By President
ARTHUR T. HADLEY of Yale University

THE American nation may LOSE ITS GREATNESS if the temper shown by recent unreasonable attacks on railroads is not altered.

I am afraid that neither the public nor the government is awake to the real state of things. In our endeavors to control corporations we TOO OFTEN TRY TO LESSEN THEIR EFFICIENCY INSTEAD OF INCREASING IT. We are appalled by one railroad accident, and we suggest that every engine should have two engineers instead of one. A fast train runs off the track, and a government officer suggests that people ought not to want to travel so fast.

IF THESE VIEWS PREVAIL THE DAYS OF AMERICAN GREATNESS ARE DONE. A PEOPLE THAT BELIEVES IN DIVIDED RESPONSIBILITY AND WASTE OF TIME HAS NO FUTURE. THERE IS COMPETITION BETWEEN NATIONS, WHETHER THERE BE COMPETITION WITHIN THE NATIONS OR NOT. IF WE ARE CONTENT TO TAKE THINGS EASILY, GERMANY WILL BE ONLY TOO GLAD TO GET AHEAD OF US.

What is to be done in the face of this state of things? In the first place, we must CONTINUE TO REWARD THE EFFICIENT MAN. The fact that competition will no longer do this automatically must make us all, as part of our public duty, lend a hand to the men who are getting things done. We shall deal with the problems of corporate regulation and with the abuses of corporate management more effectively if we are willing to appreciate efficient service.

We must develop a system of FIRST CLASS TECHNICAL TRAINING AT LOW PRICES, like that which has been so successful in Germany. The great obstacle to good technical training in the United States in the past has been the idea that public schools ought to be free.

Recorder Philosophy

Bad luck is mostly laziness or sickness.

War, like yellow fever, should be abolished.

Even a deaf person hears lots of scandal that never happens.

Generally speaking, a license is a special privilege to prey on the people.

Two ways to bore your neighbor: Tell him your prosperity or tell him your troubles.

Do not forget that all wise men do not become rich; nor do all fools become poor.

The vain person who hisses and hates will have no more real friends than the serpent.

You will accomplish little after 60 because you have accomplished very little before 60.

Nine tenths of the public speakers are admired most by those who know them least.

As the people realize more and more that life is a farce the funny men grow in popularity.

It is necessary to possess some egotism but don't let your egotism stand in the way of investigation.

Unless you can read and understand men as well as books your education does not amount to very much.

The great statesman who votes for war and talks of dying for the country generally manages to run in a substitute.

It is said that oratory is a lost art but the Coos county high schools found a lot of it last Friday night in the oratorical contest at Myrtle Point.

Judging from his name, Dr. Gale will be strictly "in it." Hours, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., after 4 the sea breeze goes down.

The hypocrite and the fanatic both contend that the man who changes his religion or his politics is a fool or is dishonest.

If religion were confined to plain common sense a lot of ecclesiastical potentials would have to do something useful for a living.

Notice to Teachers.

The following plan will govern in the eighth grade examination in Agriculture which is to be given for the first time in the examination May 8-9, 1913.

Twelve questions will be submitted from which the pupil may choose ten.

If the pupil has a garden or has done any creditable work in agriculture the teacher may give 30 per cent for such work. In this case the pupil need answer only seven questions out of the ten submitted.

If a pupil falls low in this subject, the county superintendent may add not more than 25 per cent for a creditable exhibit at a county, district, or state fair.—Raymond E. Baker, County Superintendent

For Sale.
