OREGON'S NEW GAME REGULATION

Legislature Just Closed Revises State Game Code in Several Instances.

Senator I. S. Smith gives the following short synopsis of the new game laws passed by the last legislature.

In response to a request of many sportsman for an explanation of the provisions of the game law enacted by the recent legislature, regarding the open season for birds, will say that the following sections will no doubt prove of interest to the public.

District No. 1, shall include that portion of the state of Oregon lying west of the Cascade mountains.

The open season for game animals and birds in game district No. 1. of the state of Oregon shall be as follows:

Game animals—Deer with horns from August 1 to October 31 of each year. Bag limit, three such deer during any one season.

Silver gray squirrels from October 1 to October 31 of each year. Bag limit, five such squirrels in any seven consecutive days.

Game birds—Ducks, geese, rails, coots and shore birds, open season in Multnomah, Clatsop, Columbia, Tillamook and Coos counties, September 15 to December 31. Bag limit, 30 of such birds in seven consecutive days. Additional open season, Clatsop county, geese from March 1 to April 30.

Male Chinese torquatus pheasant, sooty or blue grouse, ruffed or native pheasants, open season from October 1 to to October 31. Bag limit, five of any or all of such birds during any one day or ten during any consecutive days. There shall be no open season on any Chinese pheasant in Coos and Curry counties in game district No. 1. of the state of Oregon.

Mountain or plumed, California and valley quail—open season October 1 to October 31 of each year. Bag limit, ten of such birds in any seven consecutive days.

Doves and wild pigeons—Open season from September 1 to October 31 of each year. Bag limit, ten of such birds in any seven consecutive days.

It shall be unlawful at any time for any person within the state of Oregon after having killed any deer, to mutilate, or have in possession, the carcass or skin thereof in any so as to disguise the sex and prevent the same from being ascertained or determined; and it shall be unlawful for any person to have in possession the plucked carcass in any manner so as to disguise the species or kind of game bird while in the field or forest, or while upon any highway, train, car, boat or other conveyance returning from any hunting equipment.

It shall be unlawful within the state of Oregon for any person at any time to have in possession more than 40 pounds of any dried, smoked evaporated or jerked venison or deer meat.

It shall be unlawful for any person to build or use any blind or any other structure, in any public lake or river, in the state of Oregon, or in the Columbia river, or in any lake in the state of Oregon, which is not wholly owned by himself, his lessor or licensor, which stands more than 100 feet out in the water from the shore or margin of such lake or river for the purpose of shooting wild ducks, geese or other waterfowl therefrom at any time.

A man walking in his sleep caused a little excitement for a while on Front street, Saturday night. The manner in which he was dressed, or rather undressed, couldn't fail to attract attention, but the show was cut short by the police who grabbed him and held him in the cooler until he woke up, after which they procured his clothes at his lodging house, dressed him and sent him home.—Coos Bay News.
