bandon woman does not say that Kipling is a "hateful old thing," she says he is a liar.

We love peace but we despise superstition and here's hoping that the Christian allies will shoot a lot of it out of those fanatical Turks.

With some other exalted chorchmen Bishop Henry Gabriels of New York must pay Father L. A. Klender $15,000 damages. The powerful bishop had the priest placed in an insane asylum for refusing to give up his parish at Faust, N. Y. The priest sued for damages and won. Hurrah for the priest!

Nevertheless one with a soft head can get hard bumps.

The fanatic considers an exhibition of common sense a lack of spirituality.

We think Bryan will be secretary of state but can't figure out how it will do us any particular good.

General Diaz is now president of Mexico. His rule will probably Di-az Madero's died.

A biggotted person thinks he has all the religion there is in his vest pocket—and also all the authority.

a boy's surplus energy; the practical knowledge taught and acquired, and the allied mental, physical and moral training. The secret signs, pass words, etc. are also good. They supply a certain need, and take the place of the often dangerous secrets maintained by small gangs and companies of boys.

In a word, here is an opportunity in employment, an education suited almost exactly suited, to a boy's needs, and to just those needs that home and a boy's mother cannot possibly supply.

I do not write this at the solicitation of the organization. Not a member of it knows I am writing it. I am writing it for other women and from a woman's standpoint—the standpoint of the mother of the Boy.

As I think the matter over, I am led to believe it is barely possible there may be a grain of egotism in my eager indorsement of the Boy Scout movement. I have often longed to tell the Rowdy's and the "Bully's" mother how she should train her boys, and have desisted; I have yearned to show the Braggart's mother her flagrant mistakes in the Braggart's education, and I have felt that I had no right. But now—they have been Boy Scouts six months, these three—I can see the Boy Scouts' organization effecting the very changes I have longed to effect. I can see the "Bully" no longer deserving of the name; the Braggart become a silent and useful member of society; and the Rowdy?—he is not two feet from me as I write, his head bent dutifully along with the carryy head of the Boy of my theories, over the Boy Scouts' Manual, studying absorbedly certain signs and obediences which he owes to his superior officer; as fine a boy as you would care to see. He even gets up now in manly fashion to offer me a chair when I come in the room. And neither his mother nor I, or anything in our woman's sphere, is accountable for that, but only and solely the Scout law and the grimy and muh-finfiered Boy Scouts' Manual that has been compiled and written by men who were once boys themselves, and who understand, as no woman ever does or can, a boy's world. If custom permitted, I would take my hat off to them; as it does not, I say, "Lord bless you, gentlemen!" (The End)

Blamed a Good Worker.

"I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility. 25c at all druggists.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration; and restores the system to a healthy condition. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Shocking Sounds.

in the earth are sometimes heard before a terrible earthquake, that warn of the coming peril. Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the Kidneys need attention if you would escape those dangerous maladies, Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feelings return. "My son received great benefit from their use for kidney and bladder trouble," writes Peter Boudy, South Rockwood, Mich. "It is certainly a great kidney medicine." Try it 50 cents at all druggists.
