A'most Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia but to continue with the Discovery I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Tecumseh.

Tecumseh, the famous Indian chief, did not lose his standing among his own people because of his disastrous defeat at Tippecanoe. In the American Historical Review a "journal" of the war of 1812 is published which contains this reference to the chief: "I have seen the great Tecumseh. He is a very plain man, rather above middle size, a noble set of features and an admirable eye. He is always accompanied by six great chiefs, who never go before him."

Shocking Sounds.

In the earth are sometimes heard before a terrible earthquake, that warn of the coming peril. Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape those dangerous maladies, Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feelings return. "My son received great benefit from their use for kidney and bladder trouble," writes Peter Bondy, South Rockwood, Mich. "It is certainly a great kidney medicine." Try it. 50 cents at all druggists.

What He Would Do.

"What would you do," asked the lieutenant who was instructing the class in aviation, "if you were up a thousand feet in the air and the steering gear should go wrong or the engine should fail?"

"I'd hit the earth in about twenty seconds, I'm thinkin'," replied Sergeant McManus. Chicago Record-Herald.

Simple Mixture Helps Bandon People.

That simple remedy are best has again been proven. C. V. Lowe reports that many Bandon people are receiving quick benefit from simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, the German appendicitis remedy. A single dose helps sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation instantly because this simple mixture anti-septicizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities.

Compradors in China.

The comprador is an important factor in the treaty ports of China. Many large foreign firms are engaged in the import and export trade at these ports, and each employs a comprador, a wealthy Chinese, whose business it is to keep himself acquainted with the Chinese merchants in the various lines of trade in which his house is interested. In Tientsin, Peking and the other cities of north China. He receives a commission on all that he buys or sells for the firm. In return, if credit be given to any Chinese shop or firm, the comprador guarantees the obligation, and if the shopkeeper does not pay at the appointed time he must pay out of his own pocket.—Argonaut.

Blamed a Good Worker.

"I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility. 25c at all druggists.

The First Sailors.

The first people, so far as we know, to navigate the deep waters were the Phoenicians. For a long time the Phoenicians were the only ones to be seen on the Mediterranean or Atlantic. At an age so remote that it cannot be determined with any degree of exactitude the Phoenicians traded along the Atlantic shore south with Africa and north with the British Isles. It is just possible, of course, that other nations may have navigated the deep waters as early as the Phoenicians, but to say that they did is not to proceed upon pure guesswork. A wonderful people were the Phoenicians, who have been called the "Yankees of antiquity."—New York American.

WOMEN'S WORK IN NEW ROCHELLE

How Beautiful New York Suburb Was Cleaned Up.

CHILDREN WERE A BIG HELP

Taught in Schools the Need of Town Improvement, They Spurred on Their Parents to the Work—Civic Pride Has Come to Stay.

Induced by their accomplishments in the last ten months, the members of the civic section of the Woman's club of New Rochelle are as capable as municipal housekeepers as they are to their individual fireside fields. Since this civic section was organized it has done more to clean up New Rochelle than any other betterment organization. Figuratively speaking, it has washed New Rochelle's face, combed its hair, dressed it in clean garments and is taking effective steps to keep it from being annoyed by mosquitoes and infected by flies.

The first thing the Woman's club civic section attempted was to clean up the town. New Rochelle, beautiful as it is when looked at from the point of view of the average visitor, used to have many unswept and untidy corners. Various back yards, back streets and vacant lots were like the "junk rooms" in a big house—places in which all sorts of unsightly trifles were allowed to accumulate. These municipal housekeepers, after looking over their common habitation, began a vigorous campaign to get people interested in sprucing up—to arouse civic pride, in fact. In this work the boys and girls of the town—the school children—were invaluable. They spurred on their parents.

It was not long before the agitation produced results. The streets and vacant lots were cleared of papers and all sorts of debris. A passion for cleanliness seemed to sweep over New Rochelle. Photographs were taken before the work began and after it was completed. The contrasting pictures aroused still greater enthusiasm. Singularly enough—contrary even to ordinary human nature—the spirit of cleanliness seems to have established itself permanently in New Rochelle, even in places where once it was an unwelcome guest.

In practically all these movements for the betterment of New Rochelle the children of the place took an important part. So essential is the interest and enthusiasm of the children to the upbuilding of the perfect city and the making of good citizens that a great deal of attention has been paid to devising means for training the continually advancing energy of youth to the best advantage. With the realization of these endless possibilities in the citizens of tomorrow the public spirited women of New Rochelle are organizing children's civic clubs in the schools of the city.

Clear Streets.

European cities pride themselves on clean streets above all other public works, and some cities are famous the world over for the splendid condition of their public thoroughfares. One facetious writer says that in Berlin they not only wash the pavements every morning, but wipe them too.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Coos.

A. M. Hitchcock, and Emma Hitchcock, husband and wife; Helwig Peterson and Oscar Peterson, wife and husband; Udo Anderson and Sigma Anderson husband and wife; Plaintiffs SUMMONS Partition suit in Equity.

Mae Pearce-Bark and F. W. Bark, her husband, and their son and judgment creditors, Defendants.

To Mae Pearce-Bark, and F. W. Bark, her husband, their son and judgment creditors, the above named defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon:

You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit:

Within six weeks from the 31st day of January, 1913, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 14th day of March, 1913, that date being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication, the plaintiffs will apply to the court for the relief asked for in the complaint filed in this cause, a succinct statement of which is:

An order appointing a referee to prove the title of the respective parties hereto, and an order appointing referees to examine and report on the partitioning off and segregating of the interests of the of the respective parties hereto, in certain real property, formerly known as the W. S. Pearce estate, described by and contained within trusts and bounds as follows: Beginning at a point 900 feet West of the North East corner of Sec. 36, Twp. 28 So., R. 15 West of the Willamette Meridian in Coos county, Oregon running thence West 310 feet thence South 204 feet, thence East 130 feet, and thence North 264 feet to the place of beginning, containing 2 acres, together with tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances. Plaintiffs will recommend to such referees and the court that the interests of the defendants in said premises be partitioned off and confined to the North West quarter thereof described by the following metes and bounds, to-wit: Beginning 1155 feet West of the N.E. corner of Sec. 36, Twp. 28, So., R. 15 West of Willamette Meridian in Coos County, Oregon running thence West 165 feet, thence South 132 feet, thence East 165 feet, thence North 132 feet to place of beginning containing therein 1.2 acres, excluding each, every and all interest or claim of defendants to any part, parcel or portion of the remainder of said estate, whether land or tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances and for such other relief as to the court seems proper and just.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable J. S. Coke, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the 2nd judicial district in said State, dated January 29th, 1913.

Suffered For His Chickens.

In London as far back as 1791 a city ordinance was passed to suppress the early morning cries of the street hucksters. This law was so severe that a person arrested twice for the same offense could be imprisoned for ten years. There is one record of a man lingering in prison for ten years. When his time was up he was asked what his crime was.

"For selling chickens that squawked," was the reply.

In the confusion of the trial the fact was not brought out that the chickens and not the man were responsible for the din that aroused the wrath of the disturbed citizens.

An Eccentric Wager.

In the old betting books of the Jockey club and White's in London are to be found many curious records of wagers. There was once a young man who made money on spider racing. "He wagered that a spider which he would produce would cross a plate quicker than a spider to be produced by a friend. Each spider was to have its own plate. His opponent's spider, however, on being started would not stir, while his own ran with immense speed. The bet was consequently lost, and the loser soon found out the reason why. Our young friend had a hot plate." This is told by Ralph Nevill in "The Man of Pleasure."

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. Y. Lowe.
